LOCALS

Miss Olive Strang, cook at the local hospital, turned patient herself this week suffering from a bad cold.

The Oregon Women's Ambulance Corps recently purchased a hundred dollar war bond toward helping the Fourth War Bond drive.

Mrs. Ray Farnsworth, sister of Mrs. Margaret Cronk, arrived Monday from Portland and is spending the week in Hermiston.

The Townsend club will meet the last Tuesday of each month instead of the fourth Tuesday and the meeting will be at the U.S.O. The public is invited to all the meetings.

Dr. J. P. Stewart, eyesight specialist of Pendleton, will be at the Hermiston Hotel Wednesday, February 23, between the hours of 10:00 and 5:00. 27-1c

Mrs. L. F. Fleming of Olympia, Wash., arrived in Hermiston recently to make an indefinite visit with her mother, Mrs. W. C. Morehouse, while her husband, Sgt. Lester Fleming, is on maneuvers in Louisiana.

Corporal and Mrs. Chester Stuart arrived here this week to spend a 15-day furlough with his parents, Rev. and Mrs. J. W. Stuart. Cpl. Stuart, who has been in the service about 14 months, is stationed at Camp Culver, near Sacramento, with the Signal Corps as a radio operator technician. Mrs. Stuart is a Sacramento girl and is enjoying her first visit to Hermiston. Cpl. Stuart must report back to Camp Culver by February 26.

Mr. Espinola, who has been very ill at the Hermiston hospital, is reported to be much better.

Vivian Jackson, 3-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Rex Jackson who has been very ill the past month with rheumatic fever, is reported as greatly improved but will not be able to be up for some time yet.

A little daughter was born to Cpl. and Mrs. Stanley Pacioni February 16 at the local hospital. The little lady weighed 7 1/2 pounds and has been named Joyce Yvonne. Cpl. Pacioni, who has been in India for over two months, was notified by cable of the happy event.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Seeliger returned Monday morning from a two weeks visit spent in California with their son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Darrel Seeliger of Oakland, and other relatives at Richmond and San Jose. Returning with them were Mrs. Seeliger's mother, Mrs. F. Mills and her brother and wife, Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Mills of San Jose.

During the lecturers hour at Westland Grange February 11, under the direction of Mrs. Harry Newton, funds were raised to enable the grange to participate in the Fourth War Loan drive. In the absence of J. D. McKay the meeting was in charge of Guy Shaw. The meeting February 25 will be the ninth anniversary of Westland grange and a special program honoring the charter members is being arranged. There will also be an initiation in the first and second degrees. The Home Economics club will meet February 23 at the home of Mrs. Harry Newton.

To this union six children were born, four of whom are living. He is survived by his widow, Elizabeth Clinesmith and children: Mrs. Maude Ackerman of Colfax, Charles and James Clinesmith of Binge, Wash., and Mrs. Alice Elkins of Dayton. Many years of his life were devoted to Christian work.

Mrs. H. V. McGee, Misses Audrey Null and Frances Follett accompanied Ray Null to Pendleton Wednesday.

Recent patients at the Hermiston General hospital include Mrs. LaRue, Gwendolyn Standefer, Mrs. Geer and Mr. Weston.

George R. Harris, S. 2/c, son of Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Harris, writes his parents that he has been in New Guinea but is now back in Australia. He has been in the service for a year and six months, and stationed on the U. S. S. Dobbin for over a year.

Mr. and Mrs. C. M. Harris of the local hospital staff were surprised on Wednesday by a visit from their nephew, Pvt. Billy Colts, who has been stationed at Nome, Alaska, for the past two years and is now enjoying a short furlough. He was accompanied by his wife, parents and grandmother who is a sister of Mr. Harris.
