HERMISTON METHODIST CHURCH

Walter A. MacArthur, Minister
"The Spirit of Christian Worship" will be the theme of this Sunday morning's worship hour at 11 o'clock. Following the death and resurrection of Christ, what form of worship was established by the early church? How have grown in our interpretation of worship? Just what is worship and how can we worship? These are a few of the questions that have been asked regarding modern worship, and will determine the course of the remarks in this service. A detailed explanation of the new chancel of the church will also be a part of this worship hour. If you have no other church home, we invite you to come and worship with us.

Other services: Church School at 10 a. m.; Youth Fellowship at 6:30 p. m.; Young Adults Tuesday at 7:30 p. m.

SAYLOR'S

MRS. SHAAR IS LOCAL VISITOR

Mrs. William M. Shaar of Los Angeles visited earlier in the week with Hermiston friends, following a trip to Walla Walla where she was called by the death of her mother, Mrs. J. C. Bains. Funeral services for Mrs. Bains were held Good Friday in Walla Walla. Mrs. Shaar returned to Walla Walla Wednesday and from there will return to Los Angeles. Her husband, former Hermiston barber, did not make the trip here.

Mrs. Shaar stated that "Bill" is enjoying fine health and has almost completely recovered from a stroke he suffered while still in business here. Mrs. Shaar stated that he wished to be remembered to all his Hermiston friends.

BRIEF SHOWERS ARE LIFE SAVERS

Citizens who were beginning to get worried about their lawns this week, were greatly relieved when intermittent showers and cloudy weather saved the situation. Although irrigation was available in some parts, no water was received in town east of the tracks due to a break in the K line east of Hermiston.

The report for the week follows:

Date	Max.	Min.
April 5	67	46
April 6	67	26
April 7	66	43
April 8	63	41
April 9	67	40
April 10	67	40
April 11	64	45

A total of .20 in. rainfall was recorded up to Wednesday.

BREEDER POOL IS SET FOR APRIL 24

The local plant of the Eastern Oregon Turkey Growers will again open for business Monday, Apr. 24, according to C. A. Flannigan, picking manager. The pool will be for breeder hens and will probably last for several days.

Pickers should either show up for duty April 24 or contact Mr. Flannigan, phone 2627, prior to that time. It is thought that about 3000 birds or more will be processed at this time.
