WHAT stancher tree than the oak, and what stancher friends than ours? Each year at Christmastime we realize more keenly than ever that our success in this community is deeply rooted in the firm soil of friendship. We cannot tell you in so many words how much these friendly associations mean to us, and how we cherish them. But we know you will understand.

In this spirit of appreciation we send our sincere good Christmas wishes to you and to all those dear to you.

HERMISTON BAPTIST CHURCH
H. V. McGee, Pastor

ALL the good old fashioned spirit of the season is expressed in this hearty MERRY CHRISTMAS.

Mr. and Mrs. J. V. Villermoure and Mrs. Rumpel plan to spend from Saturday through Christmas day with their other daughter, Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Hoosier in Pendleton.

Mrs. Joe Baumgartner received word that her son, Pfc. Albert Isensee, was operated on for appendicitis recently in the Army Hospital at Lincoln, Neb., and is getting along nicely.

Miss Joyce Ritchie returned home this week to spend the Christmas vacation with her mother, Mrs. Anna Ritchie. Miss Ritchie is a student at Seattle College, a Jesuit school.

Mrs. H. V. McGee returned home Monday from the Walla Walla General hospital where she recently underwent a major operation. Rev. McGee stated Wednesday that Mrs. McGee is getting along nicely but is still quite weak.

Frank Hackler, assistant county agent, and H. K. Dean, manager of the Umatilla Field Station, attended a meeting of county agents and experiment farm managers in Corvallis last week. The men report an interesting convention, gaining many new pointers from the various discussions.

Miss Jinky Wilson, daughter of Mrs. Jean Wilson, and Miss Kay Charleson, daughter of Major and Mrs. D. B. Charleson, arrived here Wednesday from St. Paul's school in Walla Walla for the Christmas vacation. Miss Wilson was the only girl out of her class to make the honor roll in St. Paul's school.

Word has been received by local relatives of the marriage of Edwin A. Isensee, C. Sk., to Miss Evelyn Scott, of California. They were married December 8 at Vancouver, Wash. Edwin was admitted to the Naval Hospital at Astoria, Ore., December 9, due to injuries received while on duties overseas.

The public is invited to a pie social and entertainment at Westland school Wednesday, Dec. 27, at 8:00 o'clock, sponsored by Westland grange. Ladies bring pie. 19-1

Seven piano students of Mrs. Max Piger gave a recital for the parents last Thursday evening in the parlors of the Methodist church. Each student played a solo and then a duet with the instructor. Participating were Janice Daugherty, Maxine Hinkle, Marlene Turner, Betty Walls, Dorothy Ann Quinn of Stanfield, and Helen and Harlan Heyden, also of Stanfield. Refreshments were served later in the evening.

H. A. Pankow, former chief of police of Hermiston, spent Tuesday and Wednesday in the city installing a deep well pump at the Umatilla Cooperative Creamery. Mr. Pankow is now connected with the R. M. Wade & Co. as field representative. He states that they are now residing in Portland, following two years in California where he headed an investigation bureau but resigned because of too much inside work. He states that Allan is in radio work in Portland and that Don is now with the Army Air Forces. Mrs. Pankow is in fine health and likes Portland as a home.

Enumerators Are Needed
The Farm Census, which will be started soon after the first of the year, has been taken for the past one hundred and fifty years. Anyone interested in work as enumerator please write to the Bureau of Census office in Burns, Ore., and each one will be notified when a school will be held to instruct in your county.
