DAYS ARE BUSY AT WESTLAND

A total of 37 people were in attendance at the Westland Grange meeting February 23. J. D. McKay, agriculture committee chairman, discussed certified seed potatoes and mentioned the fact that the National Master, Mr. Goss, would be in attendance at a peace conference to be held in Mexico City. J. D. Corliss gave a resume of the livestock and crop reports for 1943 and 1944 in the Westland district.

Robert Cusick discussed military training as the grange sees it and Floyd Laird, chairman of the pep committee, reported $54.65 cleared on the recent pie social. Mrs. Moe Kennison, home economics chairman, reported 15 ladies and five children present at the last home economics meeting and a very profitable day was spent in sewing. Another bond was purchased for the grange and one was also sent to the national grange headquarters for the building fund of the beautiful new grange offices in Washington, D. C.

Five candidates will be initiated in the 1st and 2nd degrees Friday, March 9. At the meeting the program will be put on by the men officers.
