Staff Sgt. Allan Clarke, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Clarke of Sunnyside, Wn., who had completed a 15-day furlough from his duties as radio material instructor at Clarksville, Ark., stopped over in Hermiston for a short time last Wednesday as he was on his way to Pendleton to board a train for the east. Aside from Sgt. Clarke's duties as instructor at Clarksville, he is director of a large male chorus at the College of Ozarks. This was his first visit home in 2 1/2 years.

En route to Sunnyside, Allan had stopped at Eugene where he was joined by his sister, Ethel Clarke, and Miss Doris Brown, both students at Northwest Christian college. Other members of the family who accompanied Allan to Pendleton Wednesday were his parents and his brother, Francis. They returned to Sunnyside that same evening.

Crown It With Cranberries!

THIS TIME of year, it seems to me there are few things so appetizing as cranberries. Just the thought of them makes me think of "good eating"—and they are so versatile! Here are a few ways to use them so that they will subtly put a crowning touch on any important dinner.

Cranberry-Orange Relish: Ever popular to serve with chicken, turkey or meat. Make plenty and store in refrigerator. Coarsely grind 4 cups (1 lb.) cranberries and 2 large oranges. Add 2 cups sugar and let stand 3 to 4 hours. Makes about one quart.

Ten-minute Cranberry Sauce: A fall and holiday must—luscious whole cranberries in their own rosy juice. Boil 2 cups water and 2 cups sugar together 5 minutes and add 4 cups (1 lb.) cranberries, cook slowly, without stirring, until skins pop (about 5 minutes). Skim and pour immediately into serving dish. Let stand undisturbed until cool. Makes 1 quart.

Lamb Chops with Cranberries: Just before serving broiled or panfried lamb chops, top with Cranberry-Orange Relish or Cranberry Jelly.

Cranberries in Salads

Jellied Relish Salad: Fold 1 cup Cranberry-Orange Relish and 3/4 cup sliced celery into 1 package dissolved lemon gelatin. Chill in individual or large mold until set. Unmold and serve with sweetened mayonnaise or salad dressing.

Cranberry Jelly-Chicken Salad: A flavorful pair. Serve chicken salad with cubes of cranberry jelly lightly mixed in just before serving.
