By Mrs. W. H. Crary

Wayne McFaul, son of Mrs. Nona H. McFaul of Echo, has been called to appear for induction October 28. Wayne, who is now working in the shipyards at Portland, tried to enlist early in the war but was rejected on physical examination, later he was called for examination by the draft board and then placed in class 4F. A recent reclassification put him in 1A. Melvin Meyers of Echo has also been notified to appear October 28.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Dorn moved to town the first of the week and are now occupying their house on the corner of Bridge and Dupont streets. Mr. and Mrs. Tom Able, who have been on a farm at Starkey, will move into the residence on the Mendenhall place vacated by the Dorns.

John Stephens Spike, Echo postmaster, left Friday for Salt Lake City for induction into the armed forces. Mrs. Nona H. McFaul, assistant postmaster, will have charge of the local office, with Mrs. Roy Smith as her assistant.

Ray Tolar is now manager of Echo Flour Mills warehouses. Charles Reese and family having moved Tuesday to Silverton where they will reside on a farm. Mr. Tolar has not made definite arrangements about the operation of his freight truck business but expects to do so in a few days.

Private John Correa, son of Mr. and Mrs. Lee Correa of Echo, is now studying basic engineering at Syracuse university, Syracuse, N. Y. He has been assigned there in connection with the army specialized training program, which at Syracuse also includes language and medical groups. Pvt. Correa is a graduate of Echo high school.

Mr. and Mrs. John Howard and Henry Peters of Portland spent the week end in this vicinity hunting pheasants. Peters, who formerly operated the Echo Bakery, was a guest of Mr. and Mrs. Jesse Arnold on Butter Creek, and the Howards visited relatives in Pendleton.

Lee Correa, who is working with the Cunha sheep in the mountains, returned to camp Monday after spending-a few days here with his son William, before the latter left for induction into the army.

One band of Cunha Bros. sheep have been brought to the home ranch. Two bands are still on range at Starkey and two at McKay Creek, where they will remain until it snows in the mountains.

Echo high football team played a tie 12-12 with the lone team Friday to wind up the scheduled games of the season. Echo's second team played a practice game with Stanfield the same afternoon, winning 33 to 19.

Mrs. Thomas H. Loughary (Reta Cunha) is here to spend the winter with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Tony Cunha. Her husband is taking officers training in the army air corps at Shepherd Field, Texas. Her sister, Mrs. Edward H. Moezyski (Clara Mae), is now at Miami, Florida, where her husband is in the quarter-master division of the air corps.

A bridal shower honoring Mrs. Charles Hibbard (Marian Luciani) was held at the Echo church basement Friday evening under the sponsorship of Mrs. Manuel Correa and Mrs. Dorothy Brown of Rieth. Mr. and Mrs. Hibbard will return Tuesday to his camp in North Carolina after spending a furlough visiting relatives here.

Major and Mrs. W. Martin Marbut spent the week end at the Sloan Thomson home on Butter Creek and took in the opening of the pheasant season. Major Marbut, former Echo physician, is stationed in the army medical corps at Vancouver, Wash., but says he expects to be ordered overseas soon.

Mrs. Leona Thompson received a picture from her grandson, Staff Sgt. Charles Cunha, who is in the air corps somewhere in the south Atlantic. Mrs. Cunha and infant, who visited here this summer, are now living with her mother in San Francisco.

Harold Liesegang writes his parents from the naval training station at Farragut, Idaho, that he is kept very busy with his preliminary training but is in good health and is becoming accustomed to the stiff routine.

Plenty of ducks, geese and pheasants and good hunting weather have made the opening of the bird season very satisfactory to local hunters. Many limit bags are reported and ducks and pheasants are said to be more numerous than in recent years. Possibly because of a shortage of gas and shells there seems to be fewer Portland hunters than usual in this neighborhood.

Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Holmes and children, who have been living in the Wells house on Buckley street, moved Saturday to Ordinance.

A husky inmate of the Pendleton asylum named McCarthy decided Thursday that he preferred farm work to the routine of the institution and walked as far as Echo before he was picked up by Marshall Nieland Friday evening. He was stopped by a guard at the railroad bridge this side of Nolin but bypassed the guard by wading the river, and came on to the Ramos ranch where he asked for a job and was given a meal. Joe Ramos phoned the marshal and the man was found later near the city limits. He offered no resistance to being returned to Pendleton on being told a steady job would be given him there.

Pfc. Paul Oliver writes from Blackstone army air field in Virginia that he hopes to be home on furlough next month to visit his parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Oliver.

Echo high school football team won a game at Lexington last Friday 25 to 6. The scheduled season for football ends with a game at Lone this week end.

November 24 has been set as the tentative date for the fall junior-senior play. A comedy, "Bolts and Nuts", has been selected for the occasion.

Robert G. Pashek, newly appointed station agent at Echo arrived today and took over the office from G. H. Frederick, who has been acting as relief agent since Mr. Ballard's resignation. Pashek, who lives at The Dalles has been working for some time at Arlington. Miss Cecelia Dolce, relief night operator, goes from here to Heppner Junction.

The first frost of the fall season hit Echo Thursday morning when the temperature dropped to 30 above. Only slight damage was done to tomato vines and other tender garden plants.

Mrs. Frank Helms, formerly of Butter Creek, was here the first of the week calling on old friends in Echo and on the creek. The Helms are now living at Spokane where Mr. News has been received that Bill Battick, formerly of Echo, is now a corporal in the army. He is stationed at Mountain Home, Idaho.

Mr. and Mrs. John Reiss returned Monday from a visit with relatives at Seattle. Mr. Reiss leaves Friday for induction in the army. Mrs. Reiss will remain in Echo where she is employed as a teacher in the local school.
