LOCALS

Pat Gilbrite is a medical patient at the Hermiston General hospital.

Rev. W. A. MacArthur left Tuesday for Silverton where he will be an instructor in a Young Adults class.

Mrs. Iris King of Portland, niece of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Rowell, is now employed at the local hospital.

Mrs. Leander Quiring and daughter Sylvia left Friday night to spend a week with her parents in Salem.

Mrs. Gerald White and Mrs. Victor Addleman left Saturday for Reno, Nevada, in company with another Hermiston matron.

Lon Harper of near Freewater was in town Tuesday looking up old friends. He stated that he had sold his small ranch and was moving into Milton to be a "city slicker."

Miss Velva Harding and her mother, Mrs. Harding, arrived Thursday of last week and are spending two weeks visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Max Piger.

Dr. J. P. Stewart, eyesight specialist of Pendleton, will be at the Hermiston Hotel on Wednesday, August 16, between the hours of 10:00 a. m. and 5:00 p. m.

Tech. Sgt. W. D. Hamm, son of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Hamm, who recently spent almost a month's leave here, has returned to the Marine Air Base, Cherry Point, North Carolina. He was not certain as to his assignment upon his return but expected overseas assignment again within the next several months.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Pierson, Mrs. Vernon Bachus and two children and Pvt. Chas. Pierson of Fort Bliss, Texas, spent last week end visiting relatives in Portland.

George L. Carver, city judge of Sweet Home, is spending several weeks at the homes of his daughters, Mr. and Mrs. Archie Fales and Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Parker.

Mr. and Mrs. C. M. Harris are spending a few days at St. Mary's, Idaho. Mrs. Harris is on vacation from her duties at the Hermiston General hospital.

Mr. and Mrs. R. W. Wilkes left the local hospital Saturday and accompanied their son Victor Wilkes to Medford where they plan to make their home for the present.

Lowell Tiller, who recently spent a leave here visiting his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Roy Tiller, has returned to his base in Oklahoma and from there expected to be sent to the U. S. Naval Station at Jacksonville, Fla.

Guests at the A. W. Behrman home last week were his sister, Mrs. Archie Gleason, daughter Mary Ann of Spokane, and a niece of Mrs. Gleason, Miss Betty Weber of Benton City.

Mr. and Mrs. Lester Colpitts and family spent four days last week visiting at Kamiah, Idaho, where they enjoyed an outing and fishing. Mr. Colpitts was on vacation from the Inland Cooperative.

Mr. and Mrs. Norman Ruckman announce the arrival of a baby girl Norma Jean, born Friday at the Hermiston General hospital, and weighed 7 pounds 13 ounces at birth.

Mr. and Mrs. Sam P. Neufeldt of Chicago plan to be in Hermiston over the week end. Mr. Neufeldt is a brother of Mrs. Al Quiring and will deliver the message Sunday morning at the Methodist church in the absence of the local pastor. Mr. Neufeldt graduated last week from Moody Bible Institute, taking a pastor's course, while Mrs. Neufeldt graduated from the same school taking a music course. She will present special music selections Sunday morning on the vibraharp.

Word was received here Saturday of the death of Mrs. W. L. Dowling, mother of Mrs. A. A. Estle. Funeral services were held at Sharon, Okla. Mrs. Estle recently visited her mother while on vacation from the Umatilla Ordnance Depot.

Tonsilectomy patients at the Hermiston General hospital Tuesday were Caroline Smith and Frances Ina Martin, both 11 years of age and from Stanfield, and little Shirleen Shoemaker, seven years old.

Arnold Hudleston, 7 year old son of Mr. and Mrs. Dewey Hudleston, was a tonsilectomy patient at the Hermiston General hospital Sunday. Melvin Hudleston, his brother, received first aid at the hospital Monday, having been hit on the head by a rock.

J. A. Clarke of Sunnyside, Wash., greeted old friends on Main street Saturday afternoon. Mr. Clarke was formerly manager of the Pacific Power & Light Co. office here and now is associated with the same company at Sunnyside. He returned Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Al Quiring were hosts for a "steak fry" in their backyard honoring Mr. and Mrs. Paul Van Patten who are moving to La Grande this week. Present were Mr. and Mrs. Van Patten and daughter Ilene, Mr. and Mrs. Arnold Webber and Miss Ina L. Moore.

Mr. and Mrs. Paul Van Patten, who have made their home in Hermiston for over 10 years, moved to LaGrande Thursday (today) where they have purchased a home. Mr. Van Patten expects to be employed on the Union Pacific railroad there in the very near future.

Bill Knerr, son of Mrs. Alta Knerr, left Monday for Pendleton and from there was to be sent to Portland for induction into the armed forces. Under a new ruling, inductees are not certain into which branch of the service they will enter until actual induction time.

Mr. and Mrs. F. C. McKenzie are spending a two weeks vacation at Bingham Springs. A recent phone call to Hermiston revealed that the nights are cold there and the fishing "rotten." Mr. McKenzie is on vacation from the local War Price and Rationing board and also is mayor of Hermiston.

Mr. and Mrs. George Harris have received word from their son, George Harris Jr., stating that he has recently met another brother, Wayne, and the boys are enjoying a visit together. The letter did not state in what area they are serving at the present time. But needless to say the two boys had a lot to tell each other. Both are enjoying excellent health.
