LOCALS

Miss Mildred Buck of Libby, Mont., arrived Saturday evening to visit her cousin, Mrs. Ina Whitney. She left again Wednesday for her home.

Mrs. P. H. Arrowsmith left for Seattle, Wash., Monday after visiting here and attending the funeral of her father, B. I. Whitney.

Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Rutherford left Monday morning for Petaluma, Calif., where they make their home. They were called here for the funeral of B. I. Whitney.

Kenneth R. Athey, T/s, is home on a 15-day furlough from Camp Campbell, Kentucky, where he has been stationed for the last eight months.

Merle Delmar Hayes, son of Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Hayes, and Winton Coy Albee, son of Kenneth Albee, both of Hermiston, have begun their recruit training at the U. S. Naval Training Station, Farragut, Idaho.

Gilbert Michael Nonne, son of Mr. and Mrs. Guy Shaw, have reported for training at Farragut, Idaho, with the U. S. Navy.

Dr. J. P. Stewart, eyesight specialist of Pendleton, will be at the Hermiston Hotel on Wednesday, October 20.

Mrs. Elbert Moore and baby, and Sam Moore left Wednesday morning for a week's visit with Aviation Cadet Elbert Moore at Santa Ana, Calif. The latter has recently completed another phase of his training and is now flying the cargo planes.

"And I saw the dead, small and great, stand before God: and the books were opened: and another book was opened, which is the book of life: and the dead were judged out of those things which were written in the books, accord to their works."

Loren E. Miller, formerly of this area, has been sent to the Ordnance Replacement Training Center, Aberdeen Proving Ground, Md., where he will receive his basic training as an Ordnance soldier.

Mrs. Peter Poulson and son of Baker came Wednesday for a visit at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Felthouse. The occasion is always a happy one for Grandpa Felthouse and the "little one."

Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Warner and F. B. Swayze went to Portland Tuesday morning. Mr. Warner contemplates an operation in St. Vincents hospital soon.

Announcement is being made of the birth to Mr. and Mrs. Don Serell, a son, Jon Donald, on October 2 in Sault Ste. Marie, Mich. Mr. Serell formerly was employed at the Hermiston postoffice, prior to entering the armed forces.

Pfc. Frank Pearson, son of Mr. and Mrs. Roy Pearson, is home on a furlough. He is stationed at San Antonio, Texas. Also visiting at the parental home is Miss Annie Pearson of Portland where she is a nurse.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Smith have received word from their son, Sgt. Jack Smith who is stationed on Guadalcanal. Jack states he is still in fine fettle and it is quite a relief to have the thermometer come down to 120 degrees. Apparently the boys have been suffering from extreme heat.

Cpl. Eugene J. McKay, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. D. McKay, has completed training and has been graduated from the Army Air Forces Technical Training Command at Chanute Field, Ill. He has received instruction in the Advanced Instruments course, and in various technical operations vital to the maintenance of the country's fighting planes.

Earl L. Stewart, son of Mr. and Mrs. Tom Stewart, has been promoted to Corporal. Earl is now stationed at Pocatello, Idaho. Another son, Thomas John Stewart, has just made his Machinist Mate, first class, rating. "Tommy" is stationed at Pearl Harbor.

Mrs. Antonette White is returning to Los Angeles this week after a 30-day visit with her brother-in-law, Roy White. Mrs. White has been assisting with office work in the office of Carpenters Local 933 and was an ardent worker in the third war bond drive in Hermiston. Mrs. White and her two sons returned to Hermiston with Mr. White on his recent trip to Los Angeles through the death of his father. It being her first trip to the state of Oregon, she has enjoyed the stay and also participated in a deer hunt. Mrs. White's husband, Thomas White, is now employed in the California shipyards at Los Angeles. Should it be possible for Mrs. White's husband to be transferred to Oregon, they hope to make their home here in the near future.

Bob Attebury was host at a chicken dinner party Tuesday evening at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. R. G. Attebury, to a group of his high school friends. The evening was spent in games and dancing. Present were Betty Jean Hartsook, Bob Alford, Joy Reid, Gale Davis, Shirley Wallace, Dick Belt, Joan Shorbs, Jack Rodgers, Dorothy Jordan, Erwin Null, Doris Ann Daugherty and the host, Bob Attebury.

Ed Ludlow, better known here as Ted Stewart, son of Mrs. Frances Stewart, has joined the Navy and has been rated First Class Petty Officer. Before his marriage he had 10 years in the service for Uncle Sam and is now at Williamsburg, West Virginia.

Mr. and Mrs. G. J. Casper are announcing the wedding of their daughter, Miss Johanna Casper, to Paul Marble, son of Dr. and Mrs. A. E. Marble, Sunday morning at 7:30 at the Methodist church.

Word has been received here that Pfc. John A. (Allen) Clarke Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. John A. Clarke of Sunnyside but formerly of Hermiston, has been elected director of the male chorus of which he has been a member ever since he has been in Washington, D. C. He is at the Naval Research Laboratory there studying radio and electrical engineering.

Harold Thompson, formerly owner of Thompson's Drug Store here, came early in the week to get their furniture and other belongings. Harold stated that they have purchased a small acreage near Seaside and he plans to do relief druggist work in addition to feeding 1200 chickens and doing other chores. Their home is just a quarter of a mile from the seashore.

Mrs. Howard E. Petit (Marian Henderson) arrived Monday from Eugene with her two sons, Robert and James, to visit with her mother, Mrs. Georgia Henderson and aunt, Mrs. C. E. Baker.

Mr. and Mrs. Jens Terjeson are the parents of a son born Friday, October 8, in St. Anthony's hospital at Pendleton, and has been named Stephen Dodd. The grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. Gunder Terjeson of Pendleton and Mr. and Mrs. Elmer P. Dodd of Hermiston, and Mrs. R. Alexander is great grandmother.

T/Sgt. Del Thompson and Mrs. Thompson are visiting for a few days at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. H. M. Sommerer. Mrs. Thompson plans to remain in Hermiston when her husband returns for duty with the armed forces.
