Observers from the Office of War Information traveled more than 12,000 miles, visiting and inspecting troop concentration areas, to find out about American soldiers' drinking habits, and found they were good.

Iron slugs, weighing 95 pounds each, shot into a mountain side near the Picatinny Arsenal, New Jersey, in testing munitions explosives, are being dug out for scrap.

Your Automobile Means More Today

Cost of replacement and repair is high. Actual value is increasing—these conditions make it vital that your car is completely protected by reliable insurance.

A Farmers continuing form policy (National Std. Coverage) gives maximum protection at minimum cost. Ask us for rates.
