"The long, hard march to Berlin and Tokyo has just begun. If you think it will be easy, if you think we can win this fight with one hand . . . then you are wrong, dangerously wrong."

These words from Secretary Morgenthau of the Treasury Department we believe, are timely and are true. The Italian victory is only the beginning. We can make of that victory the occasion of a celebration in buying more War Bonds, or we can take the dangerous position of complacency, a position so dangerous it can make a long delayed war for us.

Our men on the battle lines in Italy and the South Pacific are not resting—they are not complacent—they are face-to-face with the grim killers of our implacable, cruel enemies. And we cannot have that fighting front without a supporting front at home. The people of this community are in the service of their country as much as though they were called into battle. That service consists of doing the jobs we must do in production and to support with every cent of our surplus earnings the Third War Loan drive which is now underway.

What sacrifice have we made comparable to the boys who have lost their legs, their arms—their lives in the living hell of the battle fields? As farmers we are enjoying our highest income peak. As workers in the plants and factories, we have reached our highest wage level. We are thousands of miles from the danger zone, yet these dollars will be as deadly to the enemy as bullets fired on the front lines. These dollars of ours must be fighting dollars in the form of War Bonds if we do our patriotic duty in this Third War Loan.

If you could see the long rows of maimed, broken young men in our army and navy hospitals . . . if you could see the rows of crosses on foreign soil . . . if you could but feel for one moment the living hell of the foxholes in the jungle, the rain of lead on an Italian battle field . . . the lurching, slippery, heaving deck of a war ship during a fight-to-the-death . . . if you could but watch the advance of one of our divisions under deadly machine-gun fire . . . American boys—maybe your boy—sacrificing all for your safety and for the preservation of everything we hold dear in this community. Then perhaps, you would sacrifice everything in the way of material comforts and lend your money to your government for these war Bonds.

We are not asked to do that. We continue our lives here in comfort and safety. We continue to go to ball games . . . to entertainments and gatherings. We sit on our front porches and read the war news or discuss and cuss the Congress. We gather our rich harvests. We go about our daily tasks in the midst of our friends and fellows. We collect our fat paychecks and we come home to our families and perhaps there is a vacant place at the table . . . Our boy may be out there somewhere and he's not complaining.

Go to the nearest place and buy that extra $100 War Bond this day.

In this war our wounded fighting men have a greater chance for recovery than in any previous conflict because of the medical aids and services that have been developed by the War and Navy Departments.

One of these aids is the Hospital Transport Plane service that has been bringing our wounded back from Africa.

Your increased and continued purchase of War Bonds is required to help the Treasury Department finance this hospital transport service. "Back the attack with War Bonds." U. S. Treasury Department

that You can depend on BUSES!

In August we traveled 90,000,000 passenger miles—an all-time high! Some passengers were crowded, which we regret.

Now that the peak is passed, travel may be less crowded. If your trip is essential—it's wise to see your agent well in advance. Travel light and be on time.

Hurry!
Hurry!
Hurry!

THE END of September is in sight.

And the end of September brings us close to the end of the 3rd War Loan drive.

If you haven't bought $100 worth of extra War Bonds—extra, mind you—dig up that money and buy your share today!

Men who are fighting for you . . . bleeding for you . . . ready to die for you . . . are waiting for the news that you people at home are backing them up 100%.

They know what invasion costs in blood and lives. They know, too, what it costs in equipment, munitions, supplies, that must reach the front in a never-ending stream. And they're counting on you for the money that goes to keep that stream flowing.

No matter what you have to sacrifice . . . no matter how much it pinches . . . you cannot let them down!

They're calling on you to hurry, hurry, hurry! Get that $100 extra into War Bonds before the drive is over.
