COLUMBIA NEWS

Monday evening the Henry Wilson and H. G. McCulley families visited at the B. E. Getchell home. Delightful refreshments were served in honor of Mr. Getchell's birthday.

C. D. Shaw, who recently injured his back, is much improved and states anticipation for the time when he is completely recovered.

The Oliver Casteel family, who recently resided at the Grey place, have moved. Their new residence is not known.

Word has been received from Mrs. Alex Jones and small son Franklin that they enjoy their visit in Yuma, Colorado, where they are with relatives and friends.

Miss Gloria Hammer stayed with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. L. Hammer, Sunday and Monday.

Clifford Rucker Transferred

Clifford Lathrop Rucker, son of Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Rucker of Irrigon, has graduated from the Naval Air Technical Training at Memphis, Tenn., and will now be transferred to Gunner School, from which upon graduation he may be qualified as an Aircrewman. This will make it possible for him to wear the silver wings of the Aircrewmen. He enlisted March 1, 1944, at Spokane, Wash., and is a graduate of Irrigon high school.

STANFIELD NEWS

By Mrs. Rose Hedrick

Mr. and Mrs. Neil White from Pilot Rock came Sunday to celebrate the 84th birthday of their mother on November 6, and other children present were Mr. and Mrs. Vernon Waid and Jimmy Waid, Claude Waid and Miss Lena Waid.

Those attending Pomona Grange at the Hermiston fair grounds last Thursday were Mr. and Mrs. Roscoe Meyers, Mr. and Mrs. F. S. Green, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Herrick, Mrs. Tillery, all of Stanfield Grange. Mrs. Zivney took over a number of high school girls who pleased with two numbers. Mrs. Dena Tillery was elected secretary of Pomona. November 14 is election night at Stanfield Grange.

The Harmony club will have a special meeting at the Agnes Herrick home Wednesday, November 8, and worked on their "V" quilt which was begun at their last meeting. A pot luck dinner is planned.

Mahlon Dewing of the Coast Guard artillery since October 19, 1939, was killed in action on Friday, October 13, somewhere in Germany. He spent more than three years in Alaska and was home on furlough this year. He was herd from in southern United States and since was sent to England and soon in due time to the European theater of operations. The community extends their sympathy to Mr. and Mrs. Larry Dewing and Beryl Dewing, Mrs. Mac Donald, mother of Mahlon. This is the second loss of life this year for our part in World War II. Don Myers at Biak Island was the first casualty.

Mrs. William Reeves and sister, Miss Effie Pennock and Mrs. E. V. Gabriel left Tuesday night to spend a week in Portland, the latter to visit her daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Willard Conley, and Willard James Jr., their new grandson born October 26.

Stanfield women attending the fifth district convention at Pendleton November 2 were Mrs. William Reeves, Mrs. C. E. Fisk, Mrs. Ernest Greathouse, Mrs. John Peters, Mrs. Inez McCormick, Mrs. Julia Pheps, Mrs. N. Bard, Mrs. Paul Baker, Miss Elva Berry, Mrs. Fred Loughary and Mrs. Vivien Van Sickle.

Mr. and Mrs. C. B. Fischer and daughter Lois left Wednesday for their farm home at Payette, Idaho. Mrs. Fischer and Bonnie Lois were honored with a party and handkerchief shower in the church parlors Monday afternoon. Mrs. Lesser, Mrs. Platt and Mrs. Olday portrayed a humorous skit of family life. After singing and refreshments all departed wishing them good luck. They lived here two years and Mr. Fischer served as marshal for a while.

William Behme, known by all as Gap Behme, who with his wife and daughter Neva moved to Stanfield 11 years ago and conducted a grocery store until two years ago, sold his business to W. D. Gudgel and retired due to failing health, passed away at St. Anthony's hospital November 5, and the funeral was held at the Presbyterian church at Stanfield November 8, at two o'clock with Rev. E. N. Butenshon in charge. Music was also furnished by members from the Peace Lutheran church. Pallbearers were the following Odfellows: R. F. Evans, John Heckman, Martin Refvem, William Reeves, Claude McCall and Homer Hedrick. His sisters were here from Portland for the funeral. He was buried at Stanfield cemetery.

Chas. H. Burke was in Portland last week a few days on a buying trip.

Misses Berniece Hughes, Alice Hedrick, Eleanor Seaman, Coralie Mansker entertained at dinner at the Hedrick home Sunday evening honoring Bobby Rhea who is waiting his call to the army. Boys who came were Gilbert Smith, Billy Gilbert, and Johnny Hoffnagle and the honoree.

O. M. Hoosier was able to be brought home from Pendleton on Sunday following another stroke he had more than a week ago.

U. O. D. NEWS

The dispensary was quite bare Monday morning as both Elaine Leib and Clara Cunha were on the sick list.

Mr. and Mrs. Tommy Richardson and son "Smoky" of Hanford, Wash., visited Mr. and Mrs. Mike Nonne and Mr. and Mrs. Harold Rosenbaum in Hermiston over the week end.

Fiscal

La Vada Barnes is a new employee. Jessie Wilson transferred from the Guard Force to Fiscal.

Monday. To celebrate the occasion Walt Carlson's birthday was sion he brought a cake which he said he baked. The girls caught him looking in the container to see what kind he made. We wish you many more Happy Birthdays, Walt.

Box Factory

Albert Brock is a new employee. He was formerly employed in the West Area.

Dora Eaton was called to Vancouver, Wash., this week because of the serious illness of her father.

Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Berry of Portland were week end guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Marshall Marham and Mr. and Mrs. Russell McCoy. Mrs. Berry is a sister of Mrs. Markham and Mr. McCoy.

Vera Jaster who is attending E. O. C. at La Grande visited her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Jaster, over the week end.

Virl Willson is now janitor at the box factory.

Charles Rowland has a good reason to believe that a "bird in the hand is worth two in the bush". Recently Charles was hunting and shot a goose. It fell in the brush and from all appearances was a very "dead goose". About that time, Charles shot another goose and it fell into the brush, too. He went over to pick up the second goose, but when he got there it was gone. He thought he still had the first goose, but a search revealed "no goose".

Correction

Due to an error, the name of Alvin Nelsen was omitted from the winning team of the 45 service revolver match in last week's paper. Other members of the team were Homer Hayes, Frank Nelsen and Charles Hinton.
