Voters Must Register By Next Tuesday

Registration of voters for the primaries May 19th will be closed April 18th—next Tuesday. Any voter desiring to have a voice in the selection of candidates for the Fall election must get his name on the poll books the next few days. The law does not provide for swearing in on primary day. Only about 200 new voters have registered the last few weeks and there are at least 1000 who should do so.

Several important contests in both parties are before the people. Of particular interest are the candidates for two United States Senators. Do you Republicans want to vote for Charles A. Sprague or Guy Cordon for the four year term and do you want to vote for Rufus C. Holman or Wayne Morris for the six year term? Do you Democrats want to vote for Edgar W. Smith or Walter W. Whitbeck for the six year term? Your Willis Mahoney has no opposition for the four year term.

On the ballot in May will be other state and district and county candidates that may interest you. It costs nothing to register and when election day comes you will be able to exercise the greatest privilege under the democracy for which we are fighting.

Some home owners are cleaning up their premises. Around other homes are still old dry weeds, leaves and trash. In no better way can good citizenship and civic pride be shown than in the front and back yard. Incidentally, a trim place shows more decent respect and a better example for your next door neighbor.

Wendell Willkie has withdrawn his name from the Oregon primaries. On the primary ballot will be 15 names for delegates, with seven to be elected, to the Chicago Republican convention—and strange to say, all are from the Portland area except one. He is from Hermiston and he still stands for a liberal Republican platform and is against the isolationists—and the old guard politicians—who may have upset their kettle of fish by stopping Willkie.

Year after year G. C. Humphreys (The Old Maestro) turns out fine bands at Hermiston high school. This year's group is certainly no exception. Two excellent outside performances — at the U. O. D. Monday and in Umatilla Thursday — is a fine record and the whole community is proud of their accomplishment.

Hold on to your tire inspection records although periodic examinations of tires on passenger automobiles will be discontinued after April 20. You'll still need the record for gasoline rationing.
