Mrs. O. O. Felthouse left Thursday morning (today) for Weiser, Idaho, to spend a week or so visiting her mother.

Attention—Avon Customers! A new representative is handling the Avon products Inc. Mrs. Alice Woodward will gladly serve your needs. Thanking you for the patronage and courtesy shown to me in the past. Mrs. Cere' Beaver, ad.

Dan C. Bartlett, who was injured some months ago in an explosion at the Umatilla Ordnance Depot and has been in McCaw Hospital in Walla Walla since that time, arrived late Wednesday to spend the remainder of the week here with his wife.

Little John Donner was treated at the local hospital Friday and Saturday from having the rare experience of drinking fuel oil.

Lt. Elbert Moore and his wife and son Guy are spending this week in Hermiston, visiting his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Sam Moore, and her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Sherman Wells. Lt. Moore is now stationed in California with the air forces.

Pfe. Bill Belt, son of Dr. and Mrs. F. B. Belt, writes from France that he is receiving the Herald and is showing the natives of France the Hermiston weekly, asking for their comments. Bill writes, "This confounded weather is just like Oregon's—except there I was living inside like a white man." Bill promises a "speedy victory".

Tom O'Grady entered the Hermiston General hospital Sunday and is being treated for injuries received in an accident.

Karl Krause, Mo. MM 2/c, writes from the U. S. Naval Hospital in Seattle that he has recently been hospitalized because of stomach trouble. "I've lived around Hermiston or 20 years and always read your paper, and can't get along without it now." His condition is not considered serious.

John Knox, Radioman 2nd class, who has just returned from 18 months spent overseas with the U. S. Navy, visited with friends in Hermiston Thursday. He has spent most of that time on the Hawaiian Islands. He developed hay fever and was returned to the States for that reason.

Little Jerry Walker, son of Mr. and Mrs. Woodrow Walker, entered the Hermiston General hospital Tuesday and is being treated for pneumonia.

Dale Elwood, Seaman second class, arrived home last week to visit his wife and baby, and also his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Lee Elwood. Dale has just finished boot camp training at Camp Farragut, Idaho, and will return there soon for assignment.

Mrs. Guy Park was a medical patient at the Hermiston General hospital from Saturday till Tuesday.

Ramon Beatty and a guest, Mr. Skelley, spent the week end in Hermiston, spending much of the time pheasant hunting. The former is manager of the local office of Pacific Power & Light company but has spent the past several weeks working in the Walla Walla office.

Owen Dunning, head musician of the KOIN radio station in Portland, arrived early Thursday morning for several days visit with his brother, Ed Dunning. The former plans to participate in pheasant hunting while here. It is becoming an annual trip for him.

WEATHER TURNS SOME COOLER

The past week has seen some typical hunting weather, with the nights turning quite cool and the middle of the days rather warm. No rain has fallen during the past six days but a total of .15 inch rainfall was recorded last Thursday, October 12, according to Chas. Taylor, city weather man.

The figures follow:

Date	Max.	Min.
October 11	78	37
October 12	76	46
October 13	71	46
October 14	74	49
October 15	73	39
October 16	73	37
October 17	74	36

FOUR-H AWARDS ARE LISTED

National 4-H club activities and awards offer opportunities for outstanding club members of county and state. Winning records submitted to the county extension office are forwarded to the state office where the state winner is selected. Records must be in the state office by October 20.

Outstanding business firms have made possible the awards and scholarships that are offered. A few are listed here. The national clothing contest is sponsored by the Spool Cotton Company of New York. The national canning contest is sponsored by the Kerr Glass Manufacturing Company of Oklahoma. The food preparation contest is sponsored by the Servel, Inc., of Indiana. Montgomery Ward of Chicago offers a contest for the best long time record. The national dress revue contest is sponsored by the American Viscose Corporation of New York. The President of the United States and National Committee on Boys and Girls Club

Work offers an award for Achievement.

It is hoped that more Umatilla County 4-H club members will look forward to taking part in these available contests another year. Special standard report forms must be secured from the county extension office in each contest.
