BOARDMAN NEWS

By Margaret Thorpe

Tuesday night was the annual Christmas program at the church. The program consisted of Christmas dramatizations with singing accompanying by the choir. Also several recitations and musical numbers were presented. Treats were given to the children.

Thursday night was the Community

Christmas program presented by the students at the schoolhouse conducted by Laverne Partlow. The program consisted of an operetta called "Christmas With the Old Woman Who Lived in a Shoe." Also several numbers were given by the high school glee club. Santa Claus put in his appearance before the evening was over and treats were passed out to every one. A very large crowd attended the program. The auditorium was filled to capacity.

Mr. and Mrs. Vernon Root and son spent Christmas at the Leo Root home. Mr. Root returned to his work Sunday night but Mrs. Root is here due to Curtis having the flu.

Mr. and Mrs. R. K. Miller and family went to Portland to spend the holiday with relatives.

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Gorham went to Arlington and spent Christmas with Mr. and Mrs. Delbert Weatherell and family.

Mr. and Mrs. Elvin Ely and family went to Morgan to spend Christmas with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. H. O. Ely.

Mrs. Hazel Warner and son are spending the holidays with her mother, Mrs. Grace Forbes and family.

Saturday night the show was "I'm from Missouri" starring Bob Burns. This was followed by games and dancing with refreshments being served.

Mr. and Mrs. Ronald Black went to Wallowa to spend the holidays with her brother.

Henry Phelps was called East due to the severe illness of his mother.

Thelma Cutler is in the hospital very ill from a mastoid operation.

Guests at the Andereggs home for Christmas were Mr. and Mrs. Tom Gardner, Mr. and Mrs. I. Skoubo and Francis, Bill Harrington, Ralph Washer, Mr. and Mrs. Brown and Katherine, and Reo Rake.

Mr. and Mrs. Glen Mallory spent Christmas at the Claude Coates home. Guests at the Fisher home Christmas were Mr. and Mrs. Neils Kristen-sen and Elaine Fisher who was home for the day.

Eleanor, Asta and Dagmar Skoubo were home for the holidays.

Andy Andereggs was injured Christmas day when some boards fell on his head from the barn that is being built on the Chas. Andereggs farm.

Bob Smith slipped Thursday night on a board and cut his chin. Three stitches were taken.

Among those ill with flu this week are Cecil Hamilton, Allan and Maxine Ely, Mrs. Hug and Curtis Root.

Mr. and Mrs. Glen Nolt and family stopped Sunday at the home of his sister and family, Mrs. Francis Harter, on their way to South Dakota. Another sister, Mrs. Esther Jacobson of Beaverton, also came this far for a few days visit, returning to her home on the bus.

Boardman Yellowjackets played a basketball game with North Powder on the home floor Monday night. This was a very interesting game due to the fact that North Powder was ahead at the half so felt the game was "cinched". They took out the first team and sent them on to Stanfield where they played the same night, and put in the second team. The Boardman boys made up all the points behind in the second half and defeated them with a score of 47 to 38.

Guests at the Nathan Thorpe home for Christmas were Mr. and Mrs. Paul Smith and family and Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Daniel. Miss Ellen Etbauer and Mrs. Floy can, in no small measure, be attributed to your esteemed friendship and cherished patronage. To all of you we extend thanks and most sincere holiday greetings, with the hope that 1944 has in store for you much that is beyond your most optimistic expectations.
