Mr. and Mrs. Joe Udey are beginning to think that their family and farm have been affected by the constellation of Caster and Pollux, the Twins. In October they became grandparents of twins, and this last week a pair of twin calves arrived.

A large number of neighbors attended the farewell dinner at the club house to honor Mr. and Mrs. Epperson who are leaving for Corvallis. A beautiful blanket was given them and a jar of sand burs was added as an after thought. As they are going to a region entirely devoid of those little "pets", they will not become lonesome for them!
