He has spent the past year at Whitehorse, Alaska, and made the trip to Portland by car over the new Alcan highway. The excursion took 10 days and they encountered only a few spots of rough road.

Nick Steiner has received word from his son, Emmett N. Steiner, who is in the U. S. Naval hospital at Long Beach, Calif. The latter has been stationed somewhere in the South Pacific and the word from the hospital is the first Mr. Steiner had heard from his son in some months. The brief message stated, "I am alright. Dad. See you soon." Mr. Steiner has no inkling as to why his son is in a hospital.

Mrs. Elbert "Eg" Moore writes from Ontario, Calif., that she has a very nice place to stay, just six miles from where her husband is in Primary Training. She states that Mr. Moore has soloed in a P. T. and also in the B.T.'s, which are much larger than the former. Although the weather is often very foggy and hazy, the afternoons are nice and sometimes quite hot. They give best regards to all their Hermiston friends and admit that at times they become quite homesick.

"As many as I love, I rebuke and chasten, be zealous therefore, and repent."
"Behold, I stand at the door and knock: if any man hear my voice, and open the door, I will come in to him, and will sup with him, and he with me."
