

BOARDMAN NEWS

By Margaret Thorpe

Mrs. Attebury returned from Tacoma Tuesday where she has spent several weeks visiting her son Chet. Mr. and Mrs. Harry Thorpe made a trip to the valley where they got some day old calves. Home Economics club met at the home of Mrs. Tannehill Wednesday with 13 members present. Committees were appointed for the coming year. The finishing date of the Pollyanna club will be February 16 with a party at the Grange hall to which all Grange members are invited. P. T. A. met Thursday night with a large crowd attending. Several questions had been put in the question box which created a lot of discussion. Due to so many attending the basketball game at Stanfield Friday night, a small crowd was out to the show. The next show will be Saturday night with Gene Tierney and Victor McLaglan in China Girl. This is reported to be a very good picture. Following the show will be a community box social for the purpose of raising funds to go towards the new ceiling in the Grange hall. Grange met Saturday night with an exceptionally good crowd attending. Mr. Conrad, county agent, gave a very interesting talk on the food program for the coming season. The government is asking for a large increase in most crops. Another number on the program was a skit by Russell and Hazel Miller. Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Wicklander were visitors at Grange Saturday night. While here they reorganized the Juvenile Grange with Bill Lilly in charge, and 17 members going in. Elected officers were as follows: Master, Bobby Lillie; Overseer, Keith Tannehill; Secretary, Mildred Miller; Treasurer, Bud Hendricks; Steward, Delbert Ball; Gatekeeper, Darrell

Marlow; Ceres, Pauline Smith; Flora, Carol Hamilton; Pomona, Gracie Veele; Chaplain, Delbert Tyler; Lecturer, Rozella Meinen; Assistant Steward, Robert Fortner; Lady Assistant Steward, Grace Miller. The Boardman basketball team went to Stanfield to play Friday night where the first team won their game and the grade and second teams lost their games. Mrs. Cecil Hamilton received word that her father, Albert Buhr of Denmore, Kansas, passed away Friday following a heart attack. Her mother and father would have celebrated their 50th wedding anniversary next month. Terry Yeager returned to Skoubo's Wednesday after having spent since before Christmas with his mother at Spokane. Bobby Morgan, who is in the service, spent two days visiting his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Lou Morgan, this week. Mr. and Mrs. Jess Lower had an auction sale Saturday. They are leaving right away for California where they will make their home. Mrs. Lower received word last week that her son was killed in action in Italy. Mrs. Gilbert Pettys and children are moving in with Mr. and Mrs. Macomber this week. They will stay while Mr. Pettys is in the service. He is to report on February 1 at Fort Lewis. Mrs. McFarland made a business trip to Portland Sunday. W. H. Macomber returned to his home at Grandview Monday night after spending a week with his son, Nate Macomber. Mrs. Lee Pearson and Mrs. Gertrude Van Metre spent Monday shopping in Pendleton. Ernie Peck took Ernabelle back to Pendleton Monday where she is attending school. Bob Smith made a business trip to Pendleton Monday. Mrs. Harry Thorpe is substitute teacher for the first and second grades this week while Mrs. Billings has taken time off to spend the week with her husband, Allan Billings who is on furlough from the army.

STANFIELD NEWS

(Too late for last week) Mr. and Mrs. Paul Baker met Major Bruce Baker of Spokane for a few hours in Pendleton Sunday night en route to his duties at the hospital base in Louisiana. Pendleton visitors Tuesday were Mr. and Mrs. Don Sikes and Billy and Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Hoffnagle and their daughter, Mrs. Alvin May and infant son. The latter was taken for medical aid. Mrs. Alice Maskylene visited the Ordinance hospital Tuesday to have her broken thumb dressed. Miss Marie Lane is absent from school, caring for little Jimmie Curl whose mother Mrs. C. C. Curl underwent an operation at St. Anthony's hospital January 8. Mrs. Darrell Wallace and small daughter Darrellene have returned from an extended visit at Gallipolis, Ohio, to the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Flenor Foster. G. L. Dunning resumed his duties again Monday night on the selective draft board. C. B. Fisher returned last Saturday from Portland where he had received aid from his doctor and dentist who supplied him with new set of teeth. Mr. and Mrs. Vernon Waterman and daughters moved to Portland last week where Mr. Waterman will be employed as a chemist. Park Carmichael of Nolin moved onto the farm thus vacated the following day. Those attending the session at the Echo city hall last Friday night from Stanfield and hearing Alfred Cunha discuss the legal status of women in Oregon, were Mr. and Mrs. Charles Herrick, Mrs. N. D. Bard, Mrs. Rose Hedrick, Mr. and Mrs. F. S. Green, Mr. and Mrs. Loren Kenison, Mrs. Clara Ward, Mrs. John Peters, Mrs. Alma Batchelor, Mrs. Edna Fisk and Mrs. Robert McPhetridge. Mrs. David Gibson returned home to Portland Friday night after a week's visit with her mother, Mrs. Cora Olday. Following the picture show Monday night several of the young folks decided to honor the 16th anniversary of Alice Hedrick's birth, by building a campfire and having a wiener roast and treasure hunt. Much fun resulted. Jo Rhea Liesegang has accepted an office job as clerk and typist at the Albina shipyards in Portland. Miss Neva Hedrick has been assigned to the cashier's job at the Ordnance U. P. depot, formerly held by Orville Kensler. His quarantine for scarlet fever was lifted on the tenth and Orville will report to Fort Lewis on the 16th. W. L. Sabin has gone to Long Beach, Cal., to the home of his son for the winter, hoping to improve his health. Mr. and Mrs. Al Perkins and Kay visited at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Ed Emerson Sunday. Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Martin entertained Mr. and Mrs. Jake Rueber, Mr. and Mrs. Don Childs and the Boggs on Sunday.

PENTECOSTAL TABERNACLE
Pastor Shelby E. Graves

Take your children to Sunday School or in later years the police will take them to court. Records show that of the thousands of wayward children brought to trial, the greater majority of them have never been in Sunday School. Remember our Sunday services are: 10:00 a. m., Bible school. Our Sunday School contest is creating lots of excitement and interest. 11 a. m., Worship hour. 7 p. m., A good young people's service. 7:45 p. m., Evangelistic service. Tuesday, 7:45 p. m., prayer meeting. Thursday, 7:45 p. m., Bible study.

UMATILLA NEWS

By Mrs. Glenn Ostrom

Mrs. Melvin Eller was hostess to the pinocle club at her home last Wednesday evening. Prizes were won by Mrs. Arzie Smith and Mrs. Oliver McNabb. Others present were Madames John Liedloff, Al Vieg, Dale Montgomery and Glenn Ostrom. Mrs. Ben Spencer, who is in Portland in a hospital after undergoing a major operation is much improved and plans on leaving the hospital soon. Mrs. Paul Vallia, Mrs. Ray McNabb and Mrs. Glenn Ostrom were hostesses at a shower honoring Mrs. Al Vieg, Friday evening at the McNabb home with many friends present. The evening was spent in playing games with prizes going to Mrs. John Liedloff and Mrs. Melvin Eller. Gifts were opened after which refreshments were served to 15 guests. Mr. and Mrs. Dean Newgard were Pasco visitors Saturday afternoon and evening. The committee in charge of the plaque containing the engraving of all the service men in Umatilla and its district who are in the armed forces is asking the parents to get in touch with Mrs. Fred Knudsen or Mrs. Bill Kennedy, so that they will be able to get all the boys' names on the plaque. They do not want to miss any boy who is serving his country. Miss Ada Bowman of Arlington spent Sunday here with her sister and family, Mrs. Howard Smith. Corp. Delbert Van Schoick, who is home on a ten day furlough because of the illness of his father, was granted five days more. Mrs. Oliver McNabb and son Jon, Mrs. John Mstard and Mrs. John Nye and children of Hermiston spent Monday in Pendleton. Mrs. Arzie Smith spent Tuesday in The Dalles on business. Mrs. Al Vieg left Monday for Rufus where she will visit her father, Lindon Myers, who has recently returned from the Hawaiian Islands where he has been employed for over two years. Mr. Myers is moving his family to Rufus from California where he has purchased a farm. Mrs. Dean Newgard, Mrs. Oliver McNabb and Mrs. Glenn Ostrom and son Gary spent Tuesday in Pendleton shopping. F. S. Baker arrived in Umatilla Monday where he will attend to business for the River Terminal Co., after spending a week at his home in The Dalles. Australia is now building tanks: its first batch, of medium tonnage, has been completed and passed military tests.
