Mrs. J. V. Villermore arrived home Saturday from a week's visit with her daughter, Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Hoosier in Pendleton.

Mrs. Romar Stein of Cambridge, Mass., is visiting at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Swarner. She came Monday and expects to visit for several weeks.

Mr. and Mrs. Paul Van Patten and baby daughter Ilene returned last week from a ten day vacation trip to New Bridge, Ore., to visit his parents. Paul enjoyed quite a bit of fishing while there.

Mrs. James Todd, who has been confined to her home for over five weeks due to illness, is slowly improving. Mrs. Todd is an employee at Saylor's store.

Mr. Mathews, a brakeman on the Streamliner from Portland to Pendleton, was a house guest last week of Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Payne. Mr. Mathews and Mr. Payne are boyhood school friends.

Miss Neva Pilon returned home Monday from Toppenish, Wash., where she visited for several weeks with her mother, Mrs. DeMande. Miss Pilon is employed at Burnham & Burnham.

Mr. and Mrs. A. F. Rohman were hosts to a few guests Saturday evening. Present were Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Payne, Mr. and Mrs. Leander Quiring, Mr. Mathews of Portland and Mr. and Mrs. Al Quiring.

Mr. and Mrs. Monroe Swarner of Fairbanks, Alaska, are announcing the birth of a son on October 7. The little fellow is a grandson of Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Swarner. Mrs. Monroe Swarner is the former Miss Maxine Faust of Hermiston.

The American Legion Auxiliary will sponsor a rummage sale at the Umatilla Cooperative Creamery building (formerly occupied by the Hermiston Mercantile Cooperative) every Saturday commencing October 23. 10-3p

Pvt. Carl Shaw, son of Mr. and Mrs. Guy Shaw, came Sunday from Camp Mackall, North Carolina, to spend a 15-day furlough. His grandmother, Mrs. Casha Shaw of near Heppner, is also visiting at the Guy Shaw home.

Richard "Bud" Rugg, seaman second class, U. S. Navy, came Wednesday night to spend a 15-day furlough with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Rugg. While here Bud will witness two football games, a sport in which he excelled during his high school days.

Mr. and Mrs. Glen Parsons are the parents of a baby boy born last Thursday in St. Anthony's hospital in Pendleton. The little fellow weighed seven pounds, eight ounces and has been named James Maurice. Mr. Parsons is a meat cutter at the Umatilla Cooperative Creamery and James Maurice is their second child.

Mrs. Lee Weber left today for Sam Houston, San Antonio, Texas, where she will visit her husband who is stationed there with the Red Cross. The latter had planned to visit Hermiston but his furlough was curtailed considerably. Mr. Weber has been athletic coach at Hermiston high school for the past two years and enlisted with the Red Cross this summer. He expects an overseas assignment very soon.

Announcement is being made of the marriage of Miss Ella West, daughter of Mrs. H. West, Santa Rosa, Calif., and Harold Scott, U. S. Navy, Seaman First Class, and son of Mr. and Mrs. C. Scott of Hermiston. The rites were performed Monday in Pendleton. Mr. Scott was home on a furlough. He is a graduate of Stanfield schools and also attended school in Hermiston. The couple left Wednesday morning for San Francisco where they will make their home.
