"The American Sky Lectures" of the Brown Foundation, will be given at the school auditorium Thursday, February 15, at 2:00 p. m. The illustrated lectures are planned to present simple, fundamental knowledge by which man may become acquainted with the stars. They are illustrated by means of up-to-date planetarium equipment. Latest photographs known to astronomers, made by means of powerful telescopes are featured. From the reports of those who have already seen these illustrations, Boardman people are fortunate in having an opportunity to attend one of these lectures. Admissions for adults will be 25c and children 10c.

thousand visits were made by "out patients", during the months of November, December, 1944, and for part of January, 1945. The dispensary service includes immunization shots for small pox, typhoid, diphtheria and whooping cough for children and adults. Expectant mothers avail themselves of the prenatal care given to them, consequently our infant mortality has been nil.

Accidents and emergency operations are immediately taken care of in the hospital's most modern and up-to-date surgical department. "An ounce of prevention is worth a pound of cure," could well be the motto of Captain Arthur E. Walker, Officer in command of the Station Hospital and his able assistants, Captain Bonniwell, and Lt. DePasquale.

Captain Dean H. Affleck is now at Camp Lewis, Wash., and expects overseas duty. Captain Arthur E. Walker succeeds him as Post Surgeon.

Mrs. Nell Corneille, R.N., is making quite a record for "no lost time." She has been an active nurse for over forty years, and still going strong. In fact she has been on straight graveyard for over a year, and has just taken Party hints...

Party time means eating time to young and old alike. Here are some new and different suggestions that add sparkle to any gathering.

HOT SCONES

2 cups all-purpose flour 1 tbsp. grated orange or lemon rind
3 tps. baking powder 1 egg
1/2 tsp. salt Milk
2 tps. sugar 2 tps. orange or lemon juice
6 tps. shorten ing

Sift flour; measure; sift again with baking powder, salt, and 1 tsp. of the sugar into mixing bowl. Cut in shortening with pastry blender or 2 knives. Add orange or lemon rind. Beat egg with fork in measuring cup and add milk to make 3/4 cup; add to flour mixture; stir quickly and lightly just until all flour is dampened. Turn onto lightly floured board; knead 20 to 30 seconds; roll or pat into 9-inch circle about 1/2-inch thick. Place in ungreased 9-inch round cake pan; mark into 8 wedges with fork tines; brush top with orange or lemon juice; sprinkle with remaining sugar. Bake in hot oven (450° F.) 15 minutes, or until done. Serves 8.

CREAMED TUNA, HAM OR CHICKEN

4 tps. shortening 2 tps. finely cut parsley
4 tps. all-purpose flour 2 tps. finely diced pi-
2 cups milk or miento
chicken broth 2 tps. grated
1/4 tsp. salt 2 tps. onion
2 cups flaked tuna, ham, or chicken

Make white sauce in double boiler; Melt shortening; blend in flour; add milk or broth gradually; cook until thickened, stirring frequently. Add remaining ingredients; heat thoroughly. Serves 6.
