LOCALS

Mr. and Mrs. O. O. Felthouse left Monday to spend a week in Portland on business.

Mrs. Beulah Helms entered the local hospital Wednesday as a medical patient.

Mrs. Floyd Sherwood returned Wednesday from the Ordnance hospital to her home in Hermiston.

Wayne Wallace was a tonsilectomy patient at the local hospital on Tuesday.

Mrs. Casha Shaw of Heppner is visiting in Hermiston this week at the home of her son and family, Mr. and Mrs. Guy Shaw.

A bazaar and cooked food sale will be held Saturday, December 9, at Burnham's by the ladies of the Methodist church.

Mrs. E. M. Ayers of Ordnance was a tonsilectomy patient at the local hospital Monday.

A baby girl was born to Mr. and Mrs. Jack J. Horner in the Pendleton hospital Wednesday. The little tot weighed eight pounds and has been named Barbara Lou.

George Harris was able to leave the Hermiston hospital Friday following several weeks treatment for a heart ailment.

Mrs. R. E. Walker left the Hermiston general hospital for the Walla Walla general hospital for consultation Wednesday.

Mrs. Frank Helms of Spokane, Wash., who has been making her home with her daughter, Mrs. Fred Rauch, is confined to her home this week due to illness.

Mrs. Harriet Shaw was a surgery patient at the local hospital on Friday and returned home Monday.

Mrs. J. H. Ryland, a former resident of the Columbia district, was taken to the Walla Walla hospital for treatment this week.

Fred Sievers arrived home Sunday from Walla Walla following an appendectomy. However, Monday he entered the Hermiston hospital with pneumonia.

Dr. J. P. Stewart, eyesight specialist of Pendleton, will be at the Hermiston Hotel on Wednesday, December 13, between the hours of 10:00 a. m. to 5:00 p. m.

Mr. and Mrs. Louis Creston of Bingen, Wash., are parents of a baby boy, named John Helmer. Mrs. Creston is the former Beulah Ryland.

Mrs. James Todd arrived home Friday from St. Louis, Mo., after having spent a month visiting her parents, who celebrated their 50th (golden) wedding anniversary.

Ralph Saylor of the Butter Creek district recently made a trip to Paris, Texas, to visit his son, Lt. Eldon Saylor. He is now stationed at Camp Maxey, near Paris.

Mrs. C. L. Upham left today to spend two weeks visiting her son, Dick Upham and family, in Portland and a daughter, Mrs. Lawrence Hart at Forest Grove.

Mrs. R. B. Thomas of Seattle arrived Monday to spend a week visiting her mother, Mrs. Emma Moore, who is a patient at the local hospital suffering from undulant fever.

Little nine months old Frankie Backus, son of Mr. and Mrs. Vernon Backus, was a patient Saturday and Sunday at the local hospital receiving treatment for ear trouble.

Pfc. Bill Nation, son of Mr. and Mrs. B. J. Nation, left Monday for Sacramento where he is stationed with a hospital unit. He recently accompanied a soldier patient to Spokane, allowing him a few days visit at home.

Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Gibbs left this week for Yakima, Wash., to visit until Saturday with relatives. Saturday Mr. Gibbs will take his pre-induction physical for the armed forces. Mr. Gibbs has been water and sewer maintenance man here for several years.

Mrs. Paul Van Patten and small daughter, Ilene, of La Grande arrived Sunday en route home from Seattle to visit her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Roy Attebury, and other relatives for a week. The Van Pattens are former Hermiston residents.

Miss Ina L. Moore took E. A. Deulon of Boardman, who has been in the local hospital for four months, by ambulance to the Walla Walla hospital this week and returned with W. A. Thomas of Ione, who is 101 years old, who had gone to Walla Walla to have his hip set.

Irrigon Youth Is Paratrooper

Private Mit B. Connell, son of Mrs. W. B. Connell of Irrigon, has won the right to wear "Wings and Boots" of the United States Army Paratroop.

Local Relative Is Prisoner

Cpl. John Frederick is a prisoner of war in Germany, according to news received here by Mrs. Lloyd Harryman. Cpl. Frederick is Mrs. Harryman's brother-in-law, and Mrs. Frederick is the former Miss Agnes Roberts, who graduated from Hermiston high school some years ago. Cpl. Frederick was a gunner aboard an army bomber and apparently was forced down while on a mission over Germany.

Canned Goods Should Be Taken

H. F. Lindner, manager at the Cooperative Laundry and Cannery, states that there are still a number of cans stored at the cannery which should be picked up as soon as possible by the owners. No responsibility will be assumed by the firm should they be lost or frozen. Mr. Lindner also stated that there will be canning every Thursday at the plant.

Christmas Spirit Again In Air

As has been the custom in past years, the first sign of the Christmas season was manifested this week at the Inland Cooperative where a musical revolving Christmas tree stand made its appearance. The apparatus is electrically operated and tinkles its cheery music throughout the day. Rebecca Pierson, stenographer, claims it plays four tunes but to the reporter they all sound the same.

TRANSFER HAS NEW QUARTERS

H. H. Gailey, owner of the Hermiston Transfer Co., is announcing that his firm is no longer associated with Consolidated Freightways and Inland Motor Freight and that he has opened new offices at his home located the 4th house east of the Hermiston grade school on Ridgeway avenue.

Mr. Gailey has been in the transfer business for several years and states that his company is bonded and insured for local and long distance hauling. His phone number is 3091.
