

ATTENTION, MR. Motorist!

Why pay more if you can obtain the finest auto insurance protection at less money?

A Farmers policy* being continuing in form, is sold only once. Thereafter it renews by mail—like life insurance. Thus you do not pay the usual repeated yearly sales cost. You save the difference.

STATEMENT of the Ownership, Management, Circulation, etc., Required by the Act of Congress of August 24, 1912, of The Hermiston Herald, published weekly at Hermiston, Oregon, for April 1, 1943.

State of Oregon
County of Umatilla, ss.

Before me, a Notary Public in and for the State and county aforesaid, personally appeared Alfred Quiring and Leander Quiring, who, having been duly sworn according to law, depose and say that they are the publishers of the Hermiston Herald, and that the following is, to the best of their knowledge and belief, a true statement of the ownership, management (and if a daily paper, the circulation), etc., of the aforesaid publication for the date shown in the above caption, required by the Act of August 24, 1912, embodied in section 411, Postal Laws and Regulations, printed on the reverse of this form, to wit:

1. That the names and addresses of the publishers, editors, managing editors and business managers are: Alfred and Leander Quiring, Hermiston, Oregon.

2. That the owners are: Alfred and Leander Quiring, Hermiston, Oregon.

3. That the known bondholders, mortgagees, and other security holders owning or holding 1 per cent or more of total amount of bonds, mortgages, or other securities are: None.

4. That the two paragraphs next above, giving the names of the owners, stockholders, and security holders, if any, contain not only the list of stockholders and security holders as they appear upon the books of the company but also, in cases where the stockholder or security holder appears upon the books of the company as trustee or in any other fiduciary relation, the name of the person or corporation for whom such trustee is acting, is given; also that the said two paragraphs contain statements embracing affiant's full knowledge and belief as to the circumstances and conditions under which stockholders and security holders who do not appear upon the books of the company as trustees, hold stock and securities in a capacity other than that of a bona fide owner; and this affiant has no reason to believe that any other person, association, or corporation has any interest direct or indirect in the said stock, bonds, or other securities than as so stated by him.

Alfred Quiring and Leander Quiring, Publishers.
Sworn to and subscribed before me this 21 day of April, 1943.

E. P. DODD, Notary Public in and for the State of Oregon. My Commission Expires March 28, 1947.

WAR BOND QUIZ

Q. In what names may a War Savings Bond be issued?
A. War Bonds can be registered only in the names of individuals in their own right, in one of the following forms:
1. The name of one individual, or
2. The names of two individuals, as co-owners, or
3. The name of one individual as owner and the other individual as beneficiary.

Q. May a Bond be registered in the name of a minor?
A. Yes.

Q. How can I buy a Bond by mail from agencies other than a post office?
A. Write to the Treasurer of the United States for an order form or send a letter with a check to the Treasury Department or to a Federal Reserve bank stating number and denominations of Bonds wanted and giving complete instructions as to the desired registration.

Q. Can Bonds be attached for debt in case of a judgment?
A. Yes. The right to receive payment of a Bond may be transferred through valid judicial proceedings, but only if the Bond itself is surrendered to the Treasury Department. See Treasury Department Circular No. 530, Fifth Revision.

Remember—the longer you keep War Bonds, up to 10 years, the more valuable they become.
