

Thank You . . .

I have disposed of my business in Hermiston to Mr. and Mrs. H. M. Boylen. I wish to take this opportunity to thank all my friends and customers for their patronage during the past year and a half. I have thoroughly enjoyed my short stay in Hermiston and I trust that the friendships that have been formed will be lasting.

Mr. and Mrs. Boylen will continue to serve you well. May you continue your patronage.

A Happy Thanksgiving Season To All Is Our Wish

These are troubled times, and in their darkness we find all the more reason for a full measure of Thanksgiving. We must still be thankful for the freedom with which we have been endowed; for the liberty which distinguishes our nation among all nations. May we truly appreciate the fact that we are still able to enjoy a free Thanksgiving Day, unmolested by bombs and invading troops.

with the Sunday evening service. We are expecting another record Bible School on Sunday. One hundred and forty-nine were present last Sunday. The evangelist's closing sermons will be: Friday night, "If The Dead Could Speak"; (No service Saturday night); Sunday a. m., "The Marks of a Christian"; and Sunday night, "Three Triumphal Entries of Jesus."
