HOLY LAND VISIT IS DESCRIBED

Corp. Eugene Jackson, brother of Rex Jackson, recently had the privilege of spending a 12-day furlough in the Holy Land, which is 2400 miles from where he is stationed at Iran. He, in company with others, went to Bagdad by train and on to Fel Avir by trucks. He states that it was a wonderful trip although very cold and rough. Fel Avir he writes is a very nice city with buildings quite modern. It slopes down to the Mediterranean. They spent Christmas eve in Jerusalem and went through the huge church where Christ's tomb is located and walked down the alley where Christ carried His cross. He also washed his hands in the River of Jordan. He writes that his experiences are quite varied, but like many others, is anxious for peace to come and be able to return to the United States—also to get acquainted with his young twin daughters who he has never seen. He has been overseas 21 months.

We don't like to say "no"

If you are waiting for a home telephone, we think we know how you feel. You'd like a telephone now, not weeks or months from now. And we'd like to install it for you now.

But so long as the needs of war have first claim on telephone facilities — and until the manufacture of adequate equipment can be resumed — it just won't be possible to avoid delays in filling telephone orders.

Meanwhile, we are finding an attitude of co-operation and understanding on your part that is genuinely appreciated by all of us.
