Mrs. Henderson came Saturday and will stay indefinitely at the home of her mother, Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Benschel. She has been with her husband in Virginia, Rhode Island and other points where he has been stationed.

BULLDOGS WIN OVER WAITSBURG

By edging out the Waitsburg Cardinals 6-0 on the Hermiston field Friday afternoon, the Hermiston High Bulldogs started a new season in the right direction and kept alive a home field winning streak which dates back to the middle of the 1940 football season. This record includes about ten Bulldog victories and one tie: that tie being with Pendleton in the 1941 season. The Bulldogs have not been defeated by Waitsburg since the 1939 season.

The game started out as a defensive duel between the Bulldogs and the Waitsburg team, with the locals having slightly the better of it most of the way. The offensive machines of both teams seemed to bog down and neither managed to gain much yardage. The second quarter was much like the first until about midway in the period when the Cards started to dig into their bag of tricks a little deeper and the Bulldogs seemed to be confused by this now-you-see-it and now-you-don't brand of football. The half ended with the Cards driving deep into Hermiston territory every time they could get their hands on the ball.

The Bulldogs kicked off to the Waitsburg boys again to open the second half. Waitsburg immediately went for a first down and then was forced to give up the ball on downs. This was the turning point of the game with the Bulldogs playing a fired up brand of ball. The Hermiston boys played straight football to go for two first downs, about 40 yards, and most important of all to a touchdown. Jack Rodgers went the final four yards to pay dirt.

The only explanation that can be given for the Bulldogs' sudden change of pace was that they wanted to do something for Glenn Wilcox who had just been knocked cold in the first of the quarter. Regardless of what the reason was, they really looked like a pretty fair team for that series of plays which brought the touchdown. The final quarter was spent with the Bulldogs fighting to protect their hard won six point lead.

Outstanding performances for the Bulldogs were turned by Jack Rodgers who was the only Hermiston back able to gain yardage all day with any regularity and also by Jim Allen and Vance Matott who played heads up ball all afternoon to generally keep in Waitsburg's hair. Credit should be also given to Glenn Wilcox, Bob Alford and Frank Harkenrider who played their first game of first team football and played like veterans. Alford's kicking was especially good.
