ELDERLY MAN PASSES AWAY

Funeral services for John Boyd Pace were held Friday, December 29, from Folsom's chapel in Pendleton with Rev. O. D. Harris, pastor of the Christian church of that city, officiating. He passed away Monday, December 25, at St. Anthony's hospital. Mr. Pace, who was born in Missouri, was 75 years of age and lived for years in the Wallowa region, later coming to this area where he was well known. He is survived by his widow; a daughter and son, Mrs. R. W. Armstrong of Hermiston, and John Pace of Los Angeles, Calif.; a grandson and two great grandsons; two brothers, Samuel Pace of Enterprise, and Ira Pace of Joseph, and a sister, Mrs. J. A. Eggelson of Enterprise.

Mr. Pace had been in failing health for the past four or five years. He settled in the Wallowa region in the summer of 1887, herding sheep for a time and then going into partnership in the stock business with his older brother Sam . Later he engaged in farming and stock raising until 1926 when he moved to Umatilla county. He was known as an industrious and capable farmer and also as an unusually friendly and jovial fellow.
