LOCALS

Mrs. Preston Hollomon was taken to Walla Walla last week where she underwent a major operation. She is reported as getting along nicely.

Mrs. Paul Van Patten, Mrs. Dayton Harris and son and Mr. and Mrs. Roy Attebury were business visitors in Pendleton Friday.

Mrs. Jack Biggs of Pendleton visited a number of her friends in Hermiston the forepart of the week.

W. W. Felthouse and Dr. F. B. Belt recently attended the Rotary convention at Vancouver, Canada, as representatives of the local club. The men reported their trip at the weekly luncheon today (Thursday).

Miss Margaret Elliott, former teacher in the Hermiston schools, is now a member of the WAAC organization with a rating of corporal. She is connected with radio technician work and at present is receiving 13 weeks of preliminary training at Newark, N. J.

"Jinky" Wilson, daughter of Mrs. Jean Wilson, returned Monday from the St. Anthony's hospital where she had received medical treatment since Saturday.

Glenn Ripley, new co-owner of the Moore and Ripley drug store, is spending this week in Portland on a short vacation and also attending to business matters.

"For the wages of sin is death; but the gift of God is eternal life through Jesus Christ our Lord."

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Andrews recently sold a quarter section of land north of Echo to Mr. and Mrs. Fredie Hudemnn which joins the Hudeman place. Mr. and Mrs. Andrews recently purchased 480 acres near their ranch.

Word has been received here by Dr. and Mrs. F. B. Belt from their son, Pvt. Bill Belt, that he has been transferred to Camp Walters in Texas where he is connected with the infantry. He will receive 13 weeks of preliminary training at Camp Walters.

Reggie W. Jonson, nephew of Mr. and Mrs. George Harris of Hermiston, returned here this week after receiving an honorable discharge from the U. S. army. He has been stationed at San Luis Obispo, Calif. He expects to go to work here as soon as he recovers from an illness.

Mr. and Mrs. K. D. Pierson have received word from their son, Co-Pilot Bob Pierson, that he is now in New Guinea flying with an army liberator. Latest news from the war front indicate that the liberators are taking quite an active part in aerial war action.

Mrs. A. E. Marble was hostess Wednesday afternoon at her home for the ladies of the Methodist church. Mrs. A. R. Boulware was co-hostess. A lovely luncheon was served at noon to 20 people. The afternoon program was in charge of Mrs. Boulware.

Oscar D. McCarty, son of Mr. and Mrs. Otis McCarty of Echo, and Minnie Marie Foley, the foster daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Foley of Echo, were married Sunday afternoon at the Hermiston Central Church of Christ. They left immediately for Portland for a few days after which they will be at home on the groom's farm on Butter Creek.

The Young Adult Fellowship class of the Hermiston Methodist church is meeting tonight (Thursday) at the H. J. Ott home for a chicken dinner in honor of Rev. M. B. Ballinger who will leave soon to be a chaplain in the armed forces.

Mrs. Harry Smith and son of Vancouver came Tuesday for a short visit at the home of Mrs. Georgia Henderson and other friends in Hermiston. Mrs. Smith (Pauline Stoop) formerly was co-publisher of the Hermiston Herald. She continued on to Arlington Thursday to visit a sister.

Enos D. Martin of Dishman, Wash., came last week end to visit in Hermiston for several days and to attend to business matters. Mr. Martin was formerly manager of the Hermiston Irrigation district but now is operating a ready-mix cement concern at Dishman. Bob Martin, former student here, recently was awarded the honor of having the highest scholastic average in his class.

New Ownership of

Temple Fountain Lunch

West Side of Track

Mr. and Mrs. Guy Cronk have purchased the Temple Fountain Lunch from Mrs. Agnes Teeters. They plan extensive renovations and improvements immediately. Their plan is to give Hermiston a clean, quiet place to bring your family to dinner or a lunch.

The place for which you have been waiting.

To the Public:

We feel that we are doing a duty towards Hermiston by providing a place "away from the throng" where you can come for a nice, quiet meal. Our aim will be: Cleanliness, Service and the Best Food Obtainable under present conditions. We hope to meet all our friends here. We hope you come to call on us occasionally.

Signed: Mr. and Mrs. Guy Cronk.
