LOCALS

Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Gibbs accompanied by Mrs. Dayton Harris spent Monday in Pendleton on business.

Jack Hartman, who has been a patient in the local hospital, was able to return home today (Thursday).

Mrs. Archie Campbell spent Thursday in Milton-Freewater visiting her mother who has been ill.

John Julian was admitted to the local hospital March 10 with an infected foot.

Nellie Burchett was dismissed from the local hospital March 5.

"Jinky" Wilson, daughter of Mrs. Jean Wilson, is slowly improving from pneumonia.

Mr. and Mrs. L. M. White returned today (Thursday) from Walla Walla where Mrs. White had been receiving treatments for several days.

Mr. and Mrs. Bill Maxwell are the parents of a baby girl born Saturday night in St. Anthony's hospital in Pendleton.

Mrs. Carol Compton left Saturday night to stay until Tuesday night in Spokane visiting friends. She is employed with the U. S. Engineers at the Umatilla Ordnance Depot.

Mrs. Charles Wells and infant daughter Janice Carol left the hospital Thursday.

John T. Jackson, son of Mr. and Mrs. Walter N. Jackson, has reported at Farragut, Idaho, at the U. S. Naval Training Station. He will undergo his recruit training there.

Mrs. Elsie Miller was able to return to her home Tuesday after being confined to the Hermiston hospital.

Gary Saylor who is with the Marines stationed at San Diego arrived home Monday night to spend a 17-day furlough with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Edgar Saylor.

Word has been received here from Aviation Cadet Gene Rugg who is attending the U. S. Navy Pre-Flight School at Del Monte, Calif. Gene states that they are working the boys pretty hard at Del Monte but they seem to enjoy the strenuous routine.

He seems to think that Del Monte is one of the most wonderful places in the west. He has to study about four hours a day (that is work).

Mrs. May Kitchen left the local hospital Tuesday.

An 8 pound 3 ounces girl was born at the Hermiston General hospital to Mr. and Mrs. Orin Gutches.

Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Sene are the parents of a baby boy born March 10 and weighing 7 pounds.

A. C. Swarner spent last week end visiting his son Herbert at Vancouver, Wash., and his daughter Thelma in Portland.

Mrs. Mern Pratt left the Hermiston hospital Tuesday.

A baby boy was born to Mr. and Mrs. Paul Cook on March 10. The little fellow weighed 6 pounds 14 ounces.

Marianne Winsted of Stanfield is in the local hospital with a severed tendon in the left hand, received when a milk bottle broke which she was holding.

O. R. Sawley, who has been a patient in the Hermiston hospital, was able to leave.

Jay Gimble, who is attending school in Pendleton, arrived home Wednesday evening to spend four days with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Julius Gimble.

Mr. and Mrs. Jesse Marland are the parents of a baby boy weighing 6 pounds 8 ounces, born on March 2 at the Hermiston hospital.

Stanley Walter Hodges, son of Mr. H. H. Hodges of Hermiston, has reported for duty with the U. S. Navy at Farragut, Idaho. Hermiston is quite well represented at this training center as several other youths have reported there previously.

Billy Bush of Boardman was able to return to his home from the local hospital.

A special meeting of the members of the Central Church of Christ will be held Sunday morning following the worship service for the consideration of the purchase of property for a parsonage.

Pat McLaughlin, who for the past two months has been confined to the local hospital, was able to return to his home Sunday.

Baby David Christenson is in the Hermiston General hospital suffering from pneumonia. His condition is reported as improving.

Sgt. and Mrs. L. F. Fleming returned to Hermiston last Thursday night after an extended trip to Arizona where they visited relatives of Sgt. Fleming. The latter left the first of the week for Ft. Lewis where he is stationed. Mrs. Fleming expects to remain here for a few more weeks.

Mrs. Dan Gray has received word from her husband that he is getting along nicely with his training work with the U. S. Navy. Mrs. Gray expects to leave next week for Chicago to be with her husband. The Grays have rented their home to Mrs. James Todd and family. The Todds have in turn rented their home. Mr. Todd is with the postal department in the U. S. Navy.

Joan and Inez Scott, who were severely burned a few weeks ago, have both returned home from the local hospital.

Eldon Saylor, son of Mr. and Mrs. R. G. Saylor, has been awarded a key at Oregon State college in recognition of his being a member of the Oregon State College livestock judging team which placed first in the intercollegiate contest for the western states.

Miss Lauree Saylor who is attending a girls school in Portland arrived last Thursday to spend her pre-Easter vacation with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Edgar Saylor, and to visit her brother Gary Saylor who arrived home on a furlough from San Diego. Miss Saylor returned Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Smith received news of the birth of a baby girl March 2 to Mr. and Mrs. Lynn Anderson (Myrnie Smith) of Los Angeles. The little tot was named Cathy Jean and is a granddaughter of the Smiths. Mr. Anderson is taking advanced glider training near there.

Miss Joyce McCulley of Mountain Home, Idaho, came Saturday to visit until Tuesday with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. H. G. McCulley, and friends. Miss McCulley was employed at the Umatilla Ordnance Depot and prior to that at The Herald office before going to Mountain Home where she is with the U. S. Engineers.

Mr. and Mrs. J. H. DeMoss have received word from their son, Harvey DeMoss, who has been on a boat since leaving San Francisco late in December. Harvey states that he is enjoying life in the Navy and is enjoying the best of health. The V-letter came as quite a relief to Mr. and Mrs. DeMoss who had not heard from him since December.

Cadet Kenneth R. Skoubo, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ingrand Skoubo of Boardman, has just arrived at the Advanced Flying School at Seymour, Ind., where he will continue his flying training. Cadet Skoubo, who is a member of the first class to train at Seymour, will receive nine weeks of intensive and thorough instruction in twin engines.

A B.Y.P.Y. meeting will be held at the Baptist church Sunday evening at 7:00 o'clock with special music by the male trio and a girls' duet. Joseph Chabot will lead the discussion on "An Outline History of the Latter Day Saints." Young and old are invited to attend and also to stay for the regular evening service with Rev. McGee bringing the message.

Word has been received by local friends that Mrs. George Bancroft is in the Mayo Clinic at Rochester, Minn., recuperating from a goitre operation. She is getting along nicely but it will be several weeks before she is able to return home. Friends wishing to write to her should address her at 205 Second Ave., N. W., Rochester, Minn.

Mrs. Rovilla Thomas of Touchet, Wash., passed away in Walla Walla hospital March 8 and funeral services were held there March 10. She had been ill for several months. Mrs. Thomas is the oldest child of the old pioneer family of T. J. Conrad of Oregon. She is a sister of Mrs. J. S. Shaver, Mrs. L. Hammer and John Conrad, all of Hermiston, and has visited here many times.

A letter was received here this week from Sgt. Stuart Rankin who is with the medical corps in North West Africa. He states that The Herald is like a letter from home. Although he is prohibited from saying much about his activities he indicates that they are working hard in order to get the war over with so that they can come home. He states that they have a little time for baseball and is playing shortstop and to date hasn't been caught napping off second base. He states, "Keep that news coming and we'll keep them flying."

CARD OF THANKS
May we take this opportunity to thank our friends for the kindness and sympathy shown us during our recent bereavement. We especially thank those who help with funeral arrangements and those who presented floral offerings.

A. R. Crandall of Seattle, Ed Crandall, Venice, Cal., Dr. W. J. Crandall, Ashland, Mrs. Nele Morrison, Union, Louise Mattoon, Portland, Monte Prindle, Hermiston.

OREGON MAN IN FATAL ACCIDENT

J. E. Hallyburton, 46, formerly of Hermiston but more recently of The Dalles, was killed recently when struck by the flying head of a tank which exploded while he was working at a construction project near Scotts-bluff, Neb. The head of the air compressor tank struck Hallyburton in the head and he died soon later of the fracture.

Hallyburton was well known here among the old timers. He is survived by his widow, Mrs. J. E. Hallyburton, daughter of U. Edwards of Hermiston; his parents, Mr. and Mrs. H. L.

Hallyburton of The Dalles; three brothers, Robert of Klickitat, Ralph of The Dalles and Benjamin of Portland; three sisters, Mrs. T. E. Johnson of La rade, Mrs. George Davis of Tillamook and Mrs. George Johnson of The Dalles.

The body is being shipped to The Dalles for burial. Funeral services will be held at the Calaway Undertaking Parlors at The Dalles, probably Sunday, March 14, with the American Legion officiating. Mrs. Hallyburton is on her way from Scottsbluff to The Dalles. After the funeral she expects to visit her father at Hermiston.

MRS. CRANDALL BURIED HERE

Mrs. Laura Scott Crandall, formerly of Hermiston but more recently of Union, was buried here Monday. Funeral services were held at the Hermiston Baptist church with Rev. M. B. Ballinger officiating, assisted by Rev. H. V. McGee.

Laura Scott Crandall was born June 4, 1860, in Ireland, Indiana, the daughter of John and Margaret Scott. In August, 1879, she was united in marriage with Charles Crandall.

Mrs. Crandall lived in Indiana and Illinois for about forty years. In 1907 she came to Hermiston, where she lived for about ten years, and has since lived in Union, Oregon. She became a member of the Hermiston Baptist Church about the year 1910. Her husband, Charles Crandall, preceded her in death about twenty years ago. For the last several years Mrs. Crandall has been in ill health. For the past six months she has been confined to her bed, and on Saturday, March 6th, she passed on into the eternal at the age of 82 years.

She leaves to mourn her passing three sons and three daughters: Arthur R. Crandall, Seattle; Ed Crandall, Venice, Cal.; Jack Crandall, Ashland, Ore.; Monte Prindle, Hermiston, Louise Mattoon, Portland; and Viola Morrison, Union, Ore; and ten grandchildren.

Pallbearers were Geo. Strohm, Ed Jackson, Clint Jackson, F. B. Swazy, W. L. Hamm, and O. O. Felthouse.

U. S. O. HOSTESS CLUB MEETS

At the weekly U. S. O. Hostess club meeting held last Thursday, March 4, Miss Bruce, county health nurse, gave an address on the subject of personal hygiene. Miss Bruce chose various factors having to do with posture, voice, fatigue and care of skin and teeth, for her address which proved very interesting to those present.

A business meeting was held and plans were made for the skating party which was held Tuesday evening for the soldiers stationed at Stanfield. A gay time was had by all, and the evening ended with refreshments at the U. S. O.

Plans were also made for a buffet supper and group discussions which will be given Thursday, March 11th, by the U. S. O. hostesses for the soldiers stationed at Stanfield.
