locally by the Auxiliary to provide a "Gift for a Yank." Over 300 packages were wrapped during the evening.

The group met Wednesday night of this week in what in the past has been the annual Christmas party, usually featuring an exchange of gifts. This year each member brought a package of cigarettes which were sent to veterans in the Walla Walla hospital.

POST OFFICE TO REMAIN OPEN

W. E. Logan, Hermiston postmaster, states that the local post-office will remain open until 6:00 p. m. Saturday, December 16, instead of the usual 3:00 o'clock closing time in order to facilitate the mailing of Christmas packages.

The Christmas rush is now underway with hundreds of packages going and coming every day. Scarcity of space in the office is again hampering the handling of packages and Christmas cards. It is hoped that ere another Christmas rolls around, new quarters can be secured.

SOUND MOTION PICTURE SLATED

Methodism's "Crusade for Christ" is attempting to meet the needs of humanity where war has brought its desolation and tragedy. In order to more vividly picture these needs and conditions, a sound motion picture will be shown at the Methodist church this Sunday night at 8:00 p. m. when the Sunday Evening club presents official army films of the havoc wrought in Italy and other countries. The public is cordially invited to attend.

TRIPLE A NAMES NEW OFFICERS

James Beamer, assistant secretary of the AAA, of Pendleton, was present Wednesday afternoon at a meeting of that organization in Hermiston. He presented goals of the AAA for 1945 and urged active participation by all those interested. Information locally can be obtained from Henry Kopaec, secretary, in the office of Frank Hackler, assistant county agent.

New officers were named as follows: Ralph Saylor, chairman; Clint Jackson, vice chairman; Lloyd Russell, regular member; Gaylord Madison, first alternate; H. J. Andrews, second alternate.
