WITH RATION TOKENS

That's why we can now serve you twice as quickly and efficiently on all point rationed foods.

It takes less time to shop at Stone's these days—thanks to RATION TOKENS. They save many shopping hours because you—and we—have 60% fewer stamps to handle. This means that we are able to give you efficient service in just about half the time required under the old system. Stone's clerks are familiar with token shopping. Let them help you with point rationed foods.

IRRIGON NEWS ITEMS

By Mrs. Grace Shoun

Memorial services were held in the school gym Friday at 2 p. m. by the Rev. E. R. Schneider for Kenneth LeRoy Fraser, before a nice crowd of relatives and friends. Mr. Fraser was killed by the blast at the Ordnance depot on March 21st, 1944. He leaves a wife and four children. Elton, 17, Clara, James and Maxine. He was a kind and loving father. He was born at Taloga, Oklahoma, October 27, 1903. He married Ellen Riley in May, 1926. He had been employed at the Ordnance depot since it started. His father, D. M. Fraser, and two brothers, Everett and Elmer, and a sister Opal Forest of Kendrick, Idaho, and two sisters, Mrs. Verna Allen of Walla Walla and Mrs. Mabel Corus of Clarkston, Wash., and an aunt, Mrs. Flora Lenhart and uncle, Earl Rucco were here for the funeral. Mrs. Edward Houghton and son Bruce of New Jersey are visitor her husband's family, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Houghton.

Rev. and Mrs. Brick of Kennewick are coming to Irrigon Tuesday to preach in the Pentecostal church. They are starting a revival meeting here Tuesday evening.

The teachers left for the week end. Mrs. Rado went to Portland, Miss Larkin to Monroe, Mrs. Edith Mathews to Ione and Virginia Taylor to Lewiston. They all returned in time for school Monday. The school year has been shortened, so school will be out by May 5th. The time of school during the day has been lengthened.

There is to be a social gathering Saturday evening for Calvin Allen.

Carl Haddock is farming the Herman Dues place.

The weather now seems more like Irrigon weather.

Clarence Fredrickson, who has been off the Alaskan coast for several months, is home on a 30-day leave visiting his parents, the F. C. Fredricksons and other relatives.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Reynolds of Vancouver are visiting his niece, Mrs. Ora Thompson and family.

Calvin Allen is to be in Pendleton April 5th to report for the navy.

Adren Allen left for The Dalles where he is working after spending Sunday here.

Mrs. H. W. Grim left for Redmond Tuesday to visit her father, George Hux, and her sisters Maud and Dora who live there.

Pvt. Wm. Volle left for McRoberts, Calif., after spending his furlough with his family here.

Mrs. Edith Pucket of Portland is visiting her sister, Mrs. Athol Haddock.
