LOCALS

Miss Mary Lou Johnson returned Sunday from a week at Ocean Lake where she attended a conference. Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Benschel have received word of the birth of a three pound, nine ounce daughter to Mr. and Mrs. Grant Harmon of Enterprise. She has been named Edith Anne.

Miss Rebecca Pierson, bookkeeper at the Inland Cooperative, spent last week in La Grande visiting relatives. Mrs. M. L. Watson and daughter Peggy returned Sunday night from a four day visit with Mrs. Watson's mother at Boise, Idaho.

Rev. J. W. Stuart left for Kamiah, Idaho, last Friday evening to conduct an evangelistic meeting. He expected to be gone better than two weeks.

Mr. and Mrs. Paul Van Patten and baby daughter Ilene were Saturday over night guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. C. J. Jackson, now of Pendleton.

Mrs. O. O. Felthouse was host at her home to the W.S.C.S. with 18 ladies and 10 children present. The afternoon was spent in sewing.

Mr. and Mrs. K. D. Pierson were called to Portland one day this week by the death of Mrs. Pierson's brother, Walter Cox, from a sudden heart attack.

Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Neufeldt of Dallas, Ore., were week end guests of their daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Al Quiring.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Null and Opal, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Null, Ray Null and Lem Persinger, and Mr. and Mrs. L. J. Michelli, all of Hermiston, and Mrs. Irene Connor of Walla Walla, attended the funeral of Mrs. Jennie Johnson in Kennewick Monday.

Harold Berg of Seattle came early this week to visit several days at the home of his brother, Pete Berg and family. He was sent here by a Seattle firm to study the turkey industry. He accompanied Mr. and Mrs. Pete Berg to Portland Tuesday.

HERMISTON BAPTIST CHURCH
H. V. McGee, Pastor

“And as Moses lifted up the serpent in the wilderness even so must the Son of man be lifted up: That whosoever believeth in him should not perish, but have eternal life.”

Mrs. O. O. Felthouse returned Sunday afternoon from Weiser, Idaho, where she spent four days visiting her mother.

The Methodist Ladies Aid are having the annual bazaar and cooked food sale at Burnham's store on Saturday, November 4.

Mr. and Mrs. John M. Pace of Portland announce the arrival of twin baby boys, Gary Milton weighed 6 pounds ½ ounce, and Gordon William weighed 7 pounds 7 ounces, born October 22. The twins are grandsons of Mr. and Mrs. John Pace of Hermiston.

Corporal Chester J. Stuart, son of Rev. and Mrs. J. W. Stuart, and brother of Roland, and Miss Bertha Phyllis Camomile of Sacramento, Calif., were married November 6 at Sacramento. Chester is a radio instructor in the school at Camp Kohler. They will make their home in Sacramento.

Pvt. James Jackson, son of Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Jackson, has recently graduated from basic training preparatory for combat duty with an Armored unit. Although no definite announcement has been made it is thought that he will be returned to Oregon State college for further training.

Word was received locally this week from Julius J. Gimble Jr. who is now with the U. S. Navy at sea. He writes that he misses the hunting for ducks and pheasants but that he is now after bigger "game". He is a son of Mr. and Mrs. Julius Gimble of Hermiston.

Sgt. Glenn Elwood, son of Mr. and Mrs. Lee Elwood, came late Tuesday night to spend until Thanksgiving with his parents and other relatives. He has been stationed with the Ordnance department at Camp Gordon, Augustus, Georgia. He has been in the service for about 13 months.

News was received at The Herald this week of the marriage of Mrs. Anne Clark of Seattle and S. A. Anderson of Portland. Mr. Anderson formerly was a tinsmith here until going to Portland about a year or so ago. He writes that they will be at home to their friends at 2826 N. E. 16th Ave., Portland 12.

Elmer Blahm, Petty Officer, U. S. Navy, son of Mr. and Mrs. Adam Blahm of Hermiston, came last Thursday to spend a 15-day furlough here with relatives and friends. He has been stationed at Jacksonville, Fla., but will now be stationed at Seattle. He has been in the service since December, 1942, being a graduate of Hermiston high school.

The Methodist Ladies Aid are having the annual bazaar and cooked food sale at Burnham's store on Saturday, November 4.

Mr. and Mrs. Pat Sullivan are the parents of a new baby girl born early in November at St. Anthony's hospital in Pendleton. The little tot weighed nine pounds and has been named Judith Ann. She is their third child. Mr. Sullivan is employed at the Hermiston Dry Cleaners.

First Sgt. W. G. Corpe has written to his brother, Bernie Corpe, that he is now stationed on one of the Solomon Islands, following service in New Caledonia and the Fiji Islands. He has been in the service for over three years and seems to be greatly enjoying his work, although stating that he gets homesick for Oregon climate.

Lt. Keith Mikesell arrived here late Saturday to visit at the W. A. Mikesell and A. H. Cable homes. Lt. Mikesell, who was wounded in action some time ago, is still suffering some from his wounds. He was injured in the battle of New Guinea. He went to Portland Sunday where he makes his home. He must report back to an army hospital in about 30 days.

Mr. and Mrs. George Harris have recently received two interesting letters from their son, Staff Sergeant William H. Harris, in which he tells of some of his work in the service. He states that old-fashioned methods still prevail there with women washing clothes on the river banks and cooking out of doors. He longs for Oregon climate and home food, although stating that he is still enjoying excellent health.

Mr. and Mrs. O. C. Pierce and Stanley spent from last Thursday until Monday in Portland. Mr. Pierce attended to business matters for the Farm Bureau Mill while Mrs. Pierce and Stanley visited with Miss Marion Pierce and other relatives. Miss Pierce is employed at the Kaiser Shipyards in Vancouver, doing office work. Stanley, who is an Oregon Journal carrier here, was escorted through the entire Journal building as a guest of that paper.
