Organization of the new city council was effected Wednesday evening with Mayor Elect Charles L. Gray in the chair. W. H. Cray was reappointed recorder and Ben Gaskill was appointed marshal to succeed E. J. Nieland, who resigned. Marian George succeeds Nona McPaul as treasurer.

Councilmen Fred Dorn, M. E. Laughlin and Roy Smith, who were elected in November, qualified, and Henry Vohs was appointed to fill a vacancy caused by the resignation of Dr. C. L. Gray. The latter resigned as councilman to take the position as mayor. Hold-over councilmen are M. E. Coe and Joe Middleton.

The salary of the city marshal was increased from $150 to $185 a month. Mr. Gaskill was Echo marshal for several years but for the past two years has been employed at the U.O.D. as a guard. The retiring mayor, A. C. Ebert, is also employed at Ordnance. Standing committees of the council for the year have been named by the mayor as follows: Judiciary—Laughlin, Dorn, Coe; Fire Department—Vohs, Middleton, Laughlin; Streets, Health, Water—Middleton, Vohs, Smith; Finance—Smith, Coe, Middleton; Hall and Parks—Dorn, Smith, Vohs; Cemetery—Coe, Dorn, Laughlin.

Buildings and fences of the Cunningham Sheep Co. at the Nolin headquarters have been improved the past month, a crew of three men being employed on the job. Lambing of a part of the company flocks is expected to start at this camp about February 5, and other bands will lamb at the West Birch Creek camp.

Sgt. George Williams left Thursday for Camp Hood, Texas, after spending a Christmas furlough here with his wife, Mr. and Mrs. Williams and daughter Carol visited Farragut during the holiday season to see their son, Robert Meehan, who has completed his boot training and is now in the hospital corps. He will have 16 weeks of training in this line of work.

Guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Roy Smith Monday and Tuesday were Rolland Lee, their nephew, who has been in service at New Guinea but is now at McCaw hospital in Walla Walla, Mr. and Mrs. Bernard Lee, and Mr. and Mrs. Bob Lee of Bremerton, Wn., and Miss Lois Lee of Anacortes, Wash.

Mrs. Harold Liesegang spent the holidays with her husband at Oakland and returned Wednesday. Mrs. E. D. Bennett substituted for Mrs. Liesegang in the school the first of the week.

Mr. and Mrs. Donald Madison of Salem, who visited the Gaylord Madisons and the J. Frank Spinnings, Christmas, have purchased a home close to the capitol grounds in Salem. Mr. Madison is conducting a service station in that city.

Mrs. Cora Longwell was confined to her home this week by a painful foot ailment.

Mrs. Harold Liesegang went to Elgin this week end to bring home her daughter, Jan, who has been visiting there with her grandmother.

Among former Echoites heard from during the holiday season were Mr. and Mrs. R. H. Seaton of La Grande, who have bought a home at 1325 W. Ave. in that city. Howard Drew, former Echo school superintendent, is at Sand Lake, near Tillamook, and Mr. and Mrs. F. C. Fitzpatrick, also Echo teachers several years ago, are now teaching at Wasco. Lt. Rolland Nelson, graduate of Echo high school, who has been in India and China for the past three years, spent part of a holiday furlough with his parents in Salem.

Mr. and Mrs. Homer Coppinger returned Sunday from a visit since late November with their son Kenneth, at Camp Roberts, Calif. Kenneth is reported feeling well although he has lost several pounds. Ideal weather at the camp permitted the boys to lie around on the grass in their shirt sleeves Christmas day. The Coppings also visited friends at San Francisco and Fresno.

Mrs. George Luciani returned from Camp Roberts, Calif., last week end after a visit there with her son George. She went south with Homer Coppinger in November and returned by train.

Marilyn, one of the twin daughters of Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Attebury, has been brought home to Echo. The little sister is still at St. Anthony's hospital, Pendleton, where the children were being cared for in an incubator.

Mrs. C. B. Greene has been very ill at the Pendleton hospital for about a month with peritonitis and her condition is reported to be showing no improvement.

Mrs. Cora Longwell is still confined to her home by a foot ailment and was reported worse Saturday, but is now slightly improved.

A. Motheny has just received a letter from his son Orville in the Philippines, saying: "We had a fine Christmas, everything one could ask for to eat. Dad, you should come over here if you want good shooting. You can shoot before sunup or after sundown, and there's no game warden. No limit is on bags of Japs."

Dr. J. H. Brazeale and Mrs. Brazeale, who lived in Echo 25 years ago, stopped over the week end with Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Spinning. He was on his way to Seattle with a model of a super-bomber he has designed and expects production to be started at once on making this new type plane. Dr. Brazeale is now in government service and will be stationed for some time at the Boeing plant in Seattle.
