LOCALS

Mrs. Finley is a patient in the local hospital.

Mrs. Hattie Owens of Geneva, Neb., is spending the winter with her daughter, Mrs. Harm Casper.

Mrs. Betty Sherman spent last week end in the Hermiston hospital.

Mr. and Mrs. Chester Smith and family of Vancouver spent last week at the H. H. Casper home. Mrs. Smith and Mrs. Casper are sisters.

Mrs. Sam Brock returned home on Monday after a siege in the Hermiston General hospital with an infected hand.

Mr. and Mrs. Vardyn Buchanan of Corvallis (nee Mary Brownson) are announcing the birth of a son, David Vardyn, on January 10. This is their second child.

Frank Sargent, local contractor, was admitted to the Hermiston General hospital Wednesday with first stages of pneumonia.

A. W. Agnew this week leased the 80-acre ranch across the river on the west side to Kenneth Brown of Mountain Home, Idaho. The place was formerly rented by G. E. Knapp.

Alton Kingsbury of Neotsu, Ore., was in Hermiston the forepart of the week attending to business matters. Mr. Kingsbury stated that they were now residing at Neotsu and that Mrs. Kingsbury is recuperating nicely. He is employed in a mill near there at present.

Mr. Fruiff is in the Hermiston hospital recuperating from an accident. Jack Chapman returned to his home Thursday after a few days stay in the Hermiston General hospital.

Thelma Deane Cutler underwent a mastoid operation in Walla Walla recently. Later she stayed two days in the local hospital before her return to her home in Boardman.

Joy Reed had her appendix removed in Walla Walla. She is recuperating at the Hermiston General hospital.

Newton Hammack is recovering satisfactorily after a very serious illness at the local hospital.

Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Agnew, who have spent the past two months in this area on business matters, expect to leave this week end for their home in Portland.

Dr. J. P. Stewart, eyesight specialist of Pendleton, will be at the Hermiston Hotel on Wednesday, January 26, between the hours of 1:00 and 5:00 p. m.

Misses Stella Bohlman, Verna Prusia and Ina L. Moore spent the week end near Moscow, Idaho. Miss Moore returned to her home in that vicinity for needed equipment for the hospital.

Mrs. Delpha Ebel, R. N., and Mrs. Beulah Primm, R. N., took charge of the Hermiston General hospital last week end while Miss Moore made a trip to her home near Moscow, Idaho.

W. F. Cargill of Clarkston, Wash., is spending several days in Hermiston this week. The Cargills recently sold their home west of town but retained 10 acres of land.

Mrs. Harm Casper entertained the Lutheran Ladies Aid at her home Wednesday. Officers were elected and light refreshments were served. The next meeting will be at the home of Mrs. John Grant.

Mr. and Mrs. Baxter Hutchison of Pendleton were in Hermiston on a business trip Wednesday and Thursday. Mr. Hutchison will again take up his duties on the P. P. railroad after February 1.

Mr. and Mrs. Clinton Harper and family of Seattle are visiting at the home of Rev. and Mrs. C. Warner. Mr. Harper is Mrs. Warner's brother. Their mother, Mrs. Beth Woodward, is here from Spokane staying with Mrs. W. C. Morehouse.

Mrs. G. Earl Williams of Los Angeles, accompanied by her small nephew Tommy Buchanan of Corvallis, arrived Thursday for a visit with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. R. A. Brownson. Mrs. Williams expects to be in Hermiston three or four weeks.

Mrs. B. J. Nation has been notified that Miss Weed of the San Francisco office of the American Red Cross will be at the Pendleton office next Monday and Tuesday to interview anyone interested in obtaining employment in Red Cross work.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Hamm have received word that their son, Bill Hamm, and Bill Kirchner, former Hermiston buddies, are together at Tutuilla, Samoa. Needless to say, the boys are enjoying each other's company.

News have been received here of the marriage of Miss Beulah Ryland, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Ryland, to Sgt. Louis Cresto on Sunday, January 9. The Rylands now reside in Freewater but formerly resided on a ranch east of Hermiston and later operated a cafe in Stanfield. Mrs. Cresto formerly attended school here.

Elmer L. Mulkins, son of Mr. and Mrs. Mulkins of Hermiston, is among a large class of cadets receiving pre-flight training at the San Antonio Aviation Cadet Center. This is a nine-week course and prepares the cadets for actual flight training. Mulkins, better known here as Levester, is a graduate of Hermiston high school.

Mr. and Mrs. Archie Fales and Mr. and Mrs. William Parker left Friday for Sweet Home, Ore., to attend the funeral of Mrs. Geo. Muntz. Mrs. Muntz is a sister of Mrs. Fales and Mrs. Parker. The funeral was held Sunday, the party returning to Hermiston Tuesday, accompanied by Mrs. Muntz's two-year-old son, Richie, who will make his home with the Fales.

St. Sgt. Cecil R. Warner is now in Italy, according to word received here by his parents, Rev. and Mrs. C. Warner, arriving there on Thanksgiving day. He writes that he is happy to be where the flowers are in full bloom, green grass and an abundance of green trees. Also he states that it is pleasant to be where people believe in some degree of sanitation.

F. R. Moore of Astoria arrived in Hermiston Wednesday morning to attend to business matters here and expects to leave again the latter part of the week. The Moores have lived in Hermiston 13 years prior to going to Astoria about three years ago. Flying Cadet Jesse D. Moore, their son, is now stationed at Corpus Christi, Texas. Mr. Moore has been employed as a guard for Pacific Power & Light Co. at Astoria, and he says that country has one advantage over this country in that you can sit down at your work without being bothered with sand bars.

with "non-rationed" stickers on them may be sold ration-free any time and are not limited to the two weeks.

Rebekahs Schedule Meetings

The Hermiston Rebekah lodge is meeting regularly every first and third Wednesdays of each month, according to the Noble Grand, Beulah Simons, and the secretary, Thelma Harkenrider. The group meets in the lodge halls above the Oregon Hardware & Implement Co., with visitors always welcome.

Tabernacle Is Redecorated

The members of the Pentecostal Tabernacle have been busy the past week redecorating the interior of their church building. Some new improvements have been made as well as painting and papering the walls. A new rug has also been placed on the floor, according to the pastor, Rev. Shelby E. Graves.

Members Are Obligated

At the last meeting of the Westland Grange, Mr. and Mrs. Bert Michel and Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Watson were obligated in the 4th degree. Two new applications were received. Arrangements for the annual dinner for Grange members and their families are under the leadership of Mrs. G. E. Sturm. The dinner will be at the school house January 28, and members are requested to bring their own table silver. The next Home Ec. meeting will be an all day meeting at the home of Mrs. Chris Sturm on January 26, with a pot luck dinner at noon. Members are asked to share their cars and to bring their neighbors.

Umatilla P. T. A. To Meet

The Umatilla P.T.A. will hold its next meeting Tuesday, January 25, beginning at 8:00 o'clock in the high school. All members and interested people are asked to attend as it will be a very important business meeting.

Urged To Save Tin Cans

Mrs. Walter Hamm, chairman of the Hermiston tin can salvage campaign, has announced that citizens should continue to save tin cans as another collection will be made soon. The first drive some weeks ago netted between two and three tons, making the campaign very successful.

SCOUT LEADERS ORGANIZE CLUB

A Girl Scout Leaders' Club has been organized which includes leaders and assistant leaders of the seven Hermiston troops. The January meeting was held at the high school on Tuesday evening, January 18. Meetings will be held once each month.

Plans for future meetings and activities of the troops are discussed and progress of the various troops' programs checked. Arrangements for investiture ceremonies for Brownie, Girl Scout, and Senior Service Scout groups are now being made.

Miss Lucy Holabird, national representative, will return to Hermiston February 21 to 25, at which time training courses will be scheduled and leaders and troop committee members will receive valuable helps and suggestions for their troops.
