

OASIS THEATRE

PHONE 2121

Fri.-Sat. July 30-31

CARTOON and MUSICAL

Sun.-Mon. August 1-2

Constance Cummings
Robert Morley

in

SOMEWHERE IN FRANCE

NEWS REEL

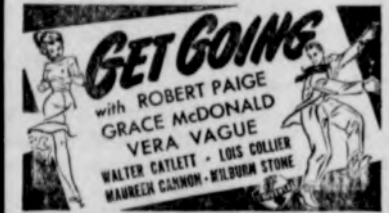

Tuesday August 3

CARTOON and COMEDY

Wed.-Thurs. Aug. 4-5

DOUBLE FEATURE

THE FALCON'S BROTHER
with GEORGE SANDERS • TOM CONWAY

LOCALS

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Rankin of Walla Walla were visitors in Hermiston Wednesday.

Mrs. Jim Todd is confined to her home due to illness this week. She is employed at Saylor's clothing store.

Miss Mary Lou Johnson left Sunday on a three weeks vacation with her parents at Kenton, Ohio.

Delbert H. Walpole, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. K. Walpole, has recently graduated from the Signalman School at Farragut, Idaho.

Mrs. Nora Colpitts left early Sunday morning for an extended visit in San Francisco with her daughter and sons.

Circuit Judge C. L. Sweek Tuesday granted a divorce to Margaret Shultz from her husband Albert Shultz on grounds of cruel and inhuman treatment. Attorney for plaintiff, Fred E. Schmidt.

Beverly and Fred Barker Jr. of Suzanville, Calif., arrived Friday to spend the rest of the summer with their grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Bensele.

Mrs. Elton Wilson of La Grande arrived Sunday night to spend until Tuesday afternoon with her brother and sister-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Paul Van Patten.

Mrs. Floyd Pierce and daughter Mary Lou, who had spent the past week at the O. C. Pierce home, left Monday for Boise, Idaho, where they will visit with her brother.

Corp. Marcus Sutton of the Pendleton Field was a guest at the C. N. Leonard home one day last week. Corp. Sutton is from Wray, Colo., but is now stationed at Pendleton.

Capt. and Mrs. Herb Iverson were host at a dinner bridge Monday night with Mr. and Mrs. W. M. Pearson winning high and Dr. and Mrs. W. L. Morgan second high.

Mrs. Gerald White, Mrs. Roy Hale and Mrs. Jim Todd entertained at a dessert bridge at the White home with five tables in play. Mrs. A. H. Norton won high, Mrs. W. L. Morgan second high and Mrs. Dale Fischer won the traveling prize.

Pat Neff Hatch, E.M. 2/c, writes from "somewhere in the Pacific" that he wants to subscribe to the Hermiston Herald so that he can keep up on local news. He states that he is with the Seabees and is stationed at a fine base.

Mrs. Frank Morgan and her father, Joe Reeves, of Salem came Monday to visit with Sgt. Fred Reeves and his wife who came Tuesday from Alabama. The group is staying at the home of another son, Jack Reeves and family.

Mrs. Bert Mullins left the first of the week for Olympia, Wash., to visit with Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Cochran and Kathleen. From there she will visit other members of her family at Bly, and Redmond, Ore., and Walla Walla, Wash. She expects to be gone for some time.

Mrs. W. A. Emert returned Tuesday from Spokane where she spent two weeks. She was in a hospital there for about 10 days undergoing treatments. She also visited her daughter, Miss Patricia Emert, who is attending the Kinman Business University.

Mr. and Mrs. Baxter Hutchison moved Thursday (today) to their new home in Pendleton. Mr. Hutchison expects to take a short rest before resuming some profession. Mr. and Mrs. Hutchison have been prominent in grange circles and for many years Mr. Hutchison has raised excellent produce. Mr. Hutchison states that his Pendleton address will be 524 S. E. 7th street.

"Whosoever therefore shall confess me before men, him will I confess also before my Father which is in heaven."

HERMISTON BAPTIST CHURCH
H. V. McGee, Pastor

Shine Your Shoes and Hats Blocked
Howard Clark
AT IGLOO INN

A New Large Shipment of COSTUME JEWELRY

Now Available

Full Line of Jewelry Items

A. W. Behrman

Hermiston Jeweler — Phone 2051

Jay Gimble and Lowell Alford, Seaman Second Class, who have recently undergone preliminary training with the U. S. Navy at Camp Bennion, Farragut, Idaho, arrived home Monday night for a two weeks furlough. They will be assigned for duty when they report back.

John Dunning, brother of Ed Dunning and circulation manager of the East Oregonian, who has been in St. Anthony's hospital in Pendleton for several weeks because of an infection in his foot, underwent an operation for amputation of his foot Tuesday morning. His condition was reported as satisfactory, but he will not be able to have visitors for several days.

Dr. and Mrs. W. L. Morgan and Mr. and Mrs. W. M. Pearson entertained at a series of bridge parties with a buffet supper. The first evening there were five tables of bridge in play with Mrs. L. Smith winning high and Mrs. Jim Todd winning second high. Then Thursday of last week four tables were in play with Col. and Mrs. A. S. Buyers winning high and Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Shaar winning second high.

Mr. and Mrs. W. M. Shaar were the honored guests Wednesday evening at a no-hostess dinner party at the Neal Robertson home with the Ralph Richards assisting. Five tables of bridge were in play during the evening. High prize for the ladies went to Mrs. Ralph Richards and low to Mrs. George Harkenrider. Mr. Robertson was high for men and H. G. Rankin low. A lovely honorary gift was presented to the Shaars by the group.

Mrs. Dayton Harris entertained Tuesday afternoon at her home honoring her small son Micheal at his first birthday. Present were Darlene Schindlerling, Colleen and Lorraine Taylor, Sylvia Quiring, Judy, Joan and Danny Black, Shirley Quiring and Barney Micheil. Mothers present were Mrs. L. Black, Mrs. J. Taylor, Mrs. L. J. Micheil and Mrs. W. Schindlerling. Refreshments of birthday cake and jello were served and many gifts were received by the little Mike.

Cooling FOODS

- Hill's Coffee 1 lb. jar 33c
- (POINT FREE)
- CREAM WHITE
- Shortening 3 lbs. 69c
- Sugar 10 lbs. 67c
- Matches 6 box carton 22c
- A & H Soda 3 pkgs. 25c
- HERSHEY'S
- Cocoa 1/2 lb. pkg. 12c
- KLEENEX
- Tissue 150 count 10c
- SUNSWET
- Prunes 1 lb. pkg. 17c
- NALLEY'S
- Catsup 14 oz. bottle 16c
- COPELAND'S Pre-Cooked Navy
- Beans pkg. 15c

- SKOVBO
- Honey 5 lb. jar $1.25
- PINK
- Salmon tall can 25c

Remember!
Bond Auction
Aug. 11

Hermiston Food Store

Phone 3781
HERMISTON, OREGON

Your Certified Independent Grocer

Help Send A RECREATIONAL CHEST to Our Men in the Armed Forces

The chests are filled with books, cards, games, Bible, reading material of all types, puzzles and all types of knick knacks to help pass time and provide hours of recreation to the boys in the armed forces. A sample chest may be seen in the P. P. & L. Co. office window. The chests can be purchased at a nominal charge and will be sent by the Red Cross to all battlefronts. You, too, can help by your donations.

SPONSORED BY THE
HERMISTON ROTARY CLUB
and VICTORY SERVICE LEAGUE

Chas. Hodge, Director