LOCALS

Miss Blaine Noble entered the Hermiston General hospital Monday for medical treatment.

Mrs. R. E. Alstott, who is a pneumonia patient at the Hermiston General hospital since Monday, is improving.

Miss Mary Jean (Jinky) Wilson, daughter of Mrs. Jean Wilson of Hermiston, who is attending St. Paul's school in Walla Walla, has been named class representative on the Athletic Council, apparently still being active in her favorite extra-curricular activity.

Mr. and Mrs. Paul Van Patten and daughter Ilene of La Grande arrived Thursday of last week and spent until Monday visiting relatives and friends here.

Miss Doris Duncan, en route to O. S. C. to attend school, was taken quite ill from the bus Sunday to the Hermiston General hospital until she was sufficiently recovered to go on.

Mrs. Cecil Colpitts is visiting in Hermiston with her mother-in-law Mrs. Nora Colpitts. The former's husband is with the armed forces somewhere in New Guinea. Frank Colpitts, another son of Mrs. Colpitts, is also with the armed forces and was recently reported as wounded in action somewhere in France. His condition was reported as "not serious".

Two sons of the F. W. Lenz family who are in the armed forces arrived home this week for visits. Fred A., who is with the U. S. Army in Alabama, and Martin J., U. S. Navy, stationed in Kentucky, are enjoying a visit with relatives and friends.

Word has been received here that a baby daughter, Alfreda Ann was born to First Lt. and Mrs. Alfred Emert at Seymour, Tenn., on August 11. The father has been listed as missing over France since July 4.

Guests in Hermiston last week were Mr. and Mrs. H. A. Pankow and son Allan of Seattle. Mr. Pankow was formerly chief of police here but has been connected with the Intelligence department of that city. They plan to move to California in the near future where Mr. Pankow will be employed.

Mrs. Golda Myrick wishes to thank all her neighbors and friends who were helpful in controlling the flames which destroyed a bunk house on her farm east of Hermiston Tuesday night about 9:30. Had it not been for this help, the fire would have spread to the house, barn and other buildings.

Mrs. W. A. Emert and daughter Pat Emert returned Tuesday night from Seymour, Tenn., where they had been called early in July by news that their son, First Lt. Alfred Emert, was missing over France. The latter's wife resides at Seymour. While there they also visited with Mrs. Emert's brother, B. C. Ogle at Knoxville, Tenn., and also other East Tennessee relatives and friends. En route home they stopped in Chicago to visit friends. No further news of the missing flyer has been heard.

Little Shirley Ann Huffman, 2-years-old, was a tonsilectomy patient Thursday of last week.

Miss Edna Faure of Ritzville, Wash., was a visitor in Hermiston over the week end, taking in the Roundup in Pendleton Friday and Saturday.

News has been received by Mrs. Georgia Henderson that Mr. and Mrs. Bob Henderson of St. Paul, Minn., are the parents of a baby girl. This makes three girls in the Henderson family.

Mrs. Bob Beebe is employed as bookkeeper at the Inland Cooperative during the absence of Miss Rebecca Pierson, who is ill.

Mrs. Mike Demianew returned to her home Wednesday after having been a patient at the Hermiston General hospital for a week.

Arlie Townsend, Seaman 1/c, and wife and daughter stopped off here Tuesday for a day's visit with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Orvan Townsend and family. Arlie was en route to Bremerton, Wash., and expects overseas assignment in the near future.

Mrs. Glen Rutherford of Petaluma, Calif., has spent the past two weeks visiting here with her mother, Mrs. Ina Whitney. Both Mrs. Rutherford and Mrs. Whitney left by bus Thursday for Portland to visit friends.

Robert Culver is a patient at the Hermiston General hospital from a severe heart attack.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. M. Wilson of Irrigon have sold their home there to Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Ames of Antelope. Mr. and Mrs. Wilson are now making their home at Victory Square.

Floyd Coxen, Seaman 2nd class, has been named to attend a Laundry School at Washington, D. C., and has entered this phase of training in the U. S. Navy. He was home on leave about 45 days ago with his family here.

Mrs. Dorothy McCullough Lee of Portland was an over night guest at the home of Dr. and Mrs. F. B. Belt. Mrs. Lee, Commissioner of Public Utilities, was en route to Pendleton to attend the Round Up.

Miss Rebecca Pierson, bookkeeper at the Inland Cooperative, was taken to the local hospital for observation Tuesday night and Wednesday morning taken to Walla Walla for further treatment. Her case had not been diagnosed at latest reports.

Mrs. Emma Ripley, a patient at the local hospital for two weeks, is improving.

Guests at the O. C. Pierce home over the week end were Miss Marion Pierce, their daughter, Roberta Elliott, Sally Sievers, Phyllis Kerr, Avis Durst and Phyllis Roberts. The former four had come earlier in the week to spend some time at Bingham Springs and to take in the Round Up. The latter two came just for the Round Up with the entire group coming to Hermiston Sunday. The girls are employed in various offices in Portland and were enjoying a vacation from their duties.

Mr. and Mrs. Jack House of Portland are announcing the birth of a son born September 8 at a Portland hospital. He has been named Donald Grant, and weighed 7 pounds at birth. He is a grandson of J. L. House and great-grandson of Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Bailey of Hermiston.

Dr. J. P. Stewart, eyesight specialist of Pendleton, will be at the Hermiston Hotel on Wednesday, September 27, between the hours of 10:00 a. m. and 5:00 p. m. adv.

A very pleasant time was had Sunday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. C. S. Ratliff of the Stanfield project. The occasion was the birthday anniversary of Mrs. Ratliff and her sister, Mrs. Philip Boggs. A buffet dinner was served to Mr. and Mrs. George Hodge of the Columbia district, Mr. and Mrs. F. A. Corneille of Ordinance and Mr. and Mrs. Philip Boggs. The honorees received many lovely gifts.

Reuben Patch, who has been a welder at the Richmond, Calif., shipyards for the past year, arrived home last week Thursday to visit his parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Patch near the Cold Springs reservoir. He expects to remain a month or so.

BURRELS MOVE TO CALIFORNIA

Mr. and Mrs. L. S. Burrell and son Billy left Sunday for Napa, Calif., where they will make their home. They have purchased a fountain and candy shop in Napa which they plan to operate. En route they will stop in Portland to pick up Mr. Burrell's mother, Mrs. Charlotte Burrell, who will accompany them to Napa to live.

The Burrells have resided in Hermiston for about eight years, being affiliated with the schools here during much of that time. Mr. Burrell was principal in the Junior High for a number of years and Mrs. Burrell had charge of the cafeteria at the high school. The past year Mr. Burrell has been parts man at the Hermiston Auto Co.

They have sold their new home here to Mr. and Mrs. Victor Addeleman who will move in immediately.

Sunday—September 24: Worship service with sermon, 2 p. m., "Confessing Christ" will be the sermon subject; Sunday School at 3:00 p. m.; Evening service at 8:00 p. m.

Wednesday—September 27, the 7:30 p. m. prayer meeting with Bible study will be held. At this service we begin studying Galatians. The midweek services are a real blessing to all who attend.

We are glad for the number of men attending our Sunday services, and extend a cordial invitation, not only to men, but to all. If you enjoy plain, old-fashioned gospel preaching, you will enjoy our services, and you will meet with a warm welcome.

"Then Simon Peter answered him, Lord, . . . thou hast the words of eternal life. And we believe and are sure that thou art that Christ, the Son of the living God."
