LOCALS

Mrs. Rena Waterman arrived home last week from Walla Walla where she has spent several months visiting her daughter and family.

Miss Lucile Lukens and Mrs. Simons of the county health staff were guests of the Hermiston Rotary club at its weekly meeting Thursday noon.

Mrs. F. C. McKenzie left Tuesday night for San Luis Obispo, Calif., to visit her son Frank, who is with the armed forces near there. She expects to be gone several weeks.

Robert W. Volle, 20, son of Mr. and Mrs. John R. Volle, of Irrigon, has arrived at Camp Roberts, Calif., at the Infantry Replacement Training Center.

Miss Dorothy Pierson and Miss Lois Harris returned Sunday from a 10-day trip to Victoria, B. C. The girls report an interesting excursion, especially the journey from Seattle to Victoria by boat. Old time quaint costumes are still in vogue in Victoria.

Mrs. Mark Klinefelter of Hermiston underwent an operation for appendicitis in the Walla Walla General hospital Wednesday. Reports Thursday were that she was getting along nicely.

Mr. and Mrs. Guy Shaw, Ray Shaw, Mrs. Vester Shaw, Rebecca Pierson and Mrs. Grant Henderson went to Heppner Sunday to visit at the home of Mrs. Casha Shaw. The occasion was in honor of Ray who was home on furlough from Camp Farragut.

Mrs. Harold Rankin returned Wednesday from Ogden, Utah, where she had spent a week with her daughter-in-law, Mrs. Stuart Rankin and young daughter.

Mrs. Bergerson (Florence Woughter) arrived from San Francisco Tuesday to spend until after Christmas with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Koughter.

Dr. J. P. Stewart, eyesight specialist of Pendleton, will be at the Hermiston Hotel on Wednesday, December 15, between the hours of 1:00 to 5:00 p. m.

Pvt. Elmer L. Rucker, 18, son of Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Rucker of Irrigon has arrived at Washington State college for a course of instruction to last about five months prior to his appointment as an Aviation Cadet in the Army Air Forces.

Corp Earl Stuart came Sunday to spend a short furlough here with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Tom Stuart. He has been in the army about a year being stationed now at Boise, Idaho, with the Ordnance Ammunition department.

Rev. J. W. Stuart returned Wednesday evening of last week from Kamiah, Idaho, where he had been conducting a revival meeting for two weeks which closed Sunday. He stopped off at Clarkston, Wash., en route home for a church councilmen meeting.

Mrs. Paul Van Patten, Mrs. Dayton Harris and Mr. and Mrs. Roy Attebury and family motored to Pendleton Wednesday afternoon to attend the graveside service at the Pendleton cemetery for Mr. Attebury's mother, Mrs. Lina Attebury who passed away in Santa Cruz, Calif.

Mrs. Kenneth Oviatt, who recently underwent a major operation in St. Anthony's hospital in Pendleton is getting along nicely, according to Mr. and Mrs. Ray Oviatt. She will probably remain in the hospital about two weeks. She has been employed at Stone's Store for the past several months.

Orval Morris of Hermiston is announcing the marriage of his daughter, Miss Vivian Morris, to Pfc. Alvy F. Deremo. The marriage took place November 18, 1943, at Pendleton. Pfc. Morris has served 18 months overseas and is back in the states receiving medical attention. He is now stationed in Texas.

John Donald LaChance, 17, of Umatilla enlisted in the marine corps at Portland last Saturday. He will remain on an inactive status until a later date. The son of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph R. LaChance of Umatilla, Private LaChance was graduated from Umatilla high school last spring. He is at present working in his home town at a gasoline storage distribution plant.

Mr. and Mrs. O. O. Felthouse entertained Tuesday evening at a turkey dinner at their home for the officers of the Masonic lodge. Covers were placed for Chas. Hodge, Ralph Saylor, L. S. Burrell, F. B. Swayze, H. H. Gailey, J. R. Huffman, J. V. Villermoure, Curtis Simons, W. W. Felthouse, Smiley Bean, Chris Seitz and O. O. Felthouse who was worshipful master the past year. After the dinner they attended the meeting at the lodge hall where election of officers for the coming year was the main order of business.

HUNTERS MUST TURN IN TAGS

Those hunters who this fall held special tags for the killing of doe deer, antelope, bull elk or cow elk, are requested to mail in immediately the attached check-out cards if they have not already done so.

Several hundred persons have failed to check out although this is required by law. The check-out card must be mailed in even if a hunter did not kill any game or go out hunting.

Hunters are being given this notice to comply with the law and the names of those failing to respond then will be compiled and turned over to the game law enforcement officers.
