ECHO NEWS ITEMS

By Mrs. W. H. Cravy

Echo's budget committee approved expenditures of $6978.00 for the city during the fiscal year 1943-44 at a meeting Thursday evening. This necessitates a levy up to the full 6 per cent limit, or $2810.00. An increase in salary of the librarian was approved and salaries of the city marshal and sexton were raised during the current year. Estimated receipts from sources other than taxes during the coming year are estimated at $3168.00, a large part of which comes from the water department. Echo has a small bonded indebtedness, which has been reduced to a total of $1700.

Mr. and Mrs. Oscar McCarty returned the first of the week from a wedding trip to Portland and are now at home at the McCarty ranch on Butter Creek.

Mrs. Lester Oehler of Corvallis has been visiting her mother, Mrs. Pamela Spike, the past week and plans to return home Monday.

Paul Oliver returned Thursday to his army camp near The Needles, in California, after spending a furlough visiting his parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Oliver. Paul is a private in the anti-aircraft division taking training at the California base.

Mrs. M. E. Coe returned the first of the week from a visit with Mr. and Mrs. Fred Markham at Kennewick, Wash. Mrs. Markham, who has been ill for some time, came to Echo with her and will remain here until her health improves.

Mr. and Mrs. H. G. Cooper are spending a vacation with friends in the Willamette valley. They left Saturday morning and were accompanied to Portland by Mrs. W. H. Cravy. Rex D. Miles if The Dalles is acting as relief station agent at Echo for Mr. Cooper during the latter's absence.

Mr. and Mrs. Ben Gaskill received a letter this week from their son Jack Gaskill who is now stationed somewhere in the middle east. He is supposed to be in India as he tells of visiting Palestine during a brief furlough from duty.

Pvt. Blair Bowman left Saturday after spending a week's furlough here with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Jake Bowman. He is stationed at Ft. Meade, Maryland, where he has been taking training in a hospital unit. Blair entered the service last June. Gaylord Madison shipped 1000 ewes and 1100 lambs to summer range near Union Sunday.

Mrs. Ida Adams of Nolin died at the Hermiston hospital Sunday noon. She had been an invalid for the past 16 years. Funeral services were held at the Methodist church in Echo Tuesday afternoon at 2:00 o'clock.

Mrs. Adams was born at Mantion, Mich., in 1879. She came to the Nolin neighborhood 36 years ago where Mr. Adams engaged in farming until his death in 1926. She is survived by three sons, William, with whom she has been living at Nolin, Arbie of Rosalia, Wash., and Alvin of Willow Springs, Calif. A sister resides in California and two in Michigan.

Charles Hiatt writes his parents from Seattle that he has passed his examinations for entrance to navy flight training and he left Monday for Marquis, Calif., to enter St. Mary's college. He had previously been stationed at the Walla Walla base.

Bud Jordan, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Jordan, writes from somewhere in the Pacific that he has been promoted to staff sergeant. He is in the infantry and for the past six months has been on the fighting front.
