BILL SHAAR, Prop. Hermiston

Don Baehne, who is stationed with the U. S. army at Camp Callan, Cal., is reported to be in the hospital with a bad foot. Although his condition is not serious, the trouble is quite painful.

Mr. and Mrs. Al Malden are the parents of a baby girl, Marilyn June, born Saturday in St. Anthony's hospital in Pendleton. The little tot is a granddaughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Richards.

Mrs. Casha Shaw of Heppner spent last week in Hermiston visiting relatives and friends. She came to be present for the farewell of Carl Shaw son of Mr. and Mrs. Guy Shaw, who left for service with the U. S. army.

The Hermiston Methodist Youth Fellowship visited the Echo group Sunday afternoon. Approximately 15 young people from here enjoyed the afternoon of fellowship and entertainment.

Rev. M. B. Ballinger attended the state pastors' convention at Corvallis last week. Present for the meetings was E. Stanley Jones, world renowned religious leader. Thursday Rev. Ballinger went to North Bend where he visited with his son David.

The promotion of Sherley H. Stockard to the rank of Corporal recently was announced at the Roswell Army Flying School in New Mexico. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. R. H. Stockard of Hermiston and attended local schools.

Walter Nelson Jackson, son of Mr. and Mrs. W. N. Jackson, has been graduated from the U. S. Naval Training School for diesel operators on the campus of Iowa State College and will soon be assigned to duty with the fleet or a naval shore station.

Miss Rosemary Serell, who teaches in the Ontario schools, underwent an operation for appendicitis last week at the Ontario hospital. Her condition was reported as serious but she is now rapidly improving.

Reports from officers of the Cold Springs bombing range state that farmers are letting livestock, especially sheep and horses, roam on the range plainly marked as "Dangerous." Not only are they running a risk of having their stock killed, they are also proving a nuisance to bombing maneuvers.

It is also reported that some trespassing has been noted. This must cease at once or drastic action will be necessary.

A traveling examiner of operators and chauffeurs is planning to make a special stop in Hermiston Monday, March 8, between the hours of 10:00 a. m. and 3:00 p. m. at the American Legion hall.

All those wishing permits or licenses to drive cars are urged to take advantage of this extra visit and get in touch with the examiner during these hours.

Fort Des Moines, Ia. — A well known horsewoman in civilian life, Auxiliary Eva Wilcox, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert B. Wilcox of Hermiston, Ore., is in training at the First Waac Training Center at Fort Des Moines, Iowa.

Manager of her own riding academy, Auxiliary Wilcox has ridden in many horseshows. While attending Oregon State College at Corvallis, where she was a member of the Student-Faculty Riding club, she won a number of ribbons in ROTC horseshows. She has ridden in the Pacific International Exposition at Portland, and has shown her own stock at local shows at Pendleton, Baker, and Haines. She is a member of the Mustangers at Pendleton.

Auxiliary Wilcox had sold most of her horses before she enrolled in the Women's Army Auxiliary Corps. However, she has three registered colts, two of them of Man-O-War strain, awaiting her return. For five years leader of the 4-H Dairy club, she owns four head of purebred shorthorns.

Prior to joining the women's army, Auxiliary Wilcox was a bookkeeper in the Farm Bureau Cooperative.
