LOCALS

Mrs. H. K. Iverson and son Dean are spending this week with relatives and friends in Portland.

Mrs. Rena Waterman returned from Portland where she had made her home for the winter.

Mr. and Mrs. W. G. Kersbergen spent from Friday till Sunday on a business trip in Portland.

Mrs. Laura Mortimer left Saturday for Portland where she will be the guest of her daughter and family.

Mr. and Mrs. Johnnie Bray are the proud parents of a baby boy, Thomas Edward, born March 22 at the Hermiston General Hospital.

Miss Opal Barlow, who has been working as a Nurse Aide at the local hospital, is spending a few days visiting relatives in Southern Idaho.

Mrs. George Graham and baby came this week from Sunnyside, Wn., to visit her parents, Mr. and Mrs. George Harris, for several weeks.

Thelma Aulton, an employee of the Hermiston General Hospital, accompanied her husband on a business trip into Idaho this week.

Cpl. Myrl H. Hughes arrived Thursday night to spend a few days with his sister, Mrs. H. G. McCulley. He is stationed at Harrington, Kansas, where he plays in an Air Force band.

Clyde Hebert, who has been a guard at the U. O. D. for about a year, was taken to the U. O. D. hospital Monday morning with a severe attack of the flu and possibly pneumonia.

E. R. Buzzard received word Tuesday that his son, Creston Buzzard, has successfully passed physical examinations for the U. S. Navy and is now stationed at Camp Farragut, Ida.

The Four-H boys and girls of the Westland district are putting on a play at the Grange at an open meeting soon. The date will be announced at a later date.

Mr. Steiner, D. A. Campbell, Mr. Sisson, Clarence Medlack of Heppner, Mrs. Florence Sink and little baby Gethcell are patients at the local hospital, according to information given The Herald.

Mr. and Mrs. Vernon Backus announce the arrival of a baby boy weighing 8 pounds 1 ounce, born Tuesday at the Hermiston General Hospital. The little fellow was named Frank Lee and he is their second child.

Misses Rebekah and Dorothy Pierson, daughters of Mr. and Mrs. K. D. Pierson, have purchased a new home from Interstate Homes, Inc., located on Hermiston avenue. The girls moved into their new home Tuesday of this week.

O. C. Pierce, manager of the Farm Bureau Mill, is in Portland this week attending to business matters for that concern. Mrs. Pierce recently spent a week in Portland visiting her mother and also her daughter, Miss Marion Pierce.

Fred Gooch, formerly of Hermiston, who was recently taken into the service, has been sent to the Ordnance Replacement Training Center, Aberdeen Proving Ground, Md., where he will receive his basic training as an Ordnance soldier.

Announcement is being made of the sale by Ray Null to Frank Young of the 38-acre Null ranch southwest of Hermiston. A total of 22 acres are under irrigation. The Youngs also recently purchased the former George Strohm property southwest of town.

Fanny Lou Ghormley, 14-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Ghormley, underwent an operation for appendicitis at St. Anthony's hospital in Pendleton this week. Her father, who is manager of Saylor's department store here, states that she is getting along nicely.

A baby daughter, Dixie Lee, 7 lbs. 7 oz., was born Friday to Staff Sgt. and Mrs. Bruce Giddens at the Hermiston General Hospital. Mrs. Giddens is a daughter of Mrs. J. S. Burnham and Dixie Lee is Mrs. Burnham's first grandchild. Staff Sgt. Giddens is now stationed with the armed forces somewhere near London.

Mrs. O. O. Felthouse accompanied Mrs. Barbara West, Miss Bonnie Stewart and Mrs. Sims Baker to La Grande Saturday to spend Sunday with relatives. All returned Sunday evening except Mrs. Baker who returned to her home in Weiser, Idaho. She had been visiting a week at the home of her sister, Mr. and Mrs. O. O. Felthouse.

R. C. Todd, one of Hermiston's older men who are still able to be up and around, this week moved to the Hermiston Hotel after staying at the local hospital for the past five months. Mr. Todd delights in talking with his cronies on Main street and always has a cheery word for all his friends.

Aviation Ordnance Mate Anson enlisted in the Navy in Spokane, Wash., August 20, 1943. Having completed his schooling in aviation ordnance, he will now be transferred to a naval unit afloat or to another shore station for further instruction and work.

CHARLES HUNT IS ON GROUND CREW

Northern Ireland, AAF Eighth Composite Command Station — Less publicized, but equally as important as the flyers who actually bomb German targets in the pre-invasion onslaught on Europe, are the AAF ground crews.

Among the technical crews, who buttress the men who fly, is Private First Class Charles L. Hunt, 29, whose mother, Mrs. A. M. Hunt, resides at Stanfield, and who is an auto mechanic at this base. He entered the Army two years ago and prior to then was a farmer.

He has a brother, Lawrence J. Hunt, in the AAF and his wife also resides in Stanfield.

"Then Simon Peter answered him, Lord, to whom shall we go? Thou hast the words of eternal life. And we believe and are sure that thou art that Christ, the Son of the living God."

SAYLOR'S

MISS RITCHIE TO ENTER COLLEGE

Miss Kay Joyce Ritchie, daughter of Mrs. Anna Ritchie of Hermiston, left Tuesday evening for Seattle, Wash., where she will enter Seattle College for the spring quarter. Miss Ritchie studied dramatics at the Cornish School and with Laura Whitmore of the University of Washington last year. At Seattle College she plans to major in literature. The College is a Jesuit institution.

Miss Ritchie has been employed at the Behrman Jewelry store for the past several months.

Youth Director To Speak

Miss Lois Tompkins, assistant director of Christian Religious Education, youth division, will supply the pulpit in the Baptist church Sunday morning. This talented young lady is an inspiration to young and old alike. Miss Tompkins will be at the Youth Conference Sunday evening between the hours of 7 and 8. The evening worship service will be in charge of Miss Isabelle Gates, Christian Friendliness Missionary. Those who heard her inspiring message last Sunday will welcome an opportunity to hear her again. Following the evening service a fellowship hour will be observed. Special music and refreshments will be features of this meeting.

Westland Grange Honors Alstott

The Westland Grange is sponsoring a farewell party Friday night, March 24, honoring Don Alstott, who is leaving soon for the armed service. Thursday night (today), the Home Economics club will meet at the home of Mrs. Elmer Watson.

Wayne Morse
REPUBLICAN
FOR U. S. SENATE

Paid adv., Morse for Senator Committee
Ralph D. Moore, Corbett Bldg., Portland, Ore.

Awake, ye sinners. God gave His only Son,
To whosoever believes—to each and every one;
And Jesus died upon the Cross for you and me—
He gave His life, so that Christians might be free.

Arise, ye sinners! Tomorrow may be too late!
Stop drinking, stop cursing, and do not wait;
Stop gambling, and living in temptation and sin;
Without our Christ Jesus, one cannot win.

Repent, cease from evil, and be born again;
Put your heart in God's trustworthy hand;
He will surely guide you through every trial;
Oh, pray and trust our Lord all the while.

Go forth, ye Christians, throughout the world!
Carry the banner of Christ, from birth to burial;
If we stand for Him all along life's highway,
How happy will be the Judgment Day!
