

COLUMBIA NEWS

By Mrs. Bob Woodward
Mrs. Myrnie Caldwell and daughter Myrna spent several days the first of the week in Pasco where they were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Berney, former Hermiston residents. Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Parsons and daughter Glenda went to The Dalles Sunday to visit his brother, Ed Parsons, who was spending a 4-hour leave from Navy duty with other relatives there. Acquaintances here will be interested to know that Ed has just returned to the West coast from a three weeks aeronautical engineering school in Chicago, prior to which he was on active duty with the naval air force stationed in Alaska. Ray Parsons, accompanied by Bert Parsons, father of the boys, also spent Sunday in The Dalles.

I. D. Pike of Grass Valley was here during the week end to move the household goods of his daughter, Mrs. Lloyd Goodrich, who with her small son, accompanied him.

On Thursday of last week, Mrs. Emma Christley enjoyed a birthday anniversary at her home with two of her good friends, Mrs. Emma Upham and Mrs. Emma Hutchison spending the day with her. The following day, Friday, Mrs. Christley spent at the Hutchison home, honoring Mrs. Hutchison's birthday. The ladies reported two very enjoyable days, birthday cakes, presents and scores of best wishes.

Miss Agnes Caldwell of Irrigon spent Saturday afternoon at the Bob Woodward home.

Visitors on Saturday at the Baxter Hutchison home were Mrs. Clarence Williams and daughter, Miss Stella Mae Williams. Miss Williams who teaches in the Umatilla school, has joined the WAAAs and will leave for training as soon as school is out.

Mr. and Mrs. Loran Caldwell and son George, living temporarily at Boardman, spent the week end here at the Woodward and Caldwell homes.

Along the Diagonal: Lester Wilcox doing spring plowing for Baxter Hutchison, who, by the way, is planning an acre of carrots. Mr. Snapp plowing victory gardens for the Garberdings and Woodwards on Monday.

Carl Hammer slowly but steadily getting that garage built. Thursday, March 25, has been scheduled as the date the water will be turned into the irrigation ditches of this district, and comes as welcome news to many who are waiting to plant spring gardens. The irrigation season is beginning much earlier than usual this year because of the lack of moisture by rain. Joe Udey is to be watermaster in this area, replacing Henry Sommerer who held the position last year.

W. S. Phillips, who has been suffering from a severe cold, is quite ill this week and confined to bed.

Mrs. Everett Shaver has returned home from the Hermiston hospital but is still confined to bed. She is suffering with rheumatic fever.

Word comes from Yakima of the birth of a daughter, Linda Pauline, on March 7 to Mr. and Mrs. Lynn Shaver former residents of this district. Mr. Shaver is with the army and at present stationed in Maryland.

Mrs. Mabel Weeks spent Sunday in Pendleton where she attended the 50th anniversary services of the Christian Church.

Mrs. W. G. Weber, who has spent the past year at Olex with a sister, Mrs. Johnson, has returned to her home here accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. Johnson who will reside here with the Webers.

Week end guests at the James Getchell home were Mr. and Mrs. Howard Lee of Portland. On Sunday they were guests at a family dinner at the B. E. Getchells.

Mr. and Mrs. W. D. Neill of Butter Creek visited Tuesday at the Lester Hammer home.
