

"Springtime Is Oil Change Time"
Clean Your Motor of Winter Sludge

SEE YOUR RICHFIELD DEALER FOR
Free Victory Garden Seeds
Richfield Service Station
 L. E. Elwood, Prop.

BOARDMAN NEWS

By Margaret Thorpe

Mrs. Grace Forbe, came up from The Dalles Friday to move some more of her things and brought Lawrence up to work for Paul Smith.
 Elaine Fisher is working after school and on Saturdays in the office of Hall and Compton Contractors.

Mr. and Mrs. Bob Harwood and Mrs. Jenkins went to Portland Friday night. Mrs. Jenkins went on by train to Tacoma to visit her son.
 Albert Partlow of Portland spent a few days at his home last week.
 Claude Coates has been confined to his home with the flu.
 Doris Getchell spent a few days at the Hood home last week.
 Mr. and Mrs. Buster Rands spent Saturday in Pendleton.

Bob Harwood left Monday for Baker where he will drive truck for defense work. Bob is mayor of Boardman, and has been janitor for seven years.
 Mr. and Mrs. Leo Potts, Mrs. Ida Potts, Mrs. Walter Lay and Mrs. Ely went to Pendleton Friday.
 Mr. and Mrs. Charles Graham went to Pendleton Tuesday.
 Donald Ford had the misfortune to be driving a truck load of wheat Wednesday when both back tires blew out at once throwing the truck out of control. He was thrown aside barely a second before the truck hit a large rock and pushed the steering wheel clear to the back of the seat. Don escaped with only a few cuts and bruises. He also had to report to Pendleton Thursday for his army physical.
 Ed Barlow drove the school bus Monday and Lelon McLouth did it Tuesday. New arrangements for bus driver and janitor will be made in the near future.
 Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Stoltzow have closed their store and gone to Seattle to find defense work.
 Russell Miller has purchased a new truck.
 Supt. Richard McCullough of the Flight Strip work is staying in Pendleton taking medical treatments.
 Otto Barta is the operator taking Dale Russell's place at Messner. He is staying at the William McDonald home.
 The junior class is decorating the gym getting it ready for the Senior Frolic which will be April 10.

 The high school is practicing for a play called "Sis Perkins" which they plan to present on April 16th.
 (Held from last week)
 The finance committee of the Ladies Aid gave a St. Patrick's party at the church Wednesday. A missionary meeting and business meeting was held before the program. Refreshments were served.
 Mrs. Bickford of La Grande visited her daughter and family this week, Mrs. A. Hugg.
 Mrs. Otto Lubbes returned to her home in Newberg Wednesday after spending some time with her daughter, Mrs. L. Bush.
 Herman Bush received a bad cut on his chin when he got hit with a swing at school.
 Bob Miller came from the valley Friday night with a load of seed potatoes which they started planting Saturday.
 Grange met Saturday night with the regular order of business. The lecturer's hour was devoted to the burning of the mortgage on the hall which was paid off. Martin Tompkins, master of the Oregon State Grange, was the main speaker of the evening. Other guests of the evening were Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Wicklander, Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Lundell of Willows, and Mr. and Mrs. George Corwin of Heppner who all gave a short talk. A reading which she composed was read by Ella McDonald, called "The Burning of the Mortgage of the Hall". Stars of the Summer Night was sung by a quartette consisting of Miss Frances Skoubo, Russell Miller, Margaret Thorpe and Francis Harter, accompanied by Mrs. Russell Miller. Frances Skoubo was elected lecturer to take the place of Mrs. Martin Ekker who resigned. Mr. Potts was elected gatekeeper in Mr. Ekker's place. A lovely lunch was served by the serving committee to finish the evening.

 Mr. and Mrs. Richard Melcher were called to Yakima Saturday due to the illness of their baby.
 Mr. and Mrs. I. Skoubo have received a letter from their son Edward in New Guinea. He reports he is O. K. but is getting tired of New Guinea. He stated that he hasn't seen or heard anything of Frank Kunze who is there with him.
 Mrs. Nick Faler returned home from Portland Friday with Mrs. Eaton who drove up in her car, continuing on to Helix.
 Farrell Ekker is staying with Paul Smith and going to school.
 Mr. and Mrs. Leo Disbrow of Mul-lan, Idaho, spent Monday night at the Russell Miller home, going on to Portland Tuesday. Mrs. Disbrow is Mr. Miller's sister.
 John Partlow is installing an electric water system at their home this week.

Top Prices
 PAID FOR POULTRY
 AT THE RANCH
 WASHINGTON CREAMERIES
 D. C. Keller — Hermiston
 Phone 2624

Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Gammell, son Edwin and daughter Mrs. John De-Moss of Heppner, visited at the Lee Pearson home Sunday.
 Chloe Barlow and Dorothy Van Metre went to The Dalles Monday to spend two days visiting friends and shopping.
 Mr. and Mrs. Jack Gorham spent Monday in Pendleton on business. Josephine Rands worked in the store during their absence.
 Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Corwin and children of Heppner spent Saturday afternoon in Boardman visiting their friends and also attending Grange Saturday night.
 The Community Church held their annual election of officers Sunday. They are as follows: Edward Barlow, superintendent; Mrs. John Fisher, assistant supt.; Chloe Barlow, secretary; Dorothy Van Metre, assistant secretary; Mrs. Leo Potts, librarian; and Mrs. Lea Root, treasurer.

The "Boardman Bombers" defeated the Hermiston bowling team at Hermiston last week. The winning team consisted of the following boys from the Boardman air base: P.F.C. Walter Swieton, Corp. Ed Korte, P.F.C. Benny Vita, M Sgt. Virgil Lunn, P. F. C. Norman Levinson and S/Sgt. Everett "Pop" Crandall.
 Gene Mossey and Russell DeMauro spent the week end at home. They expect to be sent to another camp soon.
 Donald Ford has had notice to appear for his physical examination Thursday.
 There are now 47 flight strip workers boarding at the Grange hall.

ECHO NEWS ITEMS

By Mrs. W. H. Crary
 Mrs. Fred Andrews Jr., chairman of the local Red Cross drive, and her assistants, Mrs. Carl Weltzin, Mrs. W. J. Helmick, Miss Gertrude Tieh-nor, Mrs. H. G. Cooper and Mrs. W. H. Crary, are being congratulated on collecting $300 for the Red Cross war fund, which was $50 above the quota for this territory.
 Mrs. M. A. Parker, who has been ill at her home in Portland, is now able to be out although not completely recovered.
 Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Carary returned Sunday night after a week's visit in Forest Grove and Portland.
 O. F. Bartholomew, who is now residing at Corvallis, recently returned from a trip to Minneapolis, Minn., where he was called in connection with soil investigations for the federal rubber production agency. Plantings of Russian dandelion are being made as a source of rubber. He is also working with army engineers on several airports which are under construction.
 Paul Oliver, who has been in the armed service in California for several months, is expected home for a visit this week. He has been granted a 15 day furlough.
 Mrs. J. A. Hellums will return Thursday to Vancouver, Wn., after a week's stay in Echo attending to business matters. The Hellums are living on their place near Vancouver while Mr. Hellums works in the shipyards.
 Clyde M. Berry, son of Mr. and Mrs. C. R. Berry of Echo, reported this week at the U. S. naval training station, Farragut, Idaho. He will be taught the fundamentals of seamanship at this station and will either be selected for further specialized training at one of the navy service schools or transferred directly to the fleet for action.
 H. W. Crow, son of Mr. and Mrs. W. I. Crow who live west of Echo, is a newly arrived soldier at Jefferson Barracks, Missouri, where he is taking training for the army air forces technical training command.
 Henry C. Vohs, who has been residing in the Parker house east of town for the past year, has purchased the residence from Mr. and Mrs. M. A. Parker.
 A birthday dinner was given at the home of Mr. and Mrs. B. B. Middleton, March 31, honoring the birthdays of their daughter, Mrs. Ray Tolar, and their son, Earl Middleton.

STRETCHING FOOD DOLLARS!

The best thing Stone's does . . . stretching your food dollar to cover your needs . . . helping you to save and budget your ration points to the best advantage! Stone's complete balanced stocks make food shopping easier . . . try Stone's first!

Quality "Point-Free" Foods

Rice, 1-Lb. Pkg. 11c
 NO POINTS . . . Water Maid fancy selected Blue Rose Rice!

Corn, 8-Oz. Pkg. 21c
 NO POINTS . . . Nunso evaporated; equal to two cans corn!

Cocoa, 1-Lb. Pkg. 20c
 NO POINTS . . . Robinson, a very fine substitute for chocolate!

Purex, Half Gallon . . . 24c
 NO POINTS . . . A bleach, particularly useful for Spring cleaning!

Olives, Pint Jar 17c
 NO POINTS . . . Lindsay selected choice ripe olives. A real buy!

Pickles, Quart 29c
 NO POINTS . . . Mamer's tasty speiced dills; they're really delicious!

Today's Best Food-Point Values—

Comfort Tissue 4 rolls 32c	Super Suds giant pkg. 64c
Zee Tissue 4 rolls 19c	Crystal White 2 giant bars 9c

POINTS	PRICE	POINTS	PRICE
(19) Ukelele Pineapple	20-oz. tin 22c	(22) Spok. Val. Tom. Juice	46 oz. 23c
(4) Orange Juice	18-oz. tin 22c	(22) Pierce's Tomato Juice	46 oz. 22c
(11) Signet Diced Carrots	16-oz. gl. 15c	(9) Grapefruit Juice	46-oz. tin 30c
(14) Monon Corn	20-oz. tin 15c	(8) Grape Juice	32-glass 29c
(16) S & W Tel. Peas	20-oz. tin 18c	(24) Spok. Val. Tomatoes	28-oz. 16c
(17) Sweet Potatoes	27-oz. tin 22c	(8) Del Monte Diced Beets	16 oz. 12c
(10) Nalley's Catsup	14-oz. gl. 16c	(7) S & W Frt. Cocktail	8 3/4 oz., 2' 25c
(24) Pierce's Tomatoes	28-oz. tin 16c	(10) S & W Kadota Figs	21-oz. tin 23c
(21) Baked Beans	28-oz. gl. 23c	(14) Libby Apple Sauce	20-oz. tin 17c

MEET YOUR MEAT MAN HALF WAY!

Try to do with the cuts that are available from day to day! There's nutrition in all meat!

Pork Roast	lb. 34c
(7 POINTS)
Pork Chops	lb. 39c
(8 POINTS)
Veal Chops	lb. 36c
RIBS IN (7 POINTS)
Chuck Shoulder	lb. 26c
BONE IN (6 POINTS)
Chuck Shoulder	lb. 37c
BONELESS (7 POINTS)

Peet's Granulated Soap 3 cakes 19c	Old Dutch Cleanser for all cleaning. 2 for 15c
Palmolive Soap large pkg. 26c	Sweetheart Soap Try it: you'll like it! 3 bars 19c

FRESH FRUITS and VEGETABLES!

Fruits and Vegetables selected daily so that you can plan your meals around these helpful items.

Asparagus	2 lbs. 43c
Cauliflower	Large Snow 39c
Lettuce	White Heads 25c
Lemons Sunkist - Dozen	35c
1 Doz. ORANGES	BOTH for 79c
Sweet Juicy Navels
1 Doz. DAFFODILS	79c
Long Stem

• PRICES EFFECTIVE April 1st to 8th

Stone's FOOD STORES

IF YOUR EYES TROUBLE YOU—

Come here and get the benefits of our more than 25 years successful optical experience. Reasonable prices for glasses when needed. We examine your eyes by modern methods and grind glasses to fit in all the latest styles.

DR. DALE ROTHWELL
 OPTOMETRIST
 418 Main Street
 PENDLETON, OREGON