COLUMBIA NEWS

By Mrs. Bob Woodward
 Tiny Caldwell went to Portland last Thursday to bring back his car which had been taken there for repairs. He also visited in Eugene, returning home Tuesday night.

Mr. and Mrs. George Liebe have received word from their son, Pfc. Walter Liebe, that he has been transferred to a camp in Louisiana.

The Farm Bureau Auxiliary met last Friday at the home of Mrs. O. H. Buell. The February meeting is scheduled to be held with Mrs. B. E. Getchell.

It is reported that Mrs. Annette Barham has been quite ill at her home the past week. Mrs. L. Hammer has also been on the sick list.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Garberding were calling at the Virgil Hogg and Henry Reuber homes on the Stanfield project Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. George Hodge of Stanfield were guests Monday evening at the O. L. Hodge home at a dinner honoring the 77th birthday anniversary of Mrs. Hodge's mother, Mrs. A. L. Haynes, who is spending the winter here from Moscow, Idaho.

The W. A. Mikesell farm near the hopyard has been sold to Ralph Johnson of Salem. Henry Kopacz and mother, Mrs. Sophia Kopacz, who have rented the place the past two years, will give up possession in the near future.

Mrs. J. H. Reid was a Sunday afternoon caller at the home of Mrs. Grace Foster.

HERMISTON METHODIST CHURCH

Walter A. MacArthur, Minister
 "Victory Over Temptation" is to be the topic of the sermon this Sunday. With the increase in the tensions, stresses and strains of life, also comes an increase in the temptations of life. To live victoriously over these temptations is our task.

MORE TRACTORS ARE AVAILABLE

Of interest to farmers is the information received that an increase allotment of materials has been made for farm wheel tractors. According to Rohrman Motor Company, local dealers for the Ford-Ferguson tractors and Ferguson implements, they will receive 10 more tractors than were originally allotted Umatilla county. Also many more mowers, plows and implements will be available. The latest reports indicate that there are about 150 applicants for the 44 wheel tractors originally allotted Umatilla county.

Besides being distributors for most of Umatilla county, Rohrman Motor Company also have all of Morrow, Grant, Gilliam and Wheeler counties for Ford-Ferguson line of tractors and implements.

The following deliveries of Ford-Ferguson tractors have been made recently: J. S. Arnold, Echo; Lyle Van Dusen of Top, Ore.; Bob Smith, Irrigon; John Jendrzejewski, Hermiston; C. C. Rhea, Stanfield, and Fred Davis of Umatilla.

Lyle Van Dusen of Top, Ore., a small foot hill country near Monument in Grant county, takes the prize for endurance and stamina. He wanted his tractor right now, so Rohrman Motor Company delivered it for him as far as Heppner, and Mr. Van Dusen rode the tractor from there over the Blue Mountains to his ranch on Wall creek.

MISS SISSON IS SUNDAY BRIDE

At a candlelight ceremony at the Church of Christ at 4:00 o'clock Sunday, January 9, Miss Vera Alta Sisson, daughter of William Sisson, became the bride of Allen L. Dean of Portland, with Rev. C. Warner officiating at the double ring ceremony.

The bride was given in marriage by E. L. Jackson, and wore a white lace dress with full train, with seed pearl headdress holding in place her finger tip veil. She carried a bouquet of gardenias and carnations.

Her only attendant was Miss Estephana S. Correa of Echo, wearing a floor length pink taffeta dress with pink net shirt and matching pink short shoulder length veil. She carried a nose gay of mixed flowers.

Best man was Milo K. Dean of Portland, brother of the groom. Ushers were E. Lawrence Scheerger and Walter B. Carlson. Pfc. James Jackson of Corvallis sang "Because" and "I Love You Truly," accompanied by Jack Jackson. The latter also played the wedding marches with Miss Hope Reynold playing the violin.

A reception was held at the parsonage immediately after the ceremony with Miss Lavina May Lynch and Mrs. C. M. Jackson pouring.

The young couple left the following day to make their home in San Francisco for the present. Mrs. Dean wore a green wool suit with rust matching accessories as her going away suit.

Mrs. Dean has made her home with the E. L. Jacksons for the past year. She graduated from the Hermiston high school in 1933 and has been employed at the Umatilla Ordnance Depot in the personnel department. Mr. Dean was formerly employed at Ordnance in the same department but has been employed in Portland.

Out of town guests were Mr. and Mrs. Milo K. Dean, Claude L. Dean, and Pfc. and Mrs. James Jackson of Corvallis.
