BULLDOG STAFF PARTY ENJOYED

(From the Bulldog)
A very successful school party was given last Friday night when the Bulldog Staff sponsored a Halloween Masquerade Dance. This was the first party of its kind to be given in many years.

Out of the many different costumed guests, Ann Piersol, dressed in a red and white clown suit was selected as the best dressed girl and Charlie Laurie, portraying the typical harem beauty, was chosen as the best dressed boy. They led the Grand March and served as honored judges for the amateur program which followed immediately. Others whose costumes received honorable mention were Barbara Jean Woodard who was dressed as a very charming old-fashioned lady, Dora Lee Paul who was a little Negro gal, and those two mysterious unknowns who turned out to be none other than Miss Nilsen and Miss Norsby.

Those students taking part in the entertaining, if somewhat hilarious amateur show were as follows:

- Willie Neal sang, "As Time Goes By" and "Sweet Slumber".
- Muriel Kingsley and Kay Logan dueted on "Shine On Harvest Moon".
- Dick Belt gave his rendition of "Sugar Blues".
- Jimmy Linn, accompanied (?) by that "Master of the Ivories", Gene Allen, played several selections on his violin.
- Joy Strecker sang "Always".
- Arlene Brown tapped to "Darktown Strutter's Ball", accompanied by Kay Logan.
- Sybil Medlock and Paul Williams sang "It Had To Be You".
- Jimmy and Gene won 1st in this contest, Dick won 2nd and Joy placed 3rd and were awarded their prizes by the judges.

Following the program there was more dancing to the music of a recording set donated by the U. S. O. club, during which refreshments of cider and cookies were served at the "Witch's Bar", and the dance ended at 11:30.

The committees in charge of the affair were: Decorations—Chairman, Joy Reed, Dora Lee Paul, Mary Elizabeth Ferguson, Melba Kelly, Peggy Todd and Lois Elwood; Refreshments—Chairman, Ruth McCulley, Doris Ann Daugherty, Peggy Sommerer, Harriet Lind, and Ann Piersol; Entertainment—Chairman, Donna Jean Meyers, Cleda Nusser, Rosalie Hammer, Marian Andrews, and Barbara Jean Woodard; Music, Roy Anderson.
