

COLUMBIA NEWS

By Mrs. Bob Woodward

Funeral services were held Monday afternoon in Hermiston for Bert F. Parsons, long time resident of this district, who was struck and killed by a train early last Friday morning while on guard duty at the railroad trestle in the Westland district. Pallbearers were men from the Columbia district: Dell Christley, Mark Foster, Bud Curtis, Joe Udey, Roy Rogers and James Getchell. Interment was in the Hermiston cemetery. Mr. Parsons is survived by three daughters, Mrs. Mabel Maurus and Mrs. Nettie Hawthorne of The Dalles, and Mrs. June Lisik, Los Angeles; and four sons, Edward, U.S.N., now stationed at Pasco, Donald, U.S.N., stationed at San Francisco, Ray and Glenn of Hermiston. All were able to come for the funeral excepting Mrs. Lisik. Arthur Blinston, who was visiting here from Portland, made a week end trip to White Swan, Wn., to visit a brother who is ill. He was accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. Henry Garberding who visited in Mabton. Carl Caldwell returned Tuesday night to Tacoma after spending two days here at the Bob Woodward home. Miss Gertrude Zak of San Francisco, who has been visiting in The Dalles accompanied members of the family here for the Parsons funeral. They returned to The Dalles Wednesday. Mrs. Geneva Blinston and daughter Rita came Sunday afternoon to spend a few days with her father, Uriah Edwards. Mr. and Mrs. Wavie Carter of Ordinance spent the week end at the Joe Hornsby home. Mrs. John Swearingen and small daughter Connie left Saturday night by train from Pendleton on a trip to Gulfport, Mississippi where her husband is stationed with the Seabees unit. Mr. and Mrs. Jack Mathews were called to La Grande Tuesday of last week by the death of a friend's small son and went to La Grande again on Friday to attend the funeral. H. R. Koch of Hanford spent Sunday here at the home of his brother-in-law, B. E. Getchell. Mr. and Mrs. George Hodge of Stanfield are spending this week at the Olyn Hodge home. They have recently sold their home to F. H. Miller of Stanfield and have purchased the Hunt place, now tenanted by Mr. and Mrs. Beaver who will move this week end to the Van Arsdale place. Mr. and Mrs. Fred Lightle and family will move next week to a farm near Stanfield. They have lived in this district over a year on the Sam Carter property. Mr. and Mrs. Carl Hammer arrived Tuesday evening from Berkeley, Cal., where they have made their home during the past year. They plan to remain here and are at present staying at the Lester Hammer home.
