Postmaster Steve Spike, now in the adjutant general's department of the army, left Wednesday after spending the week end here on furlough visiting his mother, Mrs. Pamela Spike. Steve has been at Camp Dix, New Jersey, and at New York receiving training in the army postal service. He has been informed that he will soon be sent overseas. Mrs. Spike and their son, who have been in New Jersey for several weeks, came west with Mr. Spike and will remain with her father in Portland while Steve is overseas.

Lt. and Mrs. Walter A. Gates (Agnes Acton) are now in Oakland, Cal., where Lt. Gates has been transferred from Kansas City. He is a navy air pilot.

Mrs. Ed Acton has received indirect word from her son Earl, who is a prisoner in a Jap camp somewhere in the Orient, the news coming in a wire from the provost marshal general's office, Washington, as follows: "The following short wave broadcast from Japan has been intercepted tonight: 'I got your letter and your packages. I received a Red Cross package. I am in good health and I hope to see you soon.' Signed Ned Earl Acton." Mr. and Mrs. Acton previously received a brief card from Earl but that was

DEE TEE VAPOR CLEANER—THE ONLY SURE METHOD OF GEAR CLEANING

● Watch it clean gears 'til they shine like a new dollar. Even the metal pores are cleaned and all of the accumulation of tars, gum and worn-out grease in transmissions and differentials is gone in a matter of minutes.

Car manufacturers say—For longer life clean and refill transmissions and differentials every 5,000 miles.

Start fresh today with gears "handkerchief-clean." Come on in... we'll show you how DEE TEE works—FREE!

several months ago. Blanche Attebury has leased the former Dr. Dorn office on Bridge St. and plans to open a beauty parlor there as soon as interior improvements and refinishing are completed. Miss Attebury will reside in an apartment in the rear of the building.

Mr. and Mrs. Ed Acton left Saturday for Klamath Falls where Mr. Acton has been employed recently as foreman on a housing contract. Mrs. Acton has been ill for a few days but is now much improved.

Mrs. Lynn McCreight (Janet Lyon) of Portland stopped at the Gaylord Madison home on Butter Creek Wednesday while on her way to McGregor, Texas, for a visit with her husband's parents. Mr. McCreight is a sergeant stationed in England. Her brother, Stanley Lyon, former Echo schoolboy, is now in the navy in the South Pacific.

Roy White, herder at the Madison ranch, broke his arm cranking a gas engine this week. Lambing is practically completed at the ranch, with a good yield, running about 115 per cent.

Ted Wimmer writes from Italy where he is in the air corps ordnance department, that he enjoys that country. Recently he bought a dozen eggs, a loaf of bread and a bottle of wine from a native for $2.00, which he considered a good bargain.

Major Green of Umatilla Ordnance Depot and Mrs. Max Church (Frances Madison) were Sunday dinner guests at the Gaylord Madison ranch.

Mrs. Raymond Attebury has returned from a brief visit with her husband at Camp Farragut. He is now en route to San Pedro, Calif., but it is not known if he will be stationed there or sent to the South seas.

Harold Liesegang, who has been ill with rheumatic fever at Camp Farragut, has been transferred to Calif., according to Mrs. Liesegang, who returned Saturday from a brief visit with him at the camp.

Garden Club Has Meeting

The "Out for Victory" Garden club met on March 12th at the home of the leader. The tomato seeds that were planted February 27 and which are now just coming up, were discussed. New songs and yells for the club were also discussed. After an enjoyable time the meeting adjourned and refreshments served.
