BOND AUCTION IS SUCCESSFUL

was introduced as were several other men officially connected with the evening's show.

A greater portion of the success of the auction can be attributed directly to the two auctioneers, R. C. Peters of Hermiston and Pvt. John Varney of the Pendleton field. These men worked hand in hand and kept the crowd in a buying mood throughout the evening.

The happiest bond purchaser of the evening was Hank Hardin of Hermiston who was the lucky winner of a $1000.00 bond. Roy Hale was the winner of a smaller bond at the close of the evening.

The first bond of the evening went to Mr. White who received as his bonus a little dog. From there on, item after item went on the block with bidding seeming to perk up as the evening progressed. The first livestock to go was a turkey purchased by Mrs. Rohrman of Pendleton. The highest bond purchased during the evening went to F. B. Swayze when he was forced to go as high as $3750.00 to obtain a fat hog. Other items brought bonds of all dimensions, ranging from $25.00 to over $1500.00.

Besides the auction, numerous people took rides on jeeps, tanks, etc.

some in connection with bids on other items, some on the basis of $25, $50 or $100 bond purchases.

The total list of donations numbered almost 300 articles and every item was disposed of before the crowd dispersed shortly before midnight.

A list of the bonds sold, buyers and awards received follows:

SAFEWAY Homemakers' Guide

Ideas for that main course

It can be a fascinating game these days—trying to figure out what to have for that main course. Despite shortages in some foods, those main dishes must be hearty, appetizing, attractive and budget-fitting. Here are some suggestions that may help.

MACARONI MEAT LOAF—Cook 2 cups macaroni in boiling, salted water until tender. Combine with 1/4 to 1 pound ground meat, beef, lamb, veal or pork or combinations of these meats. Add 2 cups chopped tomatoes, chopped onions and green peppers to taste, and season with salt and pepper. Add 1 or 2 beaten eggs and turn into a greased loaf pan and bake in a moderate oven (350° F.) for about 1 hour or until meat is done. It is your meat and starch courses all in one, and it makes meat go twice as far.

STEW A LA MODE—Cook stew as usual, adding vegetables (but not potatoes) in season. When done, thicken the liquid and pour gravy, meat and vegetables into a casserole. Top with hot, mashed potatoes and place in a hot oven (450° F.) for about 10 minutes or until potatoes have turned a toasty brown. Serve at once. This stew may well be a company dish for all its goodness and eye appeal.

CHEESE DIPPY—Sauté 2 or 3 tbsps. chopped onion until limp, then add 2 or 3 chopped tomatoes, salt, pepper and a dash of sugar and simmer for about 10 minutes. Add 1/4 to 1/2 pound of grated cheese and cook until melted and thoroughly blended. Finally, add 1 beaten egg gradually and stir constantly to blend in the egg smoothly. Cook just a minute longer until velvety in consistency. Serve immediately on thin, hot toast.

HALF HOUR MEALS
Is your time budgeted down to the last minute? Then for time-saver meals, be sure to see Julia Lee Wright's article in this week's Family Circle Magazine. It is filled with many helpful quickies.
