MARRIAGE RITES ARE REVEALED

At a wedding attended by family and close friends on Friday, June 30, Miss Elizabeth Louise (Betty) Britton of Oakland, Calif., daughter of Mrs. Edward Britton of Portland and the late Mr. Britton, was married to Sgt. George P. Sale Jr., U. S. Army Air Forces, son of Mr. and Mrs. Geo. P. Sale of Stanfield. The ceremony was performed by Dr. Guy Goodsell, Supt. of Portland district of the Methodist church, at Miss Britton's home on 84th Avenue in Portland, before an alcove arranged with white gladioli and candelabra. W. P. Hunter of Vancouver, Wash., gave his niece in marriage.

The bride wore a floor length dress of white lace and net and carried a white prayer book with a shower of gardenias and bouvardia. She was attended by her sister-in-law, Mrs. Robert Britton of Longview, Wash., who wore a dress of pastel pink lace and carried a colorful pink, white and blue bouquet. Joan Marie and Robert Edward Britton carried the wedding rings on long-stemmed white roses.

Best man for Sgt. Sale was Robert Britton. Receiving wedding guests at the door were Paxton Hunter of Vancouver, and Donald E. Thomas of Salem. A buffet supper was served at the close of the ceremony for members of the wedding party and guests. Storekeeper 3/c Frances Courteau, sister of the groom, cut the wedding cake and Mrs. Donald E. Thomas, another sister of the groom, poured. Friends of the young people were invited to greet them later in the evening.

Both Sgt. and Mrs. Sale have been leaders in activities of the Methodist church and the Oregon Council of Churches. Mrs. Sale is a graduate of Reed College and at the time of her marriage was executive of the Business and Professional department in the Oakland YWCA. Sgt. Sale is well known in Hermiston and Stanfield. Mr. and Mrs. Sale Sr. attended their son's wedding. The young couple have returned to California.

STANFIELD NEWS

By Mrs. Rose Hedrick

Of interest to Stanfield friends was the marriage of George Sale, son of Mr. and Mrs. George Sale, to Miss Betty Britton at her home in Portland on June 30 at 5 p. m. She was given in marriage by her uncle W. P. Hunter of Vancouver, and she is the daughter of Mrs. Edward Britton. Only relatives attended. Miss Britton was engaged in Y.W.C.A. work in Oakland while Sgt. Sale was a technician in the signal corps of the army air force.

Mrs. Mabel Richards spent the three day holiday with her daughter, Mrs. Alfred Lantz in Portland.

Mrs. Don Childs and children enjoyed their holidays at Hildaway Springs.

Mr. and Mrs. Ed Emerson, Betty Lou and Jean Hodgson spent the holidays at Bingham Springs.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Duncan drove to Hanford on June 30, commemorating their sixteenth wedding anniversary.

Miss Mildred Mollsted of Pendleton spent the 4th at home in Stanfield.

Mr. and Mrs. L. E. Hughes and Beverly spent the 4th in the country at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Magnus Hughes.

The dedication services for Stanfield's service flag Sunday, July 2, were well attended and much praised.

About forty attended the shower on June 30 honoring Mrs. Don Sikes. The program included games with prizes given to Mrs. Wiley Hewitt and Mrs. C. E. Fisk. The music was furnished by Mrs. Max Piger of Hermiston.

Mrs. Mabel Richards gave a humorous reading. Ice cream and cake and ice tea were served by Mrs. Paul Baker, assisted by Mrs. Ernest Greathouse and others.

Mrs. Hans Ryning of Seattle and Karen Ann are visiting at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Fredrecksen.

Mr. and Mrs. Bob Carleton of Hood River visited his mother, Mrs. Esther Strasser over the holidays.

Stanfield Public Library has for its annual report ending June 30: adult circulation of books and magazines, 3463; and children, 1110, totaling 4573, which is 1809 less than last year, probably due to the removal of the 101 trailer houses, many of whom were registered and are still readers at a very good library opened up for them a year ago at Ordance. Readers registered this year were 71 while last year it totaled 137. The librarian announces a story hour for any of the younger children who arrive at the library before 3 o'clock. Summer hours are library open from 3 to 6 on Wednesday and Saturday.

Mrs. Marie Evans and Normie of Vernonia spent a week here recently visiting relatives.

Mr. and Mrs. Tom Bagan of Eugene visited friends here the Fourth of July.

CORONER'S JURY CHARGES CRIME

son appeared on the witness stand Wednesday night before the coroner's jury. County Coroner Folsom was in charge of the hearing with District Attorney A. C. McIntyre doing the questioning. Present also were Sheriff Bob Goad and Mr. O'Neill of the county sheriff's office. The hearing was held at Prann's Parlors. The case is now in the hands of county authorities for further action.

The deceased is survived by his widow and two children. He had been employed on the DePont project near Hanford, living with his family in Richland.

CENTRAL CHURCH OF CHRIST

C. Warner, Pastor

The sermon topic for Sunday morning will be "He Lives". Ben Gerking, a student of Northwest Christian college, will sing, "He Lives." The convention delegates will be in charge of the evening service, giving reports of the state convention.

The general council meeting for July will be held on Wednesday of next week.

The Red Side in the recent contest will give to the Whites, a picnic at the Columbia park following the church service.
