MANY ATTEND
BOOSTER NIGHT
AT WESTLAND

Approximately 120 people attended the annual Booster meeting of Westland Grange last Friday. The meeting, under the direction of the lecturer, Marian Rice, and Master, J. D.
McKay, opened with the officers' drill, presentation of the flag and singing of "The Star Spangled Banner". State Deputy Charles Wicklander, County Deputy Claude Hanscom and State Grange Flora, Bertha Hanscom, gave short, snappy talks on grange accomplishments. Short skits, tap dancing and readings followed.

The highlight of the evening was undoubtedly the two-act, side-splitting comedy, "Henry's Mail-order Wife", presented by Floyd Laird, J. D. Mc-Kay, Don Allstott, Alma Allstott, Margaret Seeliger and Frank Seeliger.
This was followed by a group of 4-H club members with a tribute to our armed forces. Then came dancing, with music donated by Mr. and Mrs. Bert Michel. Refreshments of cake and coffee were served by the ladies of the grange. Several applications have been received, so it was felt justified in calling this a very successful meeting.

The next club meeting will be an all day meeting with pot-luck dinner at the home of Mrs. Guy Shaw, Wednesday, November 10th. Members are asked to please come as early as possible as a big day's work is ahead.

The next grange meeting, November 12th, will be election of officers and the Worthy Master urges every member to make an extra effort to be present.
