

OASIS THEATRE

HERMISTON, OREGON
PHONE 2121

Fri.-Sat. Nov. 24-25

Sun.-Mon. Nov. 26-27

News and Comedy

Tues. - Wed. - Thurs.

Nov. 28 - 29 - 30

DOUBLE FEATURE

Lum & Abner

in

Goin' to Town

LOCALS

Mrs. Ina Whitney had a minor surgery Monday at the Hermiston hospital.

Mrs. D. H. Burnett, employed at the Moore & Ripley drug store, is ill with pneumonia at her home.

Dr. J. P. Stewart, eyesight specialist of Pendleton, will be at the Hermiston Hotel on Wednesday, November 29, between the hours of 10:00 a. m. and 5:00 p. m. 15-1c

Harry D. Proudfoot, Most Worshipful Grand Master of Masons, of Wasco, Oregon, was an over night guest at the home of Mr. and Mrs. O. O. Felthouse Tuesday.

Bonnie Gray of Pendleton entered the local hospital Wednesday for observation and medical care.

Lois Phelps, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Merle Phelps, had an appendectomy performed Monday at the Walla Walla general hospital.

Vernon Backus left Tuesday for Portland where he will undergo a physical to determine which branch of the service he will enter.

Mrs. Claude Wilcox and daughter Karen of Portland visited the past week at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Bill Kennings and at the home of Mr. Wilcox's parents, Mr. and Mrs. R. B. Wilcox.

Corp. Billy Nation, son of Mr. and Mrs. B. J. Nation, arrived home Sunday for a ten day visit here with parents, relatives and friends.

Corp. Nation is now stationed at DeWitt hospital, near Sacramento, Calif. This is his first furlough in some time.

W. A. Thomas of Lone, who was a patient at the Hermiston general hospital for a week and is 101 years old, was taken to the Walla Walla general hospital Tuesday by ambulance for surgery.

Floyd Coxen, Seaman First Class, left Sunday evening for San Francisco, Calif., to report for duty following a short stay in Hermiston with his family. He recently completed a laundry school in Washington, D. C.

Lt. and Mrs. Chas. E. Dunn of Great Falls, Mont., announce the arrival of a baby girl born November 20. The little miss weighed five pounds, 12 ounces and was named Sue Ellen. She is the first grandchild of Mr. and Mrs. Jess Connor and the great grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. O. F. Steele of Pendleton.

Delvin Backus, Chief Pharmacist Mate, U. S. Navy, of San Francisco arrived Friday to spend until Monday with his brother and family, Mr. and Mrs. Vernon Backus. The boys hadn't seen each other for over five years when he entered the Navy. He has been overseas for 25 months.

Mrs. Eleanor Kirkpatrick and daughter Kathy have returned to Seattle after spending a month visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. E. McCulley and sister, Mrs. A. E. Rugg and family. Mrs. McCulley accompanied them to Seattle for a two weeks visit. She will also visit her son and family, Ralph McCulley of Tacoma.

Cliff W. Brower of Portland was in Hermiston Tuesday investigating the city in regards to locating here. Mr. Brower is an attorney and recently been engaged in practice in Portland but is seeking to locate in a smaller community. He is unmarried but his mother is living with him and he would bring her to Hermiston should he locate here.

An early family Thanksgiving dinner was enjoyed at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Pierson this week honoring their son-in-law, Vernon Backus, who left Tuesday for induction into the armed forces. Covers were placed for Mr. and Mrs. Ted Pierson and three daughters of Heppner, Mr. and Mrs. Vernon Backus and two children, and Mr. and Mrs. Frank Pierson.

Mrs. H. E. Shesely, writing from Darby, Pa., to renew her subscription, states, "The Ernest Cox family live across the street from us, but I believe they are to be transferred again soon. We were only in New York for a week and it stormed every day, so we did very little sight seeing. Philadelphia is very interesting but we still prefer Oregon." The Shesleys formerly resided here and Mr. Shesely was employed at the Umatilla Ordnance Depot.

The 31st birthday of J. T. Ayers was celebrated last Thursday at his home when a number of relatives and friends gathered to wish him well. Present were Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Wattenburger, Mr. and Mrs. Roy Coxen, Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Coxen and children, Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Ayers and daughter Juanita, Mr. and Mrs. Roy Ayers and family, Mrs. Fred Rauch Jr., all of Hermiston, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Ayers of Stanfield, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Avers and family of Independence, Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Avers of Portland and Mr. and Mrs. Burl Coxen and family of Peppner.

Of interest to her friends here is the marriage of Miss Jean Hardie and Howard Conner, both of Vancouver, Wash., an event of November 5. The bride was attended by her sister, Mrs. V. C. Smith, and the groom by his brother-in-law, Jack Eubanks. The bride was given in marriage by her brother-in-law, V. C. Smith. After the ceremony a reception was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Smith for relatives and friends of the couple. The bride wore a dark green tailored suit with brown accessories and a corsage of white gardenias. The couple will make their home for the present at Ogden Meadows, near Vancouver. Mrs. Connor attended both grade and high school in Hermiston.

The third PTA meeting of the year was held Thursday evening. The program was presented by the school children. The program consisted of several numbers from the primary rhythm band, two numbers from the high school girls chorus, Reba Falconer sang a solo and played on her guitar, the grade school girls sang one number and the grade boys followed by singing two patriotic songs. Edward McClellan gave a speech on Socialism and Harold Baker talked about the coming basketball season. A skit was presented by Maxine Ely, Audrey Wilson accompanied by Mildred Miller, Rozella Meinen, Reba Falconer and Mrs. John Partlow. Possibilities for a high school recreation center was the main subject of discussion. After the meeting refreshments were served in the cafeteria.

A surprise potluck birthday dinner for Mr. Rippee was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Rippee Sunday. Those who attended were Mr. and Mrs. Lee Parson and family, Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Robertson, Mr. and Mrs. Ray Brown, Mrs. Grace Tyler and family, and Mr. and Mrs. Jim Howell.

Russell Miller went to Portland on business Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Meinen and Rozella left for Idaho Monday to attend the funeral of Mrs. Meinen's grandmother.

Mrs. Harley Crawford of Portland has been a guest of A. E. McFarland's past week.

A. E. McFarland went to Portland Monday night to attend an Interstate Cooperative Creamery meeting.

Mr. and Mrs. Wilber Gibbs from Estacada were visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Paul Partlow and friends here on the project the past week.

At the recent election officers of Columbia Grange, No. 867, the following were named: master, Percy Corman; overseer, Henry Ott; lecturer, Doris Panages; steward, Jack Matthews; assistant steward, Tom Clark; chaplain, Anna Cook; gatekeeper, Ben Fix; ceres, Jessie Corman; Pomona, Dulcinea Panages; flora, Mrs. Tom Clark; lady assistant steward, Izzetta Baty.

The last meeting of the Home Economics club was held at the Duff Knight home with Mrs. Knight and Mrs. Frank Hackler as hostesses. A very enjoyable time was had by all present. An election of officers for the ensuing year was held. Those elected were: Mrs. Doris Panages, chairman; Mrs. McCulley, vice chairman, and Mrs. Hackler, secretary.

It was decided that the club sell hamburgers, pie and coffee at the Epperson sale. The retiring chairman, Jessie Corman, told the members of her appreciation of their cooperation and good fellowship throughout the past year and especially during the entertaining of

Mrs. Eleanor Kirkpatrick and daughter Kathy have returned to Seattle after spending a month visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. E. McCulley and sister, Mrs. A. E. Rugg and family. Mrs. McCulley accompanied them to Seattle for a two weeks visit. She will also visit her son and family, Ralph McCulley of Tacoma.

Cliff W. Brower of Portland was in Hermiston Tuesday investigating the city in regards to locating here. Mr. Brower is an attorney and recently been engaged in practice in Portland but is seeking to locate in a smaller community. He is unmarried but his mother is living with him and he would bring her to Hermiston should he locate here.

An early family Thanksgiving dinner was enjoyed at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Pierson this week honoring their son-in-law, Vernon Backus, who left Tuesday for induction into the armed forces. Covers were placed for Mr. and Mrs. Ted Pierson and three daughters of Heppner, Mr. and Mrs. Vernon Backus and two children, and Mr. and Mrs. Frank Pierson.

Mrs. H. E. Shesely, writing from Darby, Pa., to renew her subscription, states, "The Ernest Cox family live across the street from us, but I believe they are to be transferred again soon. We were only in New York for a week and it stormed every day, so we did very little sight seeing. Philadelphia is very interesting but we still prefer Oregon." The Shesleys formerly resided here and Mr. Shesely was employed at the Umatilla Ordnance Depot.

The 31st birthday of J. T. Ayers was celebrated last Thursday at his home when a number of relatives and friends gathered to wish him well. Present were Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Wattenburger, Mr. and Mrs. Roy Coxen, Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Coxen and children, Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Ayers and daughter Juanita, Mr. and Mrs. Roy Ayers and family, Mrs. Fred Rauch Jr., all of Hermiston, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Ayers of Stanfield, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Avers and family of Independence, Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Avers of Portland and Mr. and Mrs. Burl Coxen and family of Peppner.

Of interest to her friends here is the marriage of Miss Jean Hardie and Howard Conner, both of Vancouver, Wash., an event of November 5. The bride was attended by her sister, Mrs. V. C. Smith, and the groom by his brother-in-law, Jack Eubanks. The bride was given in marriage by her brother-in-law, V. C. Smith. After the ceremony a reception was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Smith for relatives and friends of the couple. The bride wore a dark green tailored suit with brown accessories and a corsage of white gardenias. The couple will make their home for the present at Ogden Meadows, near Vancouver. Mrs. Connor attended both grade and high school in Hermiston.

The third PTA meeting of the year was held Thursday evening. The program was presented by the school children. The program consisted of several numbers from the primary rhythm band, two numbers from the high school girls chorus, Reba Falconer sang a solo and played on her guitar, the grade school girls sang one number and the grade boys followed by singing two patriotic songs. Edward McClellan gave a speech on Socialism and Harold Baker talked about the coming basketball season. A skit was presented by Maxine Ely, Audrey Wilson accompanied by Mildred Miller, Rozella Meinen, Reba Falconer and Mrs. John Partlow. Possibilities for a high school recreation center was the main subject of discussion. After the meeting refreshments were served in the cafeteria.

A surprise potluck birthday dinner for Mr. Rippee was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Rippee Sunday. Those who attended were Mr. and Mrs. Lee Parson and family, Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Robertson, Mr. and Mrs. Ray Brown, Mrs. Grace Tyler and family, and Mr. and Mrs. Jim Howell.

Russell Miller went to Portland on business Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Meinen and Rozella left for Idaho Monday to attend the funeral of Mrs. Meinen's grandmother.

Mrs. Harley Crawford of Portland has been a guest of A. E. McFarland's past week.

A. E. McFarland went to Portland Monday night to attend an Interstate Cooperative Creamery meeting.

Mr. and Mrs. Wilber Gibbs from Estacada were visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Paul Partlow and friends here on the project the past week.

At the recent election officers of Columbia Grange, No. 867, the following were named: master, Percy Corman; overseer, Henry Ott; lecturer, Doris Panages; steward, Jack Matthews; assistant steward, Tom Clark; chaplain, Anna Cook; gatekeeper, Ben Fix; ceres, Jessie Corman; Pomona, Dulcinea Panages; flora, Mrs. Tom Clark; lady assistant steward, Izzetta Baty.

The last meeting of the Home Economics club was held at the Duff Knight home with Mrs. Knight and Mrs. Frank Hackler as hostesses. A very enjoyable time was had by all present. An election of officers for the ensuing year was held. Those elected were: Mrs. Doris Panages, chairman; Mrs. McCulley, vice chairman, and Mrs. Hackler, secretary.

It was decided that the club sell hamburgers, pie and coffee at the Epperson sale. The retiring chairman, Jessie Corman, told the members of her appreciation of their cooperation and good fellowship throughout the past year and especially during the entertaining of

Mrs. Eleanor Kirkpatrick and daughter Kathy have returned to Seattle after spending a month visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. E. McCulley and sister, Mrs. A. E. Rugg and family. Mrs. McCulley accompanied them to Seattle for a two weeks visit. She will also visit her son and family, Ralph McCulley of Tacoma.

Cliff W. Brower of Portland was in Hermiston Tuesday investigating the city in regards to locating here. Mr. Brower is an attorney and recently been engaged in practice in Portland but is seeking to locate in a smaller community. He is unmarried but his mother is living with him and he would bring her to Hermiston should he locate here.

An early family Thanksgiving dinner was enjoyed at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Pierson this week honoring their son-in-law, Vernon Backus, who left Tuesday for induction into the armed forces. Covers were placed for Mr. and Mrs. Ted Pierson and three daughters of Heppner, Mr. and Mrs. Vernon Backus and two children, and Mr. and Mrs. Frank Pierson.

Mrs. H. E. Shesely, writing from Darby, Pa., to renew her subscription, states, "The Ernest Cox family live across the street from us, but I believe they are to be transferred again soon. We were only in New York for a week and it stormed every day, so we did very little sight seeing. Philadelphia is very interesting but we still prefer Oregon." The Shesleys formerly resided here and Mr. Shesely was employed at the Umatilla Ordnance Depot.

The 31st birthday of J. T. Ayers was celebrated last Thursday at his home when a number of relatives and friends gathered to wish him well. Present were Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Wattenburger, Mr. and Mrs. Roy Coxen, Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Coxen and children, Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Ayers and daughter Juanita, Mr. and Mrs. Roy Ayers and family, Mrs. Fred Rauch Jr., all of Hermiston, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Ayers of Stanfield, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Avers and family of Independence, Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Avers of Portland and Mr. and Mrs. Burl Coxen and family of Peppner.

Of interest to her friends here is the marriage of Miss Jean Hardie and Howard Conner, both of Vancouver, Wash., an event of November 5. The bride was attended by her sister, Mrs. V. C. Smith, and the groom by his brother-in-law, Jack Eubanks. The bride was given in marriage by her brother-in-law, V. C. Smith. After the ceremony a reception was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Smith for relatives and friends of the couple. The bride wore a dark green tailored suit with brown accessories and a corsage of white gardenias. The couple will make their home for the present at Ogden Meadows, near Vancouver. Mrs. Connor attended both grade and high school in Hermiston.

The third PTA meeting of the year was held Thursday evening. The program was presented by the school children. The program consisted of several numbers from the primary rhythm band, two numbers from the high school girls chorus, Reba Falconer sang a solo and played on her guitar, the grade school girls sang one number and the grade boys followed by singing two patriotic songs. Edward McClellan gave a speech on Socialism and Harold Baker talked about the coming basketball season. A skit was presented by Maxine Ely, Audrey Wilson accompanied by Mildred Miller, Rozella Meinen, Reba Falconer and Mrs. John Partlow. Possibilities for a high school recreation center was the main subject of discussion. After the meeting refreshments were served in the cafeteria.

A surprise potluck birthday dinner for Mr. Rippee was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Rippee Sunday. Those who attended were Mr. and Mrs. Lee Parson and family, Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Robertson, Mr. and Mrs. Ray Brown, Mrs. Grace Tyler and family, and Mr. and Mrs. Jim Howell.

Russell Miller went to Portland on business Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Meinen and Rozella left for Idaho Monday to attend the funeral of Mrs. Meinen's grandmother.

Mrs. Harley Crawford of Portland has been a guest of A. E. McFarland's past week.

A. E. McFarland went to Portland Monday night to attend an Interstate Cooperative Creamery meeting.

Mr. and Mrs. Wilber Gibbs from Estacada were visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Paul Partlow and friends here on the project the past week.

At the recent election officers of Columbia Grange, No. 867, the following were named: master, Percy Corman; overseer, Henry Ott; lecturer, Doris Panages; steward, Jack Matthews; assistant steward, Tom Clark; chaplain, Anna Cook; gatekeeper, Ben Fix; ceres, Jessie Corman; Pomona, Dulcinea Panages; flora, Mrs. Tom Clark; lady assistant steward, Izzetta Baty.

The last meeting of the Home Economics club was held at the Duff Knight home with Mrs. Knight and Mrs. Frank Hackler as hostesses. A very enjoyable time was had by all present. An election of officers for the ensuing year was held. Those elected were: Mrs. Doris Panages, chairman; Mrs. McCulley, vice chairman, and Mrs. Hackler, secretary.

It was decided that the club sell hamburgers, pie and coffee at the Epperson sale. The retiring chairman, Jessie Corman, told the members of her appreciation of their cooperation and good fellowship throughout the past year and especially during the entertaining of

Mrs. Eleanor Kirkpatrick and daughter Kathy have returned to Seattle after spending a month visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. E. McCulley and sister, Mrs. A. E. Rugg and family. Mrs. McCulley accompanied them to Seattle for a two weeks visit. She will also visit her son and family, Ralph McCulley of Tacoma.

Cliff W. Brower of Portland was in Hermiston Tuesday investigating the city in regards to locating here. Mr. Brower is an attorney and recently been engaged in practice in Portland but is seeking to locate in a smaller community. He is unmarried but his mother is living with him and he would bring her to Hermiston should he locate here.

An early family Thanksgiving dinner was enjoyed at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Pierson this week honoring their son-in-law, Vernon Backus, who left Tuesday for induction into the armed forces. Covers were placed for Mr. and Mrs. Ted Pierson and three daughters of Heppner, Mr. and Mrs. Vernon Backus and two children, and Mr. and Mrs. Frank Pierson.

Mrs. H. E. Shesely, writing from Darby, Pa., to renew her subscription, states, "The Ernest Cox family live across the street from us, but I believe they are to be transferred again soon. We were only in New York for a week and it stormed every day, so we did very little sight seeing. Philadelphia is very interesting but we still prefer Oregon." The Shesleys formerly resided here and Mr. Shesely was employed at the Umatilla Ordnance Depot.

The 31st birthday of J. T. Ayers was celebrated last Thursday at his home when a number of relatives and friends gathered to wish him well. Present were Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Wattenburger, Mr. and Mrs. Roy Coxen, Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Coxen and children, Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Ayers and daughter Juanita, Mr. and Mrs. Roy Ayers and family, Mrs. Fred Rauch Jr., all of Hermiston, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Ayers of Stanfield, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Avers and family of Independence, Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Avers of Portland and Mr. and Mrs. Burl Coxen and family of Peppner.

Of interest to her friends here is the marriage of Miss Jean Hardie and Howard Conner, both of Vancouver, Wash., an event of November 5. The bride was attended by her sister, Mrs. V. C. Smith, and the groom by his brother-in-law, Jack Eubanks. The bride was given in marriage by her brother-in-law, V. C. Smith. After the ceremony a reception was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Smith for relatives and friends of the couple. The bride wore a dark green tailored suit with brown accessories and a corsage of white gardenias. The couple will make their home for the present at Ogden Meadows, near Vancouver. Mrs. Connor attended both grade and high school in Hermiston.

The third PTA meeting of the year was held Thursday evening. The program was presented by the school children. The program consisted of several numbers from the primary rhythm band, two numbers from the high school girls chorus, Reba Falconer sang a solo and played on her guitar, the grade school girls sang one number and the grade boys followed by singing two patriotic songs. Edward McClellan gave a speech on Socialism and Harold Baker talked about the coming basketball season. A skit was presented by Maxine Ely, Audrey Wilson accompanied by Mildred Miller, Rozella Meinen, Reba Falconer and Mrs. John Partlow. Possibilities for a high school recreation center was the main subject of discussion. After the meeting refreshments were served in the cafeteria.

A surprise potluck birthday dinner for Mr. Rippee was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Rippee Sunday. Those who attended were Mr. and Mrs. Lee Parson and family, Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Robertson, Mr. and Mrs. Ray Brown, Mrs. Grace Tyler and family, and Mr. and Mrs. Jim Howell.

Russell Miller went to Portland on business Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Meinen and Rozella left for Idaho Monday to attend the funeral of Mrs. Meinen's grandmother.

Mrs. Harley Crawford of Portland has been a guest of A. E. McFarland's past week.

A. E. McFarland went to Portland Monday night to attend an Interstate Cooperative Creamery meeting.

Mr. and Mrs. Wilber Gibbs from Estacada were visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Paul Partlow and friends here on the project the past week.

At the recent election officers of Columbia Grange, No. 867, the following were named: master, Percy Corman; overseer, Henry Ott; lecturer, Doris Panages; steward, Jack Matthews; assistant steward, Tom Clark; chaplain, Anna Cook; gatekeeper, Ben Fix; ceres, Jessie Corman; Pomona, Dulcinea Panages; flora, Mrs. Tom Clark; lady assistant steward, Izzetta Baty.

The last meeting of the Home Economics club was held at the Duff Knight home with Mrs. Knight and Mrs. Frank Hackler as hostesses. A very enjoyable time was had by all present. An election of officers for the ensuing year was held. Those elected were: Mrs. Doris Panages, chairman; Mrs. McCulley, vice chairman, and Mrs. Hackler, secretary.

It was decided that the club sell hamburgers, pie and coffee at the Epperson sale. The retiring chairman, Jessie Corman, told the members of her appreciation of their cooperation and good fellowship throughout the past year and especially during the entertaining of

Mrs. Eleanor Kirkpatrick and daughter Kathy have returned to Seattle after spending a month visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. E. McCulley and sister, Mrs. A. E. Rugg and family. Mrs. McCulley accompanied them to Seattle for a two weeks visit. She will also visit her son and family, Ralph McCulley of Tacoma.

Cliff W. Brower of Portland was in Hermiston Tuesday investigating the city in regards to locating here. Mr. Brower is an attorney and recently been engaged in practice in Portland but is seeking to locate in a smaller community. He is unmarried but his mother is living with him and he would bring her to Hermiston should he locate here.

An early family Thanksgiving dinner was enjoyed at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Pierson this week honoring their son-in-law, Vernon Backus, who left Tuesday for induction into the armed forces. Covers were placed for Mr. and Mrs. Ted Pierson and three daughters of Heppner, Mr. and Mrs. Vernon Backus and two children, and Mr. and Mrs. Frank Pierson.

Mrs. H. E. Shesely, writing from Darby, Pa., to renew her subscription, states, "The Ernest Cox family live across the street from us, but I believe they are to be transferred again soon. We were only in New York for a week and it stormed every day, so we did very little sight seeing. Philadelphia is very interesting but we still prefer Oregon." The Shesleys formerly resided here and Mr. Shesely was employed at the Umatilla Ordnance Depot.

The 31st birthday of J. T. Ayers was celebrated last Thursday at his home when a number of relatives and friends gathered to wish him well. Present were Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Wattenburger, Mr. and Mrs. Roy Coxen, Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Coxen and children, Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Ayers and daughter Juanita, Mr. and Mrs. Roy Ayers and family, Mrs. Fred Rauch Jr., all of Hermiston, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Ayers of Stanfield, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Avers and family of Independence, Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Avers of Portland and Mr. and Mrs. Burl Coxen and family of Peppner.

Of interest to her friends here is the marriage of Miss Jean Hardie and Howard Conner, both of Vancouver, Wash., an event of November 5. The bride was attended by her sister, Mrs. V. C. Smith, and the groom by his brother-in-law, Jack Eubanks. The bride was given in marriage by her brother-in-law, V. C. Smith. After the ceremony a reception was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Smith for relatives and friends of the couple. The bride wore a dark green tailored suit with brown accessories and a corsage of white gardenias. The couple will make their home for the present at Ogden Meadows, near Vancouver. Mrs. Connor attended both grade and high school in Hermiston.

The third PTA meeting of the year was held Thursday evening. The program was presented by the school children. The program consisted of several numbers from the primary rhythm band, two numbers from the high school girls chorus, Reba Falconer sang a solo and played on her guitar, the grade school girls sang one number and the grade boys followed by singing two patriotic songs. Edward McClellan gave a speech on Socialism and Harold Baker talked about the coming basketball season. A skit was presented by Maxine Ely, Audrey Wilson accompanied by Mildred Miller, Rozella Meinen, Reba Falconer and Mrs. John Partlow. Possibilities for a high school recreation center was the main subject of discussion. After the meeting refreshments were served in the cafeteria.

A surprise potluck birthday dinner for Mr. Rippee was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Rippee Sunday. Those who attended were Mr. and Mrs. Lee Parson and family, Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Robertson, Mr. and Mrs. Ray Brown, Mrs. Grace Tyler and family, and Mr. and Mrs. Jim Howell.

Russell Miller went to Portland on business Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Meinen and Rozella left for Idaho Monday to attend the funeral of Mrs. Meinen's grandmother.

Mrs. Harley Crawford of Portland has been a guest of A. E. McFarland's past week.

A. E. McFarland went to Portland Monday night to attend an Interstate Cooperative Creamery meeting.

Mr. and Mrs. Wilber Gibbs from Estacada were visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Paul Partlow and friends here on the project the past week.

At the recent election officers of Columbia Grange, No. 867, the following were named: master, Percy Corman; overseer, Henry Ott; lecturer, Doris Panages; steward, Jack Matthews; assistant steward, Tom Clark; chaplain, Anna Cook; gatekeeper, Ben Fix; ceres, Jessie Corman; Pomona, Dulcinea Panages; flora, Mrs. Tom Clark; lady assistant steward, Izzetta Baty.

The last meeting of the Home Economics club was held at the Duff Knight home with Mrs. Knight and Mrs. Frank Hackler as hostesses. A very enjoyable time was had by all present. An election of officers for the ensuing year was held. Those elected were: Mrs. Doris Panages, chairman; Mrs. McCulley, vice chairman, and Mrs. Hackler, secretary.

It was decided that the club sell hamburgers, pie and coffee at the Epperson sale. The retiring chairman, Jessie Corman, told the members of her appreciation of their cooperation and good fellowship throughout the past year and especially during the entertaining of

Mrs. Eleanor Kirkpatrick and daughter Kathy have returned to Seattle after spending a month visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. E. McCulley and sister, Mrs. A. E. Rugg and family. Mrs. McCulley accompanied them to Seattle for a two weeks visit. She will also visit her son and family, Ralph McCulley of Tacoma.

Cliff W. Brower of Portland was in Hermiston Tuesday investigating the city in regards to locating here. Mr. Brower is an attorney and recently been engaged in practice in Portland but is seeking to locate in a smaller community. He is unmarried but his mother is living with him and he would bring her to Hermiston should he locate here.

An early family Thanksgiving dinner was enjoyed at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Pierson this week honoring their son-in-law, Vernon Backus, who left Tuesday for induction into the armed forces. Covers were placed for Mr. and Mrs. Ted Pierson and three daughters of Heppner, Mr. and Mrs. Vernon Backus and two children, and Mr. and Mrs. Frank Pierson.

Mrs. H. E. Shesely, writing from Darby, Pa., to renew her subscription, states, "The Ernest Cox family live across the street from us, but I believe they are to be transferred again soon. We were only in New York for a week and it stormed every day, so we did very little sight seeing. Philadelphia is very interesting but we still prefer Oregon." The Shesleys formerly resided here and Mr. Shesely was employed at the Umatilla Ordnance Depot.

The 31st birthday of J. T. Ayers was celebrated last Thursday at his home when a number of relatives and friends gathered to wish him well. Present were Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Wattenburger, Mr. and Mrs. Roy Coxen, Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Coxen and children, Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Ayers and daughter Juanita, Mr. and Mrs. Roy Ayers and family, Mrs. Fred Rauch Jr., all of Hermiston, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Ayers of Stanfield, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Avers and family of Independence, Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Avers of Portland and Mr. and Mrs. Burl Coxen and family of Peppner.

Of interest to her friends here is the marriage of Miss Jean Hardie and Howard Conner, both of Vancouver, Wash., an event of November 5. The bride was attended by her sister, Mrs. V. C. Smith, and the groom by his brother-in-law, Jack Eubanks. The bride was given in marriage by her brother-in-law, V. C. Smith. After the ceremony a reception was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Smith for relatives and friends of the couple. The bride wore a dark green tailored suit with brown accessories and a corsage of white gardenias. The couple will make their home for the present at Ogden Meadows, near Vancouver. Mrs. Connor attended both grade and high school in Hermiston.

The third PTA meeting of the year was held Thursday evening. The program was presented by the school children. The program consisted of several numbers from the primary rhythm band, two numbers from the high school girls chorus, Reba Falconer sang a solo and played on her guitar, the grade school girls sang one number and the grade boys followed by singing two patriotic songs. Edward McClellan gave a speech on Socialism and Harold Baker talked about the coming basketball season. A skit was presented by Maxine Ely, Audrey Wilson accompanied by Mildred Miller, Rozella Meinen, Reba Falconer and Mrs. John Partlow. Possibilities for a high school recreation center was the main subject of discussion. After the meeting refreshments were served in the cafeteria.

A surprise potluck birthday dinner for Mr. Rippee was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Rippee Sunday. Those who attended were Mr. and Mrs. Lee Parson and family, Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Robertson, Mr. and Mrs. Ray Brown, Mrs. Grace Tyler and family, and Mr. and Mrs. Jim Howell.

Russell Miller went to Portland on business Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Meinen and Rozella left for Idaho Monday to attend the funeral of Mrs. Meinen's grandmother.

Mrs. Harley Crawford of Portland has been a guest of A. E