Mary Margaret Kennedy, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Kennedy of Umatilla; Lillian Kitty Meyer, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. August Meyer of Freewater, and Mary Frances Perry, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James B. Perry of Hermiston will receive their Teacher Training Diplomas at the commencement exercises to be held at E. O. C. E. at La Grande Friday.

Mrs. L. L. Olmstead of St. Marys, Ida., has been here for a week visiting Mrs. S. L. Carson, her sister-in-law.

Private First Class Harry Peterson, formerly of Hermiston, has been selected to attend the Enlisted Full Track Vehicle course of the Field Artillery School at Fort Sill, Okla. Private Peterson is the son of Mr. and Mrs. P. C. Peterson of Lexington.

Mrs. Leander Quiring and Sylvia Lee are spending this week in Salem with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Bone.

Mrs. Lavetta Archer, formerly of Hermiston and a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Wilson of the Columbia district, is with the Waves in New York and writes that she likes the work very much. She does not expect to return until six months after the war.

The Westland Dairy club met at the home of their leader, Mrs. Jack Rich, this week. A business meeting was held and later refreshments of jello and cookies were served. A nice time was reported.

Cpl. Wayne Lindner, son of Mr. and Mrs. H. F. Lindner of Hermiston, has spent the past week in Hermiston visiting relatives and friends. Cpl. Lindner is with the Air Corps and has recently been stationed in New York City. He has been in the service since February, 1943.

Staff Sgt. and Mrs. Robert Mardock spent several days this week visiting in Hermiston. Staff Sgt. Mardock is a son of Mrs. H. V. McGee. They left Tuesday for San Francisco where he is stationed with the Air Corps.

The Hermiston Altar Society will sponsor a cooked food sale at the Rohrman Motor Co. show room on Friday, May 19.

The Hermiston Girl Scout Leaders' club honored Miss Helen Thomas on Wednesday evening at a party held at the home of Mrs. H. H. Gailey. Miss Thomas, who is leaving soon for Portland, was the recipient of a gift. Prizes were given to Mrs. T. J. Means and Mrs. Howard Graham as writers of winning papers on "Etiquette". During the evening a business meeting was held and piano solos were presented by Duane Gailey ("Ghost in a Haunted Room") and Miss Ruth Means played "Finlandia". Refreshments were served later in the evening.

Alton Sisson and Jim Boylen, Seamen Third Class, who have just recently completed their six weeks boot camp training at Camp Farragut arrived home Sunday to spend a 15-day furlough. At the completion of their stay here they will return to Camp Farragut for assignment. Other local boys, including Jack Reeves and Don Allstott, are expected home this week end.

Mr. and Mrs. Arnold Weber and Miss Florence Kukral of Washington, D. C., spent Saturday evening in Pendleton.

Girl Scout Brownie Group 5 and its leader, Mrs. H. H. Gailey, and assistant leader, Mrs. J. M. McClard, picnicked at the McClard home Saturday. Members of the troop committee present were Mrs. Frank Hacker and Miss Irene Brown.

Rev. C. Warner, pastor of the Central Church of Christ, has returned from a two weeks evangelistic meeting with the church at Cheney, Wash., and will be in his own pulpit again Sunday morning.

Miss Florence Kukral of Washington, D. C., is spending two weeks at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Arnold Weber while she is doing clerical work at the U.O.D.

Mr. and Mrs. Jess Connor entertained at a dinner Tuesday evening, honoring her daughter and son-in-law, Capt. and Mrs. W. J. Purvis of Davenport, Iowa. Covers were placed for Capt. and Mrs. Purvis, Miss Elizabeth Wilson, Mrs. Opal Howard, Mrs. O. F. Steele and Mr. and Mrs. Jess Connor.

Mrs. J. R. Huffman returned Tuesday from a ten day flying trip to Grass Valley, Calif., where she visited her brother, Major L. K. Hartchrong, who is stationed at Camp Beale. Mrs. Huffman took the plane from Pendleton and flew to San Francisco where she continued on by bus to Grass Valley. Mrs. L. K. Hartchrong returned with Mrs. Huffman and will be her guest for several weeks.

Miss Lewine Fix, daughter of Mrs. Jess Connor, was married to Capt. William J. Purvis, son of Mr. and Mrs. W. E. J. Purvis of Davenport, Iowa, on May 11, at Davenport while Capt. Purvis was on a 32-day leave. He had just returned from dive bombing missions in the Tunician, Sicilian and Italian campaigns. Capt. and Mrs. Purvis drove out from Davenport and arrived in Pendleton Sunday

Killers in the chicken house?
STANDARD POULTRY HOUSE SPRAY
Gits 'em!

Load up the spray gun with Standard Poultry House Spray and go hunting in the chicken house for mites, ticks, fleas, flies. Lay down a barrage, douse the crevices, even the outside if the house is heavily infested. You'll kill plenty of parasites instantly—and get the rest later. That's because Standard Poultry House Spray penetrates, stays active for days, ready to kill young mites and ticks as they drop from birds. Standard Poultry House Spray is economical, persistent, leaves no grease to stain eggs or feathers.

TROOP TWO HAS FAREWELL PARTY

The members of Girl Scout Troop 2 entertained their leader, Miss Thomas, at a farewell party Wednesday, May 10, at the USO. A program was given at which time requirements for second class ratings were completed.

Second class badges were presented to Leeta Carr, Dorothy King, Dorothy Olson, Beverly Barker, Joyce Fagan, Jennie Busler, Doris Williams, Louise Belt and Patricia Wilcox.

The girls played games, sang songs, and told their plans for the summer. At their next meeting they will have a Hobby Show and election of officers. During vacation they will continue their meetings and work on the badge requirements. Troop 2 presented Miss Thomas a gift and expressed thanks to her for her leadership of their group.

Below is a list of the eleven senior students who have earned the most
