PROMOTION FOR KELLER LISTED

First Lt. Leonard Keller has recently been promoted to the rank of Captain, according to word received here by Mrs. Keller this week. Since his escape from a German prison camp where he was placed after his plane was shot down, Capt. Keller has been with the Intelligence Dept. in Paris and London. He recently returned to his base in France where he is awaiting the remainder of his crew to finish their work. They will then be released to return home, probably some time around the first of April.

Captain Keller is particularly anxious to return home to see his eight months old son, Leonard Dean, whom he has never seen. He has been overseas approximately 11 months, having entered the service in June, 1942.

LOCAL RELATIVE PASSES AWAY

Mrs. Mary Deal, a resident of Rainier, Ore., since 1907, but recently residing here at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Eva Burchett, passed away quite suddenly Monday, January 29. She had resided here about 16 months and had been as well as usual despite her age and collapsed without warning. Funeral services were held Sunday at the J. O. Elbon Funeral Home in Rainier with Rev. J. M. Ingold, pastor of the Church of God, officiating. Burial was in the Woodbine cemetery there.

Mrs. Deal was born at Mary Counts, in Carter county, Ky., on April 11, 1864. She married William Deal in 1885, the latter preceding her in death in 1934.

Surviving are four sons and four daughters: Willis Deal of Rainier; George Deal, Toledo; Charles Deal, Rainier; Herman Deal, Portland; Eva Burchett, Hermiston; Mary Girt, Jewell; Ann Hayworth Prescott and Maggie Crank of Rainier.

CLOTHES GIVEN TO RUSSIANS

A "Share Your Clothes with the Russians" campaign is underway this week throughout the state. The committee in charge is headed by Governor Earl Snell, and the campaign is being sponsored by Oregon school systems, Oregon defense council, the American Legion, Department of Oregon, and the American Legion Auxiliary.

Clean serviceable clothing and shoes are desperately needed by seventy million men, women and children in Russia who have been stripped of their clothing by the Nazi invaders.

In Hermiston, clothing and shoes are being left at the grade school building Thursday (today). Boy Scouts will be ready to receive donations and will assist the Legion in preparing bundles for shipment to headquarters in Portland. Shoes should be fastened in pairs. Bundles will also be received at the school Friday.

T. J. Means and Harold Anderson are in charge of arrangements for the American Legion, Post No. 37.
